THE PSALMS OF DAVID IN MEETER.

PSALM I. T. S.

He man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked read his ear :
For led his life as sinners do,
nor late in scorner's clair.
But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight :
and in that law doth exercise
himself both day and night.
He shall be like the tree that grows fast by the rivers side: (fruit which bringeth forth most pleasant
in his due time and tide :
whose leaf shall never fade or fall,
but flourish till and stand :
Even so all things shall prosper well
that this man takes in hand.
So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so :
but as the dust which from the earth
the wind drives to and fro.
Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgement stand upright :
Nor yet the sinners with the just,
shall come in place or fight.
For why? the way of godly men
un to the Lord is known :
and eke the way of wicked men
shall quite be overthrown.

PSALM ii. T. S.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise?
what rage was in their brain?
Why did the Jewith people muse,
feeling al'is but in vain?
The Kings and Rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent,
against the Lord and Christ his Son,
which he among us sent.

Shall we be bound to them, say they let all their bonds be broke :
and of their doctrine and their law,
let us reject the yoke.
But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride :
and make them all as mocking stocks,
throughout the world so wide.
For in his wrath the Lord will say,
to them upon a day :
and in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say :
I have anointed him my King
upon my holy hill :
will therefore Lord preach thy law,
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himself,
did say to me I wot,
Thou art my dear and only Son,
to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possest.

9 Thou shalt them bruise even with a
as men under foot trod (mace).
And as the potters shreds shall break
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye O Kings and Rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd :
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear :
See that with reverence ye rejoice
to him in like manner.

12 See that ye kiss and eke embrace
his blest Son, I say, Left in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid way.

13 If once his wrath never so small,
shall kindle in his brest :
Oh then all they that trust in Christ
shall happy be and blest.

PSALM iii. T. S.

O Lord how are my foes increast,
which vex me more and more?
2 They kill my heart whenas they say,
God can him not restore.
3 But thou (O Lord) art my defence
when I am hard beset :
My worship and mine honour both,
and thou holdst up my head.

4 Then with my voice unto the Lord
I did both call and cry
And he o'er of his holy hill
did hear me by and by.

5 I laid me down and quietly
I slept and rose again :
For why I know assuredly,
the Lord will me sustain.

6 If ten thou and had hem'd me in,
I could nor be afraid :
For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.

Rise up therefore, save me, my God,
for now to thee I call :

7 For thou hast broke the cheeks & teeth
of these wicked men all.

8 Salvation only doth belong to thee O Lord above : Thou doft beftow upon thy folk thy bleſſing and thy love.

PSALM iiiij. T.S.

1 God that art my righteousnesſ,
Lord hear me when I call,
Thou haſt ſet me at liberty,
when I was bound and thrall.
2 Have mercy Lord therefore on me,
and grant me my requelt :
For unto thee unceſſantly,
to cry I will not refit.

3 O mortall men how long will ye my glory thus despise ?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies ?

4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse :
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refue.

5 Sin not, but ſtand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart :
And in your chamber quietly,
ſee you your ſelues convert.

6 Offer to God the ſacrifice
of righteousnesſ, I ſay :
And look that in the living Lord
you put your truſt alway.

7 The greater fort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace :
But Lord grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.
8 For thou thereby ſhalt make my heart
more joyfull and more glad,
Than they that of their corne and wine
full great increafe have had.

9 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my refit and ſleep :
For thou only wilt me, O Lord, alone in ſafety keep.

PSALM v. T.S.

1 Ncline thine ears unto my words,
O Lord my plaint confider :
2 And hear my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
3 Hear me betime, Lord tarry not,
for I will have respect,
My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.

4 And I will truſt through patiencē
in thee my God alone :
Thou art not pleasd with wickednesſ
and ill with thee dwels none.
5 And in thy fight ſhall never stand
these furious fools O Lord :
Vain workers of iniquity,
thou haſt alwaies abhor'd.

6 The lyars and the flatterers
thou haſt de broy the n̄ thin :
And God will hate the blood-thirſty,
and the deceitfull man.

7 Therefore will I come to thine house
trusting upon thy grace :
And reverently will worship thee,
toward thine holy place

8 Lord lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes :
And eke the way that I ſhall walk,
before my face diſclose.

9 For in their mouthes there is no truſt,
their heart is foul and vain :
Their throat an open ſepulchre,
their tongues do glosē and fain.

10 Deftroy their false conſpiracieſ,
that they may come to naught :
Subvert them in their heaps of ſin,
which have rebellion wrought

11 But thoſe that put their truſt in thee
let them be glad alwaies :
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy Name the praise.

12 For thou with favour wil increase the juſt and righteous ſtill :
And with thy grace as with a ſhield,
defend him from all ill.

PSALM vi. T.S.

1 Ord in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deſerve thine ire :
Ne yet correſt me in thy rage,
O Lord I thee deſire.

2 For I am weak, therefore O Lord,
of mercy me forbare :
And heal me Lord, for why thou know'ſt
my bones do quake for fear.

3 My ſoul is troubled very ſore,
and vexed vehemently,
But Lord how long wil thou delay,
to cure my miſery ?

4 Lord turn thee to thy wanted grace,
my ſilly ſoul up take :
O ſave me, nox for my deſerts,
but for thy mercieſ ſake.

5 For why ? no man among the dead
re nembreth thee one whit :
Or who haſt worſhip thee (O Lord)
in the infernal pit ?

6 So grievous is my plaint and moane,
that I wax wonderous faint :
All the night long I waſh my bed
with tears of my complaint.

7 My fight is dim and waxeth old
with anguith of my heart :
For fear of thoſe that be my foes,
and woul'd my ſoul ſubvert.

8 But now away from me all ye
that work iniquity :
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.

9 He heard no: only the requelt
and prayer of my heart :
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.

16 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will soon desame:
And suddainly confound them all
to their rebuke and shame.

PSALM viiij. T. S.

O Lord my God, I put my trust,
and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliver me.

2 Let like a Lion he me rear,
and rend in pieces small,
While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God if I have done
the thing that is not right:
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight.

4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress,
Which me pursu'd most cruelly,
and hated me cauleſſ.

5 Then let my foes pursue my soul,
and eke my life down thrall Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Start up O Lord now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
Perform the Kingdom promised
to me which wrong sustain.

7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy ſelf as Lord and king.

8 And as thou art of all men Judge,
O Lord now judge thou me
According to my righteousness,
and mine integrity.

The ſecond Part.

9 Lord ceafe the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guide:

10 By whom the ſecrets of all hearts
are searched and defcri'd.

11 I take my help to come of God
in all my pain and smart:
That doth preserve all thofe that be
of pure and perfect heart.

12 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeſt by his power:
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.

13 Except he change his mind, I die,
for even as he ſhould ſmire,
He whets his ſword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit.

14 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and ſharp,
For them that do me persecute,
whilſt he doth miſchief warp.

15 But lo though he in travell be
of his deviſh fore-cast:
And of his miſchief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth nougat at laſt.

16 He digs a ditch and delves it deep,

in hope to hurt his brother:
But he it all fall into the pit
that he dig'd up for other.

17 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred:
And all the miſchief that he wrought,
shall fall upon his head.

18 I will give thanks to God therefore,
that judgeſt righteouſly:
And with my ſong will praise the Name
of him that is moſt high.

PSALM viiiij. T. S.

O God our Lord how wonderfull
are thy works every where:
Whose fame furmounts in dignity,
above the heavens clear!

2 Even by the mouths of ſucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in those babes thy might is ſeen,
thy graces they diſclose.

3 And when I ſee the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand:
The Sun, the Moon, and all the ſtarres,
in order as they stand:

4 What thing is man (Lord) think I then?
that thou doſt him remember?
Or what is mans potterie,
that thou doſt it conſider?

5 For thou haſt made him little leſſ
then Angels in degree:
And thou haſt crowned him also
with glory and dignity.

6 Thou haſt prefer'd him to be Lord
of all thy works of wonder:
And at his feet haſt ſet all things,
that he ſhould keep them under.

7 As ſheep and neat, and all beaſts elſe
that in the fields do feed:

8 Fowles of the ayre, fish in the ſea, and all that therein breed.

9 Therefore muſt I ſay once again,
O God that art our Lord:
How famous and how wonderfull
are thy works through the worl.

PSALM ix. T. S.

With heart & mouth unto the Lord
will I ſing laud and praise:
And ſpeak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare alwaies.

2 I will be glad and much rejoice,
in thee O God moſt hie:
And make my ſongs extoll thy Name
above the ſtarry ſkie.

3 For that my foes are driven back,
and turned unto high:
They fall down flat and are deftroid
by thy great power and might.

4 Thou haſt revenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge:
Thou doſt with justice heat my cause
moſt like a righteous Judge.

5 Thou doſt rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked ſo confound:

That afterward the memory
of them cannot be found.
6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their towns desfroid :
Thou hast their fame with them defac'd,
through all the world so wide.
7 Know now that he which is above
for evermore shall reign,
And in the seat of equity
true judgement will maintain.
8 With justice he will keep and guade
the world and every wight :
And so will yeld with equity
to every man his right.
9 He is protector of the poor,
what time they be opprest :
He is in all adversty
their refuge and their rest.
10 And they that know thy holy Name
therefore shall trust in thee :
For thou forsakest not their suit
in their necessity.

The second Part.

11 Sing Psalms therefore unto the Lord,
that dwels in Sion hill :
Publish among all nations,
his noble acts and will.
12 For he is mindfull of the bloud
of those that be opprest :
Forgetting not th affidt heart
that seeks to him for rest.
13 Have mercy Lord on me poor wretch
whose enemies still remain :
Which from the gates of death are wont
to raise me up again.
14 In Sion that I might set forth
thy prale with heart and voice :
And that in thy saluation Lord,
my soul may still rejoice.
15 The heathen stick fast in the pit
that they themselves prepar'd :
And in the net that they did set,
their own feare fait are snar'd.
16 God thews his judgments & were good for every man to mark :
When as ye see the wicked man
lie trap'd in his own wark.
17 The wicked and deceitfull men
go down to hell for ever :
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
18 But sure the Lord will not forget the poor mans grief and pain :
The patient people never look for help of God in vain.
19 O Lord arise lest men prevail,
that be of worldly might :
And let the heathen folk receive,
their judgment in thy sight.
20 Lord strike such terrorour, fear & dread
into the hearts of them :
That they may know assuredly,
they be but mortall men.

What is the cause that thou O Lord
art now so far from thine ?
And keepest close thy countenance
from us this troublous time ?
2 The poor do perish by the prond
and wicked mens desire :
Let them be taken in the crast
that they themselves conspee.
3 For in the last of his own heart
th'ungodly doth delight
So doth the wicked prale himself,
and doth the Lord despight.
4 He is so proud that right and wrong
he setteth all apart :
Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.
5 Because his wayes do prosper still,
he doth thy laws neglect :
And with a blast doth puff against such as woud him correct.
6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no dread,
lest mine estate should change :
And why ? for all adversty
to him is very strange.
7 His mouth is full of cursidnes,
of fraud, deceit and guile :
Under his tongue deeth mischief sit,
and travell all the while.
8 He lieth hid in waises and holes,
to slay the innocent :
Against the poor that pass him by,
his cruel eyes are bent.
9 And like a Lyon privily
lies lurking in his den :
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoil poor simple men.
10 And for the nonce full craftily
he croucheth down, I say :
So are great heaps of poor men made by his strong power his prey.

The second Part.

11 Tush, God forgetreth this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold :
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
12 Arise O Lord, O God in whom the poor mans hope doth rest :
Lift up thy hand, forget not Lord
the poor that be opprest.
13 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord doft thou not abhor it ?
To hear the wicked in their heart
say, tush thou car'it not for it ?
14 But thou seest all their wickedness,
and well doft understand,
That friendles and poor fatherles
are left into thy hand.
15 Of wicked and malicious men,
then break the power for ever :
That they with their iniquity
may perish altogether.

Psalm xj. xij. xiii. xiv.

16 The Lord shall reign for evermore,
as King and God alone :
And he will chase the Heathen folk,
out of the land each one.

17 Thou heard'st (O Lord) the poor mans, their prayer and request : (y'ain't
Their hearts thou wilt confirm untill thine ears to hear be prest.

18 To judg the poor and fatherless,
and help them to their right :
That they may be no more opprest
by men of worldly might.

PSALM xi. T. S.

1 Trust in God, how dare ye then say thus my soul until? :
Fly hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide you in your hill.
2 Behold the wicked bend their bows,
and make their arrows prest,
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmless brest.

3 Of worldly hope all stays were shrank,
and clearly brought to nought :
Alas the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought ?

4 But he that in his Temple is,
most holy and most high :
And in the heavens hath his seat
of royal majesty,

The poor and simp'e mans estate
confideth in his mind :
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manners of mankind :
5 And with a chearfull countenance
the righteous man will use :
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief muse.
6 And on the sinners casteth snares,
as thick as any rain :
Fire and brimstone & whirlwinds thick,
appointed for their pain.

7 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace :
And to the just and upright men
shews forth his pleasant face.

PSALM xii. T. S.

1 Help Lord, for good and godly men
do perish and decay :
And faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.

2 Who so doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all but vain ;
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie and fain.

3 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be so stour,
To speak proud words, and make great
the Lord soon cuts them our. (brags

4 For they lay still, we will prevail,
our tongues shall us extoll :
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak,
what Lord shall us controll ?

5 But for the great complaint and cry
of poor and men opprest :

Arise will I, now saith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.

6 Gods Word is like to silver pure,
that from the earth is tri'd :
And hath no less than seaven times
in fire been purifid.

7 Now fth thy promise is to help,
Lord keep thy promise then :
And save us now and evermore,
from this ill kind of men.

8 For now the wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold :
When vanity with worldly men
so highly is extold.

PSALM xiii. T. S.

1 How long wilt thou forget me Lord ?
How shall I ne're be remembered ?
How long will thou thy visage hide,
as though thou were offend'd ?

2 In heart and mind how long shall I with care torment'd be ?
How long eke shall my deadly foe
thus triumph over me ?

3 Behold me now, my Lord my God,
and hear me sore opprest :
Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleep,
as one by death possest.

4 Let that mine enemie say to me,
behold I do prevail :
Let they also that hate my soul,
rejoyce to see me quail.

5 But from thy mercy and goodness,
my hope shall never starr :
In thy relief and saving health
right glad shall be my heart.

6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing,
Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my wilbing.

PSALM xiv. T. S.

1 There is no God as foolish men affirm in their mad mood :
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.

2 The Lord beheld from heaven high
the whole race of mankind :
And saw not one that sought indeed
the living God to find.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt,
and truly there was none,
That in the world did any good,
I say, there was not one.

4 Is all their judgment so far lost,
that all work mischief still ?
Eating my people even as bread,
not one to seek Gods will ?

5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall :
For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them all.

6 Ye mock the doings of the poor,
so their reproach and shame :

Because

Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his name.

7 But who shall give thy people health,
and when wilt thou fulfil Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill?
8 Even when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led:
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM xv. T. S.

O Lord within thy Tabernacle,
who shall inhabit still!
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill?
2 The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and straight:
Whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit.
3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill,
in body, goods, or name:
Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might emprise the same.
4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But those that love and fear the Lord,
he maketh much of them.
5 His oath and all his promises
that keepeth faithfully:
Although he make his covenant so,
that he doth lose thereby.
6 That putteth not to usury
his money and his coyne:
Ne for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe or else purleyne.
7 Who so doth all things as you see that here is to be done:
Shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come

PSALM xvi. T. S.

Lord keep me, for I trust in thee,
and do confess indeed
Thou art my God, and of my goods
O Lord thou hast no need.
2 I give my goods unto the Saints,
that in the world do dwell:
And namely to the faithfull flock
in verue that excell.
They shall heap sorrows on their heads,
which run as they were mad
To offer to the idol gods,
alas it is too bad.
4 As for their bloody sacrifice,
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.
5 For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that doft maintain
my rent, my lot, my chance.
The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excell.

Mine heritage assign'd to me,
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right:
For by his meanes my secret thoughts
do teach me every night.
8 I set the Lord still in my fight,
and trust him over all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.
9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoice together:
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing confider.
10 Thou wilt not leave my soul in grave
for Lord thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one,
corruption for to see.

11 But wilt me teach the way to life
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face,
and power for evermore.

PSALM xvii. T. S.

O Lord give ear to my just cause,
attend when I complain:
And hear the prayer that I put forth,
With lips that do not fain.
2 And let the judgment of my cause,
proceed alwaies from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and clear
this my simplicity.
3 Thou hast well tri'd me in the night,
and yet couldst nothing finde
That I have spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.
4 As for the works of wicked men,
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy Name,
I have restrained still.

5 Then in thy paths that be most pure
stay me Lord and preserve:
That from the way wherein I walk,
my steps may never swerve.
6 For I do call to thee O Lord,
surely thou wile me aid:
Then hear my prayer & weigh right well
the words that I have said.
7 O thou the Saviour of all them
that put their trust in thee:
Declare thy strength on them that spurn
against thy Majestie.
8 O keep me as thou wouldest keep
the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly.

The second Part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me annoy:
And from my foes that go about
my soul for to destroy.
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth
so full are they and fat.

That

That in their pride they do not spare
to speak they care not what.
11 They lie in wait where I should pass,
with craft me to confound :
And musing mischief in their mind
to cast me to the ground.
12 Much like a Lion greedily
that wou'd his prey embrace :
Or lurking like a Lions whelp,
within some secret place.
13 Up Lord, in haste prevent my foes,
and cast him at thy feet :
Save thou my soul from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.
14 Deliver me Lord, by thy power,
out of these tyrants hands :
Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.
15 I mean from worldly men, to whom
all worldly goods are rise :
That have no hope nor part of joy,
but in this present life.
16 Thou of thy store their bellies fil'st
with pleasure to their mind :
Their children have enough and leave
to theirs the rest behinde.
17 But I shall with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face :
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

PSALM xviii. T. S.

O God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee :
Thou art my castle and defence
in my necessity.
2 My God my Rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth :
My refuge, buckler and my shield,
the horn of all my health.
3 When I sing laud unto the Lord,
most worthy to be serv'd :
Then from my foes I am right sure,
that I shall be preserv'd.
4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where :
The towng waves of wickedness
did put me in great fear.
5 The flie and subtill snares of hell
were round about me set :
And for my deaht there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net :
6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace :
And he forswitnch did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.
7 Such is his power, that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake :
Yea the foundation of the mount
of Bafon for to shake.
8 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
when kindled was his ire :
And from his mouth came kindled coles
of hot consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from above,
and bowed the heavens high :
And underneath his feet he cast
the darkness of the sky.
10 On Cherubs and on Cherubims
full royally he rode :
And on the wings of all the winds
came flying all abroad.

The second Part.

11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place :
With waters black and airy clouds
environed he was.
12 But when the presence of his face
in brightness shall appear :
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coles of fire.
13 The fiery darts and thunder bolts
disperse them here and there :
And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great fear.
14 Lord, at thy wrath and the lightnings,
and at thy chiding clear
The springs and the foundations of all the world appear.
15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below :
And pluck'd me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.
16 And me delivered from my foes
that wou'd have made me thrall :
Yea from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withall.
17 They did prevent me to oppres
in time of my great grief :
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.
18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free :
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.
19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard.
And to the cleannels of my hands
he gave me my reward.
20 For that I walked in his ways,
and in his path have tyred :
And have not wavering wickedly against my Lord and God.

The third Part.

21 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree :
His statutes and commandements
I cast not out from me.
22 But pure, and clean and uncorrupt,
appear'd before his face :
And did refrain from wickedness
and sin in any case.
23 The Lord therefore will me reward
as I have done aright :
And to the cleannels of my hands,
appearing in his sight.
24 For I ord with him that holy is,
wilt thou be holy too.

6 And all the skie from end to end
he compasseth about :
Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will find it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his Covenant sure :
Converting souls, and making wise
the simple and obtuse ?

8 Just are the Lord's commandments,
and glad both heart and mind :
His precepts pure, and giveth light to eyes that be full blind.

9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever :
The judgments of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether :

10 And more to he embrac'd alway,
than fine gold I say :
The honey and the honey-comb
are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is fore-warn'd
to have God in regard :
And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward.

12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
the errors of his life ?
Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most ripe.

13 And keep me that presumptuous sins
prevail not over me :
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences free.

14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one :
For my Redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

PSALM xx. T.S.

1 N trouble and adversity,
the Lord God hear thee still :
The Majesty of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill.

2 And send shae from his holy place
his help at every need :
And so in Sion stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Rememb'reng well the sacrifice,
that now to him is done :
And so receive right thankfully thy burnt-offerings each one.

4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant unto thee :
And all thy counfel and device,
full well perform may he.

5 We shall rejoice when thou us sav'st
and our banners display Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace :
And send him help by his right hand
out of his holy places.

7 In chariots some pur confidence,
and some in horses trust :

But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.
8 They fall down flat, but we do rise,
and stand up stedfastly :
7 Now save and help us Lord and King
on thee when we do cry.

PSALM xxij. T.S.

1 O Lord how joyfull is the King,
in thy strength and thy power ?
How vehemently doth he rejoice
in thee his Saviour ?

2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire :
To him nothing thou hast deni'd,
of that he did require.

3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts,
and blessings manifold :
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.

4 And when he ask'd life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure :
To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid :
Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

6 Thou wilt give him felicity,
that never shall decay :
And with thy chearfull countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why, the King doth strongly trust
in God for to prevale :
Wherefore his goodness and his grace
will not that he shall quail.

8 But let thine enemies feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand,
Find out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an oven burn them Lord,
in fiery flame and fume :
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.

10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase :
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.

11 For why, much mischief did they muse
against thy holy Name :
Yet did they fail, and had no power
for to performe the same.

12 But as a mark thou shal them set
in a most open place :
And charge thy bow-strings readily against thine enemies face.

13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore in thy strength every hour :
So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and power.

PSALM xxij. T.S.

1 O God my God, wherefore doth thou forsake me miserly ?

And helpest not when I do make my great complaint and cry ?
2 To thee my God even all day long
I do both cry and call ;
Leave not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.
3 Even thou that in thy Sanctuary,
and holy place dost dwell :
Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.
4 And he in whom our fathers old
had all their hope for ever :
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliver.
5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy Name :
And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.
6 But I am now become a worm,
more like than any man :
An out-cast whom the people scorn,
with all the spite they can.
7 All men despise as they behold
me walking on the way : (heads)
They grin, they mow, they nod their
and on this wile they lay :
8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love :
Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.
9 But Lord out of my mothers womb,
I came by thy behest :
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck her brest.
10 I was committed from my birth,
with thee to have abode :
Since I was in my mothers womb,
thou hast been ere my God.

The second Part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from me,
in this my present grief :
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.
12 So many bulls do compass me,
that be full strong of head :
Yea bulls so far, as though they had in Bashan field been fed.
13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay :
Much like a Lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.
14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joynts in a funder break :
My heart doth in my body melt,
like wax against the heat. (strengths)

15 And like a portheard dri'eth my my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last 16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsell eke
Conspire against me cursedly,
17 They pierce my hands and feet.

17 I was tormented so that I might all my bones have told :
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.
18 My garments they divided eke
in parts among them all :
And for my coat they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.
19 Therefore I pray thee be not farre
from me at my great need :
But rather sith thou art my strength,
to help me Lord make speed.
20 And from the sword Lord save my soul
by thy might and thy power :
And keep my soul, thy darling dear,
from dogs that would devour.
21 And from the Lions mouth that would me all in funder shiver :
And from the horns of Unicorns
Lord safely me deliver.
22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majesty record :
And in thy Church shall praise the Name
of thee the living Lord.

The third Part.

23 All ye thatfeath, in praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him :
And all ye seed of Israel
with reverence worship him.
24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he turneth not awry.
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their cry.
25 Among the folk that fear the Lord,
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forgh thy Name.
26 The poor shall eat and be suffic'd
and those that do endeavour
To know the Lord, shall praise his Name
their hearts shall live for ever.
27 All coasts of th' earth shall praise the
and turn to him for grace : ( Lord
The heathen folk shall worship him
before his bleid face.
28 The Kingdom of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore :
And he shall be their governour,
and King for evermore.
29 The rich men of his goodly gifis, shall feed and taste also :
And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.
30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste :
My seed shall serve and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.
31 My seed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be born hereafter,
His justice and his righteousness,
and all his works of wonder.

PSALM xxiii. W. W.

THe Lord is only my support,
And he that doth me feed:
How can I then lack any thing,
whereof I stand in need?
2 He doth me fold in coars most safes,
the tender grass falt by:
And after drives me to the streames
which run most pleasantly.
3 And when I feel my selfe near lost,
then doth he me home take:
Condueting me in his right patches,
even for his own Names sake.
4 And though I were even at deaches doore
yet would I fear none ill:
For with thy rod and thy perhds crook,
I am comforted still.
5 Thou hast my table richly deck'd,
in despight of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balm refreid
my cap doth overflow.
6 And finally, while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.

Another of the same by T. S.

MY theherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need:
In pastures fair with waters calm,
he sets me for to feed.
2 He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my mind in frame
To walk in paths of righetcousness,
for his most holy Name.

Yea though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:
Thy rod, thy staff doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.
4 And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt (O Lord) fill full my cup,
and eke anoint my head.

5 Through all my life thy favour is so frankly ikewed to me:
That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling place shall be.

PSALM xxiv. I. H.

THe earth is all the Lords, with all her store and furniture:
Yea his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.
2 For he hath fastly founded it,
above the seas to stand:
And laid a low the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.
3 For who is he O Lord that shall ascend into thy hill?
Or pass into thy holy place,
there to coniue still? (heart 4 Whose hands are harmles, and whose
no spot there doth defile:
His soul not set on vanity,
who hath not sworn to guiles.

5 Him that is such an one, the Lord shall place in blisfull plight:
And God his God and Saviour
shall yeld to him his right:
6 This is the broot of travellers,
in seeking of his grace:
As Jacob did the Israelites,
in that time of his race.
7 Ye Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.
8 Who is the King of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord:
The mighty Lord in battell hour,
and triall of the sword.
9 Ye Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.
10 Who is the King of glorious state?
the Lord of hosts it is:
The Kingdom and the royalty
of glorious state is his.

PSALM xxv. T. S.

ILift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just:
Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.
2 Let not my foes rejoice,
nor make a scorn of me:
And let them not be overthrown,
that put their trust in thee.
3 But shame shall them befall,
which harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right waies
unto me Lord defry:
4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me, I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.
5 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee, Lord, remember,
And eke thy pity plentifull,
for they have been for ever.
6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.
Not after my deserts
let me thy mercy find:
But of thine own benignity,
Lord, have me in thy mind.
7 His mercy is full sweer,
his grace perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will finners teach,
and such as go af de.
8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep:
He will direct in all his waies,
the lowly and the meek.
9 For all the waies of God
are truth and mercy beake.

To them that keep his Testaments
the witness of his troth.

The second Part.

10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord I thee increat,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for it is wondrous great.
11 Who so doth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct :
To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.
12 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand :
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the Land.
13 All those that fear the Lord,
know his secret intent :
And unto them he doth declare his Will and Testament.
14 Mine eyes and eke my heart
to him I will advance :
That pluck'd my feare out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.
15 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my mone :
For I am poor and desolate.
and comfortless alone.
16 The troubles of my heart,
are multipli'd indeed :
Bring me out o' this misery,
necessity and need.
17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain :
Remit my sin and mine offence
and make me clean again.
18 O Lord, behold my foes
how they do still increase :
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain would live in peace,
19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and eke deliver me :
And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.
20 Let my simple purenes
me from my enemies skend :
Because I look as one of thine,
that thou shouldest me defend.
21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

PSALM xxvi. T.S.

1 Lord be my Judge, and thou shalt see :
my paths be right and plain :
I trust in God, and hope that he will strengthen me to remain.
2 Prove me my God, I thee desire,
my wayes to search and try :
Asmen do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart espy.
3 Thy goodness laid before my face,
I durst behold alwayes :
4

For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my dayes.
4 I do not lust to haunt or use,
with men whose deeds are vain :
To come in house I do refuse,
with the deceitfull train.
5 I much abhor the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise :
I do not once to them resort,
that hurtfull things devise.
6 My hands I wash and do proceed
in works to walk upright.
Then to thine altar I make speed.
to offer there in sight.

7 That I may speak and preach the praise
that doth belong to thee :
And so declare how wondrous wayes
thou hast been good to me.
8 O God thy house I love most dear,
to me it doth excell :
I have delight, and would be near
whereas thy grace doth dwell.
9 O shut not up my soul with them,
in sin that take their fill :
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seek much bloud to spill.
10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and their lives thereof are full : (guile)
And their right hand w wrench & wile
for bribes doth pluck and pull.
11 But I in righteousness intend
my time and dayes to serve :
Have mercy Lord, and me defend,
so that I do not swerve :
12 My foot is staid for all assayes,
it standeth well and right :
Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples sight.

PSALM xxvii. J.H.

T He Lord is both my health & light
shall man make me dismaird ?
Sith God doth give me strength & might Why shold I be afraid ?
2 While that my foes with all their begin with me to brawl : (strength)
And think to eat me up at length themselves have caught the fall.
3 Though they in camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid :
In battle pight if they will try,
I trust in God for aid.
4 One thing of God I do require,
that he would not deny :
For which I pray and will desire till he to me apply.
5 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell :
To see the beauty of his face,
and view his Temple well.
6 In time of dread he shall me hide,
within his place most pure :
And keep me secret by his sides
as on a rock most sure.

At length I know the Lord's good grace
shall make me strong and stout :
My foes to foyl and clean deface,
that compas me about.
8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise :
With Psalms and Songs I will apply to laud the Lord alwayes.

The second. Part.

8 Lord hear the voice of my request,
for which to thee I call :
Have mercy Lord on me opprest,
and send me help withall.
10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee
I sue to have thy grace :
Then seek my face fainst thou to me,
Lord I will seek thy face.

11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide :
Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide.
12 My parents both their son forsook,
and cast me off at large :
And then the Lord himself yet took
of me the care and charge.
13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forthright :
For fear of such as watch for me
to trap me if they might.
14 Do not berake me to the will,
of them that be my foes :
For they surmisse against me still,
false witness to depose.

15 My heart would faint but that in me
this hope is fixed fast :
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see in life that aye shall last.
16 Trust still in God whose whole rhou
his will abide thou must : (art,
And he shall ease and strenght thy heart
if thou in him do trast.

PSALM xxviiiij. T.S.

T How art (O Lord) my strength and the succour which I crave : (stay Neglect me not, lest I be like
to them that go to grave.
2 The voice of thy suppliant heare
that unto thee doth cry :
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy Ark most high.
3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervert :
That speak right fair unto their friends
but think full ill in heart
4 According to their handy-work,
as they deserve indeed :
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.

5 For they regard nothing Gods work,
his law ne yet his lore :
Therefore will he them and their seed,
destroy for evermore.
6 To render thanks unto the Lord,
how great a cause have I.

My voice, my prayer, and my complaints
that heard so willingly ?

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distress :
My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
my song shall him confess.
8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to reut :
The heath and the salvation
of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage
Lord blesse, guide and preserve :
Increase them Lord & rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

PSALM xxix. T.S.

G IVE to the Lord ye Potentates
ye Rulers of the world :
Give ye all praise, honour and strength
unto the living Lord.

2 Give glory to his holy Name,
and honour him alone :
worship him in his Majestie,
within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all even as himself doth please :
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and governs all the seas.
4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent :
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the Cedar-trees so long :
The Cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong.
6 And makes them leap like as a Calf,
or else the Unicorn :
Not only trees, but mountains great whereon the trees are born.

7 His voice divides the fames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness :
8 It makes the desert quake for fear,
that called is Cadeh.
9 It makes the Hinds for fear to calve,
and makes the covers plain :
Then in his Temple every man
his glory doth proclaim.

10 The Lord was set above the flood,
ruling the raging sea :
So shall he reign as Lord and King,
for ever and for aye.
11 The Lord will give his people power
in virtue to increase :
The Lord will bless his chosen flock
with everlasting peace.

PSALM xxx. F. H.

A LI laud and praise with heart and
O Lord I give to thee : (voice,
Which didst not make my foes rejoice
but hast exalted me.

2 O Lord my God to thee I cry'd
in all my pain and grief ;

Then

Thou gav'st an eat and didn't provide to ease me with relief.

3 Of thy good will thou hast cal'd back
my soul from hell to save:
Thou didst revive when strength did lack
and keptst me from the grave.

4 Sing praise ye saints that prove and see
the goodness of the Lord:
In memory of his Majesty
rejoice with one accord.

5 For why? his anger but a space
doth last, and slack again:
But in his favour and his grace
alwaies doth life remain.

Though gripes of grief & pang's full sore
shall lodge with us all night:
The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say:
Tush, I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.

7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace
hadst sent me strength and aid:
But when thou turn't away thy face,
my mind was sore dism'd.

8 Wherefore again yet did I cry
to thee O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply,
and pray'd both day and night.

9 What gain is in my blood (said I)
if death destroy my daises?
Doth duit declare thy Majesty,
or yet thy truth doth praise?

10 Wherefore my God some pity take,
O Lord I thee desire:
Do not this simple soul forsake,
of help I thee require.

11 Then didst thou turn my grief & woe
into a cheerfull voice:
The mourning weed thou took'it me fro,
and mad'it me to rejoice.

12 Wherefore my soul unceasantly shall sing unto thy praise:
My Lord my God to thee will I give laud and thanks alwaies.

P S A L M xxxi. I. H.

O Lord I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame:
As thou art just deliver me,
and set me quit from blame.

2 Hear me O God, and that anon,
to help me make good speed:
Be thou my rock and howfe of Rose,
my fence in time of need.

3 For why? as stones thy strength is tri'd,
thou art my fort and tower:
For thy Name's sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.

4 Pluck thou my seer out of the snare,
which they for me have laid:

Thou art my strength, and all my care
is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit
my spiri't which is thy due:
For why thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.

6 I hate such folk as will not part
from things to be abhor'd:
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell:
Thou seest when ought would me annoy,
and knowit my soul full well.

8 Thou hast not left me in their hands,
that would me overcharge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The second Part.

9 Great grief O Lord doth me afflai,
some pity on me take:
Mine eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail
my womb for woe doth ake.

10 My life is worn with grief and pain,
my years in wo are past:
My strength is gone, and through disdain
my bones corrupt and waste.

11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dism'd:
My neighbours and my kinsmen born,
to see me are afraid.

12 As men once dead are out of mind,
so am I now forgor:
As small effect in me they find,
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my mind did fray:
How they conspir'd, and went about
to take my life away.

14 But Lord I trust in thee for aid,
not to be over-trod:
For I confess and still have said,
thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my life and age
O Lord is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy servant (Lord) express,
and shew thy joyfull face:
And save me Lord for thy goodness,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third Part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked bear the shame,
and in their grave to fall.

18 O Lord make dunb their lips outright
which are addit to lies:
And cruelly with pride and spight
against the just devise.

19 O how great good hast thou in store,
laid up full safe for them

That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the frowns of men ! (guide 20 Thy presence shall them fence and from all proud brags and wrongs :
Within thy place thou shal them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace so farre :
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of warre.
22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore opprest :
Lo I was clean cast out of sight,
yea heardist thou my request.
23 Ye Saints love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithfull he doth guide :
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.
24 Be strong and God will stay your hearts
be bold and have a lust :
For sure the Lord will take your part,
lath ye in him do crust.

P S A L M xxxij. T. S.

T He man is blest whose wickedness
the Lord hath clean remitted :
And he whose sin and wickedness
is hid and also covered.
2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin :
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.
3 For whilst that I kept close my sins
in silence and constraint :
My bones did wear and waste away
with daily mone and plaint.
4 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,
That all my blood and humours moir
to drine's did convert.
5 I did therefore confess my faults,
and all my sins discover,
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my sins past over.
6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time :
So that the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.
7 When trouble and adversity
do compas me about :
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.
8 Come hither and I will thee teach
how thou shal't walk aright :
I will thee guide, as I my self have learn'd by proof and sight.
9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule :
Whose mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canst not rule.
10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs sustain :
But unto him that trusts in God,
his goodness shall remain.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice :
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke rejoice.

P S A L M xxxijj. J. H.

Y E righteouſe in the Lord rejoice,
it is a seemly sight,
That upright men with thankful voice
should praise the Lord of might.
2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song,
in Psalms and pleasant things :
With Lute, and Instrument among,
that soundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new with courage give him praise :
4 For why his word is ever true,
his works and all his waies.
5 To judgment, equity and right,
he hath a great good will :
And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.
6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought :
Their hosts and powers every one
his breath to pass hath brought.
7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heaps within the shore :
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.
8 All men on earth both least and most fear God and keep his Law :
Ye that inhabit in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.
9 What he commanded wrought it was at once with present speed :
What he doth will is brought to pass
with full effect indeed.

10 The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought :
He doth defear the multitude of their device and thought.
11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage :
The motions of his mind and will take place in every age.

The second Part.

12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known :
Whom he doth choole of meir accord,
to take them as his own.
13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight,
on men mortal by birth :
14 Considering from his seat of might
the dwellers of the earth.
15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought
mans heart, and doth it frame :
For he alone doth know the thoughts
and working of the same.
16 A King that traffich in his host,
shall nought prevail at length :
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fall for all his strength.

17 The troops of horsinen eke shall fall,
their sturdy steeds shall sterfe :
The strength of horse shall not prevaile,
the rider to preseve.

18 But to the eyes of God intend and watch to aid the just :
With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodness truſt.

19 That he of deaſt and great diſtreſſe,
may ſet their ſouls from dread :
And if that deaſt their land opprefſe,
in hunger them to feed.

20 Wherfore our ſoul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay,
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our ſoul in God hath joy and game,
rejoycing in his might :
For why ? in his moſt holy Name
we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord,
ſtill preſent with us be :
As we alwayes with one accord,
do only truſt in thee.

P S A L M xxxiv. T. S.

1 Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord alwayes :
And eke my mouth for evermore
ſhall ſpeak unto his praise.

2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in ſoul and eke in voice :
That humble men and mortiſh'd
may hear and ſo rejoice.

3 Therefore ſee that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord :
And let us now exalt his Name
together with one accord.

4 For I my ſelf beſought the Lord,
he anſwered me again :
And me deliver'd incontinent,
from all my fear and pain.

5 Who ſo they be that him behold,
thall ſee his light moſt clear,
Their countenance ſhall not be daſh'd,
they need it not to fear.

6 This filly wretch for ſome reliefs,
unto the Lord did call :
Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The Angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place :
To ſave all ſuch as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.

8 Taſte and conſider well therefore,
that God is good and just :
O happy man that maketh him
his only stay and truſt.

9 Fear ye the Lord ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing :
For they that fear the living Lord,
are ſure to lack nothing.

10 The Lions ſhall be hunger-bit,
and pin'd with famine much ;

But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack ſhall be to ſuch

The ſecond Part.

11 Come near therefore my children deſ
and to my words give ear :
I ſhall teac'h the perfect way,
how ye the Lord ſhould fear.

12 Who is the man that would live long and lead a bleſſed life ?

13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed :
Inquire for peace and quietneſſe,
and follow it with speed.

15 For why ? the eyes of God above
up on the just are bent :
His ears likewiſe do hear the plaints
of the poor innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his brow
upon the wicked train :
And cuts away the memory,
that ſhould of them remain.

17 But when the just do call and cry
the Lord doth hear them ſo,
That out of pain and misery
forthwiſh he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kind and straight at hand
to ſuch as be contrite :
He ſaves alſo the sorrowfull,
the poor and meek in ſprite.

19 Full many be the miseries,
that righteous men do ſuffer :
But out of all adverſities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth ſo preſerve and keep their very bones alway :
That not ſo much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

21 The ſin ſhall ſlay the wicked man,
which he himſelf hath wrought :
And ſuch as hate the righteous man,
ſhall ſoon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth ſave them ſound :
And who that put their truſt in him,
nothing ſhall them conſound.

P S A L M xxxv. J. H.

1 Ord plead my cauſe againſt my foes, conſound their force and might :
Fight on my part againſt all thole
that ſeek with me to fight.

2 Lay hand upon the ſpear and ſhield,
thy ſelf in armour dres :
Stand up for me and fight the field,
to help me from diſtreſſ.

3 Gird on thy ſword, and ſtop the way,
mine enemies to withſtand :
That thou unto my ſoul maſt fay,
lo I thy help at hand.

4 Conſound them with rebuke & blame,
that ſeek my ſoul to ſpill :

Let them turn back and fee with shame
that think to work me ill.
5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as wind doth drive the dust :
And that the Angel of our God,
their might away may thrust.
6 Let all their wayes be void of light,
and slippery like to fall :
And send thine Angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.
7 For why? without my fault they have
in secret set their gin :
And for no cause have dig'd a cave
to take my soul therin.
8 When they think least and have no care
O Lord destroy them all :
Let them be trap in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.
9 And let my soul in heart and voice
in God have joy and wealth :
That in the Lord I may rejoice,
and in his saving health.
10 And then my bones shall speak & say,
my parts shall all agree :
O Lord though they do seem full gay,
what one is like to thee?

The second Part.

11 Thou dost defend the weak from them
that are both stout and strong :
And rid the poor from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.
12 My cruel foes against me rise,
to witnes things untrue :
And to accuse me they devise
of things I never knew.
13 Where I to them did owe good will they quit me with disdain :
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soul doth sore complain.
14 When they were sick I mourn'd there-
and clad my self in sack : (fore,
With fasting I d'd faint full sore,
to pray I was not slack.
15 As they had been my brethren dear
I did my self behave :
As one that makerh wofull cheer
about his mothers grave.
16 But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout :
Yea abjest slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and checks full stout.
The belly-gods and flattering train,
that all good things deride :
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouths aside.
18 Lord why wilt thou so long forbear,
why dost thou stay and paue ?
O rid my soul mine only dear,
out of these Lions claws.
19 And then will I give thanks to thee,
before the Church always :
And where most of the people be,

there will I strew thy praise.
20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault :
Nor let them wink or turn their eyes,
that causeless me assault.

The third Part.

21 Of spece no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue :
They still consult, and would betray
all those that peace ensue.
22 With open mourn they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they sneer :
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.
23 But Lord thou seest what wayes they cease not my grief to mend : (take
Be not far of, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.
24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right :
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.
25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God set me free :
And let them not their pride express,
nor triumph over me.
26 Let not their hearts rejoice and cry
there, there, all goeth trim :
Nor give them cause to say on high
we have our will on him.
27 Confound them with rebuke & shame
That joy when I do mourn :
And pay them home with spite & blame
that brag at me with scorn.
28 Let them be glad and eke rejoice,
which love mine upright way.
And they all times with heare and voice
shall praise the Lord, and say, 29 Great is the Lord and doth excell,
for why he doth delight
To see his servants prosper well,
that is his pleasant fight.
30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply,
thy righteousness to praise :
Unto my Lord my God will I sing laud and praise alwayes.

PSALM xxxvij. J.H.

THe wicked with his works unjust
dorh thus perswade his heart :
That of the Lord he hath no trut
his fear is set apart.
2 Yet dorh he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began :
So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.
3 His words are wicked, vile & naught,
his tongue no truth doth tell :
Yet at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well.
4 When he should sleep, then doth he his mischiefs to fulfill : (muse
No wicked wayes doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.

5 But Lord thy goodness doth ascend above the heavens high,
So doth thy truth it self extend unto the cloudy skie.
6 Much more then hills so high and steep,
thy justice is exprest :
Thy judgments like to seas most deep,
thou sav' st both man and beast.
7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God it doth excell :
In trust whereof as in thy wings,
the sonnes of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed,
with plenty at their will :
Of all delights they shall be spred,
and take thereof their fill.
9 For why? the well of life so pure
dorh ever flow from thee :
And in thy light we are full sure
the lasting light to see.
10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart :
Thy righteousness declare and shew
to men of upright heart.
11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord of thy good grace :
Nor let the wicked me annoy,
to throw me out of place.
12 But they in their device shall fall,
thar wicked works maintain :
They shall be overthrown withall,
and never rise again.

PSALM xxxvij. W. W.

G Rudge not to see the wicked men,
In wealch to tourin still :
Nor yet envy such as to ill
have bent and set their will.
2 For as green grass and fowrishing are cut and wither away : (herbs
So shall their great prosperity
soon pass, fade and decay.
3 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy mind :
So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there sure food shall find.
4 In God set all thy hearts delight,
and look what thou wouldst have,
Or else canst wish in all the worlds,
thou needst it not to crave.
5 Cast both thy self and chine affairs,
on God with perfect trust :
And thou shalt see with patience,
the effect both sure and just.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will clear as the light :
So that the Sun even at noon daies,
shall not shine halff so bright.
7 Be still therefore and stedfastly
on God see thou wait then :
Nor shrinking for the prosperous state
of lewd and wicked men.

8 Shake of despight, envy and hate,
at least in any wise :
Their wicked steps avoid and flee
and follow not their guise.
9 For every wicked man will God
destroy both more and less :
But such as trust in him are sure
the land for to posses.
10 Warch but a while and thou shalt see
no more the wicked train :
No not so much as house or place
where once he did remain.

The second Part.

11 But mercifull and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land :
In rest and peace they shall rejoice,
for nought shall them withstand.
12 The lewd men and malicious,
against the just conspire :
They gnath their teeth at him as men,
which do his bane desire.
13 But while þ lewd men thus do think the Lord laughs them to scorn :
For why, he sees the term approach,
when they shall figh and mourn.
4 The wicked have their swords out drawn,
their boweke have they bent / drawen
To overthrow and kill the poor,
as they the right way went.
15 But the same sword shall pierce them which was to kill the just : (heart Likewise the bow shall break to shiver
wherein they put their trust.
16 Doubtless the just mans poor estate
is better a great deal more :
Than all these lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped store.
17 For be their power never so strong,
God will it overthrow :
Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble then and low.
18 He sees by his great providence,
the good mens trade and way :
And will give them inheritance,
which never shall decay.
19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard beset :
When other shall be hunger bry,
they shall be clad and fed 20 For whoeuer wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord :
Shal qual, yea melt even as lambs grease
or smoke that flies abroad.

The third Part.

21 Behold the wicked borrows much,
and never pates again :
Whereas the just by liberal gifts,
makes many glad and fain.
22 For they whom God doth bless, shall the land for heritage : (have
And they whom he doth curse likewise,
shall perish in his rage.

3 The Lord the just mans waies doth and give him good succes: (guide,
o every thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good addres.
4 Though that he fall, yet is he sure
not utterly to quail,
because the Lord puts out his hand
at need and doth not fail.
5 I have been young and now am o'd, yet did I never see
the just man left, nor yet his seed
to beg for misery
6 But gives alway most liberally,
and lends whereas is need:
is children and posterity
receive of God their meed.
7 Flee vice therefore and wickedness,
and vertue do embrace:
shall God grant thee long to have
on earth a dwelling place.
8 For God so loveth equity,
and shews to his such grace:
that he preferreth them alway,
but stroyes the wicked race.
9 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land:
aving as Lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.
10 The just mans mouth shall ever speak
of matters wise and hie:
is tongue doth talk to edifie,
with truth and equity.
11 For in his heart the Law of God
his Lord doth still abide:
that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.
12 The wicked like a ravening Wolf,
the just man doth befit:
by all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth Part.

3 Though he should fall into his hands,
yet God would succour send:
ough men against him sentence give,
God would him yet defend 4 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then
the earth to rule, and thou shalt see deltroid these wicked men
5 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree:
lourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Lawrell-tree.
6 But suddenly he past away,
and so he was quite gone:
hen I him sought, but could not find
the place where dwelt such one.
7 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
or the just man shall have at length
great joy with rest and peace.
8 A- for transgressours, wo to them,
devoid they shall all be:

God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.
13 But the salvation of the just doth come from God above:
Who in their trouble sends them aid
of his mere grace and love.
14 God doth them help, save and deliver
from lewd men and anijit:
And still will save them whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

PSALM XXXVIII. I. H.

Put me not to rebuke O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
Ne in thy heavy wrath O Lord,
correct me I desire.
2 Thine arrows do stick fast in me
thy hand doth pres me sore:
And in my de.ih no health at all
appeareth any more.
3 And all this is by reason of the wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sinne.
4 For lo my wicked doings (Lord)
above my head are gone:
A greater load than I can bear,
they lie me sore upon.
5 My wounds stink and are festered so,
as loathsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishnes
berideth unto me
6 And I in carefull wife am brought in trouble and distres:
That I go wailing all the day
in dolefull heaviness
7 My loynes are fil'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am and broken sore,
I roar for grief of heart.
9 Thou know'st (Lord) my desire my are open in thy sight. (groans) 10 My heart doth pant, my strength doth mine eyes have lost their light. (fail, 11 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my wo:
And eke my knyfmen farre away
are me departed fro.
12 They that did seek my life, laid snares
and they that soughe the way To do me hurt, spake lies and thought on mischief all the day.

The second Part.

13 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all:
14 And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.
15 For all my confidence O Lord
is wholly set on thee:
O Lord, thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt give ear to me.
16 This did I craye, that they my foes
triumph not over me:

For when my soul did flip, then they did joy my fall to see:

17 And truly I poor wretch am set,
in place, a wofull wight :
And eke my grievous heaviness
is ever in my light.

18 For while that I my wickedness
in humble wife confels
And while I for my sinfull deeds,
my sorrows do expels:

19 My woes do still remaine alive,
and myght are also,
And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me, that my good
with evil do repay :
Because that good and honest thin gs
I do casue alway.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou nor far away:

22 Cate me to help my Lord, my God
my safety and my stay.

PSALM xxxix. J.H.

I Said I will look to my wayes,
for fear I shold goe wrong :
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a briar I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might :
Not once to whisper all the while the wicked are in ght.

3 I held my tongue and soake no word,
but kept me close and still :
Yea from good talk I did refrain,
but sore against my will.

4 My heart waxt hot within my brest,
with misgivings thought and doubt :
Which did increase and stir the are,
at lat these words burst out.

5 Lord number out my life and dayes
which yet I have not past
So that I may be certifiid,
how long my life shall last.

6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life,
in length much like a span :
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is every man.

7 Man walketh like a shad, and doth
in vain him self annoy
In getting goods and cannot tell,
who shall the same enjouy.

8 Now Lord since things this wise do what help do I desire ? (frame,
Of truth my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second Part.

9 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord quit me out of hand :
And make me not a scorn to fools
that nothing understand.

10 I was as dumb, and to complain
no trouble might me move :

Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord take from me thy scourge and I can them not withstand : (plague
I faint and pine away for fear of thy most heavy hand.

12 When thou for an doft man rebuke,
he waxeth woe and wan :
As doth a cloath that moths have frer,
so vain a thing is man.

13 Lord hear my suit, & give good heed
regard my tears that fall :
I sojourn like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore :
Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seen no more.

PSALM xl. J.H.

I Waited long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did bear :
At length to me he did accord,
my voice and cry to hear.

2 He pluck'd me from the lake so deep,
out of the mire and clay :
And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a Psalm of praise,
which I must shew abroad :
And sing new songs of thanks alwayes
unto the Lord our God.

4 When all the folk these things shall see
as people much afraid :
Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and truft upon his aid.

5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
dorth in the Lord remain :
That with the proud doth take no part
nor such as lie and fain.

6 For Lord my God thy wondrous deeds
in greatness far do pass :
Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.

7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to shew :
To such a reckoning they do rise,
thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt-offerings thou delights not in,
I know thy whole desire,
With sacrifice to purge his fin,
thou doft no man require.

9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice
thou wouldest not have at all :
But thou (O Lord) haft open made mine ears to heare withall.

10 But then said I, behold and look,
I come a mean to be :
For in the volume of thy book
thus it is said of me.

11 That I (O Lord) should do thy mind,
which thing doth like me well.

For in my heart thy law I find fast placed there to dwell.
12 Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great respects I tell :
Behold my tongue no time doth cease
O Lord thou knowst full well.
The second Part.
13 I have not hid within my brest,
thy goodness as by stealth
But I declare and have express'd
thy truth and saving health.
14 I kept not close thy loving mind,
that no man should it know :
The trust that in thy truth I find,
to all the Church I show.
15 Thy tender mercy (Lord) from me,
withdraw thou not away,
But let thy love and verity
preserve me still for ay.
16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about :
My sins increase, and so come on,
I cannot stye them out.
17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head :
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.
18 With speed send help and set me free
O Lord I thee require :
Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord at my desire.
19 Let them sustain rebuke and shame,
that seek my soul to spill :
Drive back my foes, and them defame,
that wish and would me ill.
20 For their ill fames do them disrey,
that would deface my name :
Alwaies at me they rail and cry,
sye on him, sc for shame.
21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth
that seek to thee alwaies :
That those that love thy saving health
may say, to God be pracie.
22 But as for me I am but poor,
opprest and brought full low :
Yet thou O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.
23 For why? thou art my hope and trust,
my refuge, help and stay :
Wherefore my God, as thou art just,
with me no time delay.

PSALM xlj. T. S.

THe man is blest that carefull is the needy to consider :
For in the season perillous
the Lord will him deliver.
The Lord will make him safe & sound,
and happy in the land :
And he will not deliver him
into his enemies hand.
And in his bed whea he lies sick,
the Lord will him restore :
And thou, O Lord, will turn to health
his sickness and his sore,

4 Then in my sickness thus said I,
have mercy Lord on me,
And heal my soul which is full woe,
that I offended thee.
5 Mine enemies with'd me ill in heart
and thus of me did lay
When shall he die, that all his name
may vanish quite away?
6 And when they come to visit me,
they ask if I do well?
• But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.
7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
as though they wou'd me charm,
And cast their fetches how to trap
me with some deadly harm.
8 Some grievous sin hath brought him to this sickness, say they plain :
He is so low, he without doubt thee can he not again.
9 The man also that I did trust,
with me did wile decei.
Who at my table are my bread,
the same for me laid wait.
10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore and let me be preserv'd
That I may render unto them
the things they have deserv'd.
11 By this I know assuredly
to be belov'd of thee,
When that no me enemies have no cause
to triumph over me.
12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway :
And in thy presence place assign'd,
where I shall dwell for ay.
13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised evermore,
Even so be it (Lord) will I say,
even so be it therefore.

PSALM xlii. J. H.

Like as the hart doth breath & Bray,
the well-springs to obtain,
So doth my soul desire alway,
with thee Lord to remain.
2 My soul doth thirst, & would draw near the living God of might :
O when shall I come and appear
in presence of his sight?
3 The tears all times are my repast,
which from mine eyes do slide,
When wicked men cry out so fast,
where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas what grief is this to think what freedome once I had?
Therefore my soul, as at pits brink,
most heavy is and sad.
When I did march in good array,
furnished with my train,
Unto the temple was our way,
with songs and hearts most fain.

5 My soul why art thou sad alwaies,
and frett thus in my breast?
Trust still in God, for him to praise
I hold it ever best.

By him I have succour at need,
against all pain and grieve :
He is my God which with all speed
will haife to send relief.
6 And thus my soul within me Lord,
dost faint to think upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The second Part.

7 One grief another in doth call
as clouds burit out their voice :
The floods of evil that do fall,
run over me with noise.
8 Yet I by day felt his goodness,
and help at all aliaies :
Likewise by night I d d not cease
the living God to praise 9 I am perswaded thus to say to him with pure pretence :
O Lord thou art my guide and itay,
my rock and sure defence.
Why do I then in penitenes,
hanging the head thus walk ?
While that mine enemies me oppres,
and vex me with their talk.
10 For why? they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhor'd :
When they cry out with stubborn hearts
where is thy God thy Lord ?
11 So soon why doft thou faint and quail,
my soul with pain opprest ?
With thoughts why doft thy self affail,
so sore within my brest ?
12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwaies,
and thou the time shal't see
To give him thanks with laud and praise
for health restor'd to thee.

PSALM xliij. T. S.

Judge and revenge my cause O Lord,
from them that evil be :
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliver me.
2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why part thou me thee fro ?
And why walk I so heavily
oppreseed with my foe ?
3 Send out thy light and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace :
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.
4 Then shall I to the altar go,
of God my joy and cheer :
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God my God most deer.
5 Why art thou then so sad my soul,
and frett thus in my brest ?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it alwaies best.
6 By him I have deliverance against all pain and grief :

He is my God which doth alwaies
at need send me relief.

PSALM xliv. T. S.

Our ears have heard our fashers tell
and reverently record
The wondrous works, that thou haft done
in older time O Lord.

2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles out,
and stroidt them with strong hand
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'it to them their land.

3 They conquered not by sword nor the land of thy behest : ( streng
But by thy hand, thy arm, and grace,
because thou lov'dst them best.

5 Thou art my King, O God, that holp
Jacob in sundry wise :
Led with thy power, we thre w down
as did against us rise. ( such

6 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not save me found :

7 Thou kest us from our enemies rage
thou didst our foes confound.

8 And st'ill we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy Name :

9 Yet now thou go'it not with our host
but leavest us to shame.

10 Thou mad'it us flee before our foes
and so were over-trod :
Our enemies rob'd and spoil'd our good
when we were spent abroad.

11 Thou haft us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slain :
Amongst the heathen every where scattered we do remain.

12 Thy people thou haft sold like slaves
and as a thing of nought :
For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was sought.

13 And to our neighbours thou haft made
of us a laughing stock :
And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second Part.

14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk :
They mock, they scorn, they nod their where ere they go or walk. ( heads

15 I am ashamed continually to hear these wicked men :
Yea so I b'leve that all my face
with red is covered then.

16 For why? we hear such slanderous
such false reports and lies : ( words
That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatenings and their cries.

17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake :

18 We turn not back our hearts from nor yet thy patches to take. ( thee,

19 Yet

Ver thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dens of dragons be :
I covered us with shade of death,
and great adversity.
If we had our Gods Name forgot,
and help of Idols sought,
Would not God then have tri'd this out
for he doth know our thought.

Nay, nay, for thy Names sake, O Lord, alwaies are we stain thus :
Sheep unto the shambles sent,
right so they deal with us.
Up Lord, why sleepest thou awake,
and leave us nor for all :
Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrall.

For down to dust our soul is brought,
and we now at last cast :
Our belly, like as it were glu'd,
unto the ground cleaves fast.
Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us (Lord) at need :
Thee befeech for thy goodness,
to rescue us with speed.

PSALM xlv. I. H.
Y heart doth take in hand,
some godly song to sing :
I praise that I shall new therein,
pertaineth to the King.
My tongue shall be as quick,
his honour to indite,
the pen of any scribe,
that useth fast to write.

Fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant, pure :
God hath blest thee with gifts,
for ever to endure.
About thee gird thy sword,
O Prince of might elect :
With honour, glory, and renown,
thy person pure is deckt.
So forth with godly speed,
with meeknesse, truth and right :
A thy right hand will all thee instruct in works of dreadful might.
Hine a rows sharp, and keen,
their heads so sore shall bring :
Our folk will fall and kneel to thee,
yea all thy foes, O King.

By royal seat O Lord,
for ever shall remain,
I use the sceptre of thy realm doth righteousness maintain because thou lov'st the right,
and doth the ill despise :
Even thy God hath noised thee
with joy above the rest.

With myrrhe and favours sweet,
thy cloathes are all bespread :
In thou dost from thy palace pale,
therein to make thee glad,
Kings daughters do attend
In fine and rich array :

At thy right hand the Queen doth stand
in gold and garments gay.

The second Part.

11 O daughter take good heed,
incline and give good ear :
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.
12 Then shall the King desire
thy beauty faire and trim :
For why he is the Lord, thy God,
and thou must worship him.

13 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to see :
And all the wealthy of the land
shall make their suit to thee.
14 The daughter of the King
is glorious to behold :
Within her closet the doth lie
all deckt in beaten gold.

15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing :
With Virgins faire on her to wait,
the cometeth to the King.
16 Thus are they brought with joy,
and mirth on every side :
Into the palace of the King,
and there they do abide.

17 Instead of parents left,
(O Queen the case so stands)
Thou shalt have sonnes whom thou maist
as Princes in all lands. (set, 18 Wherefore thy holy Name,
all ages shall record :
The people shall give thanks to thee,
for evermore O Lord.

PSALM xlv. I. H.

THe Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand :
When we with wo are much dismaid
he is our help at hand. (fear, 2 Though the earth remove we will not though hills so high and steep
Be thrust and hurled here and there,
within the sea so deep.

3 No though the waves do rage so sore,
that all the banks it spills :
And though it overflow the shore,
and beat down mighty hills,
4 For one fair flood doth send abroad
his pleasant streames apace :
To fresh the City of our God,
and wash his holy place,

5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay :
All things against her that rebel,
the Lord will truly lay.
6 The heathen folk the kingdoms fear,
the people make a noise :
The earth doth melt and not appear,
when God puts forth his voice.

7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye :

Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Jacobs God doth lie.
8 Come hear & see with mind & thought
the working of our God.
What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.
9 By him all wars are hault and gone,
which countries did conspire:
Their bows he brake, and spears each one
their chariots burnt with fire.
10 Leave off therefore (faith he) and know
I am a God most stout:
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

P S A L M xlviij. I.H.

Y E people all with one accord,
clap hands and eke rejoice:
Be glad and sing unto the Lord,
with sweet and pleasant voice.
2 For high the Lord and dreadful is with wonders manifold:
A mighty King he is surely,
in all the earth exalted.

3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet he shall
the nations make to fall.
4 For us the heritage he chose,
which we possesse alone:
The flourishing worship of Jacobs,
his well-beloved one.

5 Our God ascended up on high,
with joy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goes up above the skie,
with trumpets royal voice.
6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King:
7 For God is King of all the earth,
all skilful praises sing.

8 God on the heathen reigns and sits
upon his holy throne:
The Princes of the people have them joyned every one.
9 To Abrahams people for our God
which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

P S A L M xlviij. I. H.

G reat is the Lord, & with great praise
to be advanced still:
Within the City of our God,
upon his holy hill.
2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:
The City of the mighty King
on her north side doth stand.
3 Within the palaces thereof,
God is a refuge known:

Fer lo the Kings are gathered, and together they are gone.
4 But when they did behold it so,
they wondred and they were astonied much, and suddenly were driven back with fear.

5 Great terror there on them did fall,
for very wo they cry,
As doth a woman when she shall go travel by and by.

6 As thou with Easters winde the ship
upon the sea doft break:
So they were stroid, and even so we heard our fathers speak.

7 So in the City of the Lord,
we saw as it was told:
Yea in the City which our God,
for ever will uphold.

8 O Lord we wait and do attend
on thy good help and grace:
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.

9 O Lord according to thy Name
for ever is thy praise:
And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness alwaies.

10 Let, for thy judgements Sion Mound fulfilled be with joys,
And eke of Juda grant O Lord,
the daughters to rejoice.

11 Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go:
And tell the towers that thereupon
are builded on a row.

12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereof to them,
that after shall be here.

13 For this God is our God, our God
for evermore is he:
Yea and unto the death also our guider shall he be.

P S A L M xlix. I.H.

A ll people hearken and give ear
to that that I shall tell:
2 Both high and low, both rich and poor
that in the world do dwell.
3 For why? my mouth shall make discourses
of many things right wise:
In understanding shall my heart
his study exercise.

4 I will incline mine ears to know
the parable so dark:
And open all my doubtful speech
in meeter on my harp.

5 Why should I fear affliction,
or any careful toil:
Or else my foes which at my heels
are preit my life to spoil.

6 For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is made

and they which of their treasures great,
themselves do brag and boast.
There is not one of them that can,
his brothers death redeem :
that can give a price to God,
sufficient for him.

it is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain :
that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remaine.
they see wise men as well as fools
subject unto deaths bands :
d being dead, strangers possest
their goods, their rents, their lands.

Their care is to build houses fair,
and so determine sure,
make their name right great on earth
for ever to endure.
Yet shall no man alwaies enjoy
high honour, wealth, and rest :
But shall at length rate of deaths cup
as wel as the bruse beast.

The second Part.
And though they try their foolish
to be most lead and vain : (thoughts eir children yet approve their talk
and in like fai remain.
As sheep into the fold are brought
so shall they into grave :
ath shall them eat and in that day
the just shall Lordship have.
Their image and their royal port shall fade and quite decay :
en as from house to pit they passe,
with wo and weale away.
But God will surely preferre me
from death and endlesse pain :
aule he will of his good grace,
my soul receive again.

If any man were wondrous rich,
fear not I say therefore:
ough the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.
For when he dies, of all these things
nothing shall he receive :
glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.
Yet in this life he takes himself
the happiest under Sun :
d others likewise farrer him,
saying all is well done.
And presuppose he live as long
as did his fathers old :
nust he needs at length give place,
and be brought to deaths fold.
has man to honour God hath brought
yea doth he not confider :
like brute beasts so doth he live
which turn to dust and powder.

P S A L M I. W. W.

He mighty God,
th Eternal hath that Spoke,
all the world

he will call and provoke :
Even from the East,
and so forth to the West :
2 From towards Sion,
which place he liketh best,
God will appear
in beauty most excellent :
Our God will come
before that long time be spent.

3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face,
A great tempeit
shall round about him come :
4 Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equity and right.
5 Saying, go to,
and now my Saints assemble :
My past they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.

6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness,
For God is judge
of all things more and less.

7 Hear my people,
for I will now reveal :
Lift Israel,
I will thee nought conceal :
Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee,

8 For giving not
all manner offerings to me.

9 I have no need to take of thee at all,
Goats of thy fold,
or Calf our of thy stall,

10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods :
On thousand hills
cattle are mine own goods

11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains :
All beasts are mine,
which haunt the fields and fountain.

12 Hungry if I were,
I would not thee it tell :
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.

13 Eat I the flesh
of great Bulls or Bullocks ?
Or drink the blood of Goats or of the flocks ?

14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows
unto God ever-living.

15 Call upon me,
when troubled thou shalt be :
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.

16 To the wicked,
thus saith th' Eternal God,

Why dost thou preach
my laws and hefts abroad ?
17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,
And hast to be
by discipline reformed.
My words I say,
thou dost reject and hate.
18 If that thou see
a thief as with thy mate,
Thou run'st with him,
and so thy prey do seek:
And art all one
with bawds and ruffians eke.
19 Thou giv'st thy self
to backbite and to slander:
And how thy tongue
deceives, it is a wonder.
20 Thou fittest musing,
thy brother how to blame:
And how to put
thy mothers son to shame.
21 These things thou didst,
and whilst I held my tongue,
Thou didst me judge,
because I hid so long,
Like to thy self:
yet though I keep long silence;
Once shalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompence.
22 Consider this,
we that forget the Lord,
And fear not when
he threateneth with his word:
Left without help
I spoile you as a prey.
23 But he that thanks
offereth, praiseth me aye,
Saith the Lord God,
and he that walketh this erthe,
I wil him teach.
Gods saving health to imbrace.
Another of the same by I.H.
The God of gods, the Lord,
hath cal'd the earth by name:
From whence the Sun doth rise, unto
the setting of the same.
2 From Sion his faire place,
his glory bright and clear:
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appear.
3 Our God shall come in haste,
to speak he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.
4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise,
He will call forth, to judge and try,
his folk he doth devise.
5 Bring forth my Saines, saith he,
my faithful flock so dear:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and fear.

Psalm L.

6 And when these things are tried,
the heavens shall record,
That God is just, and all must bide
the judgement of the Lord.
7 My people, O give heed,
Israel to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.
8 I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is slack:
Thou off'rest daily unto me
much more then I do lack.
9 Think'ft thou that I do need thy cariel young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed
on Goats out of thy fold?
10 Nay, all the beast's are mine,
in woods that eat their fills:
And thousands more of neat and kine,
that run wilde on the hills:
The second Part.
11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight,
And beasts that in the fields do lie,
are subje to my might.
12 Then though I hungred sore,
what need I ought of thine?
Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine?
13 To Bulls feith have I minde,
To eat it doft thou think?
Or such a sweetnesse do I finde,
the blood of Goats to drinke?
14 Give to the Lord his praise,
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vows always unto the God most high.
15 Then seek and call to me,
when ought woud work thee blame:
And I will sure deliver thee,
that thou mayst praise my Name.
16 But o the wicked train,
which tak of God each day,
And yet their works are foul and vain,
to them the Lord will say, 17 With what face dareit thou
my word once speak or name?
Why doth thy talk my law allow,
thy deeds deny the same?
18 Whereas for to amend
thy life thou art so slack:
My word the which thou doft pretend,
is cast behind thy back.
The third Part.
19 When th' u a thief doft see,
by their to live in wealth:
With him thou runst and doft agree
likewise to thrive by stealth.
20 When thou doft them behold,
that wives and maids desirle:
Thou lik'lt it well, and waxest bald,
to use that life most vile.
21 Thy lips thou doft apply,

to slander and deme,
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie,
and still doth use the same.
22 Thou studiest to revile
thy friends to thee so near With slander thou wouldst needs defile
thy mothers son most dear.
23 Hereat while I did wink,
as though I did not see:
Thou goest on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.
24 But sure I will not let
to strike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sin.
25 Mark this I you require,
that have not God in minde:
Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to finde.
26 He that doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise, Doth please me well: and he shall see
to walk in godly waies.

P S A L M . I I . W . W .

O Lord conf der my distresse,
and now with speed some pity take,
My sins deface, my faults redrele,
good Lord for thy great mercies sake.
2 Wash me O Lord, and make me clean
from this unjust and sinful act:
And purifie yet once again
my hainous crime and bloody fact.
3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain
me to acknowledge mine exceil:
My sin alas doth still remain
before my face without release.
4 For thee alone I have offended,
committing evil in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy judgments just & right.
5 It is too manifest alas,
that first I was conceiv'd in sin:
Yea of my mother so borne was,
and yet vile wretch remain therein.
6 Also behold Lord thou doest love
the inward truth of pure hearts:
Therefore thy wisdom from above
thou haft reveal'd me to convert.
7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be clearer then the glasse:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whitenesse shall I passe, 8 Therefore O Lord, such joy me send,
that inwardly I may finde grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou haft swag'd for my trespass.
9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my sins I thee definie,
which do in number passe the sand.
10 Make new my heart within my brest,
and frame it to thy holy will.

Thy constant spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The Second Part.

11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.
12 Reform me to those joys again,
which I was wont in thee to had:
And let me thy free spirit retain,
which unto thee may stir my mind.
13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall fee few.
14 O God that of my health art Lord,
forgive me this my bloody vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.
15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue untie
O Lord which art the only key:
And then my mouth shall testify,
thy wondrous works and praise always.
16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'it thou note.
17 The heavy heart, the mind opprest,
O Lord thou never doest reject:
And to speak truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice th effect.
18 Lord unto Sion turn thy face,
pour out thy mercies on the hill:
And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the walls and love it still.
19 Thou shalt accept then our offrings,
of peace and righteousness I say:
Yea calves and many other things,
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same by J. H.

H ave mercy on me Lord, after thy great abounding grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my sins deface.
2 Yea wash me more from mine offense,
and cleanse me from my sin:
For I do know my faults and still
my sin is in mine eyne.
3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face.
4 That in the things that thou haft done
upright thou mayst be try'd:
And eke in judging that the doom
may passe upon thy fide.
5 Behold in wickednesse, my kinde
and shape I did receive.
And so my sinful mother eke,
in sin did me conceiue.

6 But to the truth in inward parts
is pleasure unto thee:
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.

7 With hyssop Lord besprinkle me
I shall be cleansed so:
Yea wash thou me and so I shall be whiter then the snow.

8 Of joy and gladness make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice:
That so the bruised bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 For the beholding of my sins
Lord turn away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickedness
do utterly deface:

10 O God create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels Lord,
renue a stalle sprit.

11 Ne cast me from thy sight nor take thy holy spirit away:
The comfort of thy saving health
give me again I pray.

12 With thy sweet spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore Sinner thy waies, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The second Part.

13 O God that art God of my health,
from blood deliver me:
That praises of thy righteousnesse
my tongue may sing to thee.

14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou O Lord unclose:
The praises of thy Majestie
my mouth shall so disclose.

15 I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt offerings
I know thou wilst not be.

16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice delightful in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilst not despise.

17 In thy good will deal gently Lord,
to Sion, and withall Grant that of thy Jerusalem
upreard may be the wall.

18 Burnt offerings, gift and sacrifice of justice in that day Thou shall accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

PSALM liii. I.H.

19 Why dost thou tyrant boast abroad,
thy wicked works to praise?
Dost thou not know there is a God,
whose mercies last alwaies?

20 Why doth thy minde yet still devise,
such wicked wiles to warp?
Thy tongue untrue in forging lies,
is like a razor sharp.

3 On mischiefe why lettest thou thy mind,
and wilt not walk upright?
Thou hast more lust false tales to find,
than bring the truth to light.

4 Thou doest delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief blood and wrong:
Thy lips have learn'd the flattering stile
O false deceitful tongue.

5 Therefore shall God for aye confound
and pluck thee from thy place:
Thy seed root out from off the ground
and so shall thee deface.

6 The just when they behold thy fall,
with fear will praise the Lord,
And in reproach of thee withall,
cry out with one accord.

7 Behold the man that would not take the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his God did make,
and trust his corrupte sense.

8 But I as Olive fresh and green,
shall spring and spread abroad:
For why? my croft all times hath been upon the living God.

9 For this therefore will I give praise
to thee with heart and voice:
I will set forth thy name alwaies,
wherein thy Saints rejoice.

PSALM liii. T.S.

1 He foolish man in that which he within his heart hath said:
That there is any God at all,
hath utterly denied.

2 They are corrupt, and they also
a hainous work have wrought:
Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

3 The Lord look'd down on sons of men
from heaven all abroad:
To see if any were that would be wise and seek for God.

4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Do not all wicked workers know, that they do feed upon
My people, as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.

6 Even there they were afraid, and stood with trembling all dismay'd:
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that thee besieg'd,
hath scattered all abroad:
Thou hast confounded them, for they rejected are of God.

8 O Lord give thou thy people health,
and thou O Lord fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill.

When God his people shall restore,
they that were captive led :
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

P S A L M . l i v . 1 . H .

G OD give me thy holy Name, -
and for thy goodness sake :
into the strength (Lord) of the same,
I do my cause bereake.
Regard O Lord and give an ear
to me when I do pray:
bow down thy self to me and hear
the words that I do say.
For strangers up against me rise,
and tyrants vex me still,
Which have nor God before their eyes
they seek my soul to spill.
But lo my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is strait at hand :
With them by whom my soul is staid,
the Lord doth ever stand.

With plagues repay again all those
for me that lie in wait :
And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and bait.
An offering of free heart and will,
then I to thee shall make :
And praise thy Name, for therein still great comfort I do take.

O Lord at length do for me free
from them that craft conspire :
And how mine eye with joy doth see,
on them my hearts desire.

P S A L M . l v . 1 . H .

O God give ear and do apply,
to hear me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry,
hide not thy self away.
Take heed to me, grant my request
and answer me again :
With plaints I pray full sore opprest,
great grief doth me constrain.
Because my foes with threats and cries,
opprest me through despight :
And so the wicked sort likewise
to vex me have delight.
For they in counsel do conspire,
to charge me with some ill :
So in their hafty wrath and ire
they do pursue me still.

My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my brest :
The terrors and the dread of death,
do work me much unrest.
Such dreadful fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake :
Such horrour whelmeth me withall,
that I no shift can make.
But I did say, who will give me
the swift and pleasant wing,
Of some faire Dove, that I may flee,
and reit me from these things.

8 Lo then I would go far away,
to flee I would not cease :
And I would hide my self and stay
in some great wilderness.
9 I would be gone in all the haile,
and not abide behinde,
That I were quit and overpast
these blights of boisterous wind.
10 Divide them Lord, and from them pull their devilish double tongue :
For I have spied their city full of rapine, strife and wrong.

11 Which things both night and day
do close her as a wall : (throughout)
In mid of her is mischief stour,
and sorrow eke withall.
12 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds are much too vile :
And in her streets there doth remain
all crafty fraud and guile.

The second Part.

13 If that my foes did seek my shame,
I might it well abide :
From open enemies check and blame,
somewhere I could me hide.
14 But thou it waft, my fellow dear,
which friendship didst pretend :
And didst my secret counsel hear,
as my familiar friend.

15 With whom I had delight to talk
in secret and abroad :
And we together oft did walk,
within the houle of God.
16 Let death in haile upon them fall
and send them quick to hell :
For mischief raingeth in the hall,
and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I unto my God will cry,
to him for help I flee :
The Lord will help me, by and by,
and he will succour me.
18 At morning, noon, and even tyde,
unto the Lord I pray :
When I so instantly have cride,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yes,
though war be now at hand,
Although the number be full great,
that would against me stand.
20 The Lord that first and last doth raige
both now and evermore :
Will hear when I to him complain,
and punish them full sore.

21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord :
For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do fear the Lord. (hands)

 24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord,
 and he shall nourish thee:
 For in no wise will he accord
 the just in thrall to see.
 25 But God shall cast them deep in pits
 that thirst for blood always:
 He will no guileful man permit
 to live out half his days.
 26 Though such be quite delibid & gone,
 in thee O God I trust:
 I shall depend thy grace upon,
 withal my heart and just.
 P S A L M I vj. I. H.

 He fighteth with me day by day,

 to swallow me ourright:
 To fight against me many rise,
 O thou most high of might.
 3 When they would make me most afraid
 with boasts and brags of pride:
 I trust in thee alone for aid,
 by thee I will abide.
 4 Gods promise I do minde and praise,
 O Lord I stick to thee:
 I do not care at all affaires,
 what flesh can do to me.
 5 What things I either did or spake,
 they wret them at their will:
 And all the counsel that they take,
 is how to work me ill.
 6 They all consent, themselves to hide,
 close watch for me to lay:
 They spie my paths, and snares have tide
 to take my life away.
 7 Shall they thus escape on mischief set?
 thou God on them wilt frown:
 For in his wrath he doth not let
 to throw whole kingdoms down.
 8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee,
 and on my tears doft look:
 Reserve them in a glasse by thee,
 and write them in thy book.
 9 When I do call upon thy Name,
 my foes away do start:
 I well perceive it by the same,
 that God doth take my part,
 10 I glory in the Word of God,
 to praise it I accord:
 With joy I will declare abroad
 the promise of the Lord.
 11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
 as I before began:
 The Lord he is my help and stay,
 I do not care for man.
 12 I will perform with heart so free,
 to God my vows alwaies:
 And I O Lord all times to thee
 will offer thanks, and praise,

P S A L M . L ix . I . H .

End aid and save me from my foes
O Lord I pray to thee:
lead and keep me from all those
that rise and strive with me.
O Lord preserve me from those men,
whose doings are not good:
d let me sure and safe from them
that thirst still after blood.

For lo they wait my sou! to take,
they rage against me still:

I never did them ill.
They ran and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit off nat :
fit and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

O Lord of hosts of Israel,
arise and strike all lands:
d pity none that do rebel,
and in their mischief stands.
As lights they stir and seek about,

as hounds they houle and grin :
And all the City clean throughout

7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are fowds :
They greed my death, and then would say :
what? zone doth hear our words.
8 But Lord thou haft their ways espied,

But with thy strength drive them abroad,
and to consume them all.
12 For their ill words & truthless tongue
confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths with lies and wrong
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath O Lord ,
that nought of them remain :
That men may know throughout the world
that Jacobs God doth reign.
14 At evening they return apace,
as dogs they grin and cry :
Throughout the streets in every place
they run about and spie.

15 They seek about for meat I say ,
but let them not be fed :
Nor minde ahouse wherein they may 16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,

thy goodness I will praise :
For thou art my defence and God ,

P S A L M . L ix . I . H .

O Lord thou didst us clean forsake ,

The hurt threof O Lord restore,
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heavy chance thou plaguest thus the people that are thine :
And thou haft given unto us
a drink of deadly wine.
4 Put yet to such as fear thy Name ,

That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keep and save
thy foes that favour thee:

That they thy help at hand may have
O Lord grant this to me.

6 The Lord did speak from his own place
this was his joyful tale:

I will divide Sichem by pace,
and mete our Succoths vales.

7 Gilead is given to mine hand,
Manasies mine beside:

Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth juda guide.

8 In Moab I will wash my feet,
over Edo I throw my shoe:

And thou Palestine ought to seek

9 But who will bring me at this ryde unto the City strong?

Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong?

10 Wilt thou not God, which did forsake
thy folk their land and coasts?

Our wars in hand thou wouldest not take nor walk among our hosts.

11 Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve from them that us disdaine:

The help that hosts of men can give,
it is but all in vain. (mighty)

12 But through our God we shall have to take great things in hand:

He will tread down and put to flight
all those that us withstand.

PSALM Ix. I.H.

R egard, O Lord, for I complain,
and make my suit to thee.

Let not my words returne in vain,
but give an ear to me.

2 From out the coasts, and utmost parts,
of al the earth abroad:

In grief and anguish of my heart,
I cry to thee O God.

3 Upon the rock of thy great power

Thou art my hope, my fort and tower,
my fence against my foes.

4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for ever to endure:

Under thy wings I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.

5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfil the same:

With goodly gifts will he reward
all those that fear his Name.

6 The King shall he in health maintain,
and so prolong his daies:

That he from age to age shall reigne,
for evermore alwayes.

7 That he may have a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye:

O let thy mercy, truth and grace

defend him from decay:

8 Then shall I sing for ever still,
with praiere unto thy Name:

That all my vows I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

PSALM Ixi. I.H.

M Y soul to God shall give good heed
and him alone attend:

For why? my health and hope to speed,
doth whole on him depend.

2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health and aid,

He is my stay that no pretence
shall make me much dismayed.

3 O wicked folk, how long will ye use craft, sure ye must fall:

For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.

4 Whom God doth love, ye seek alwayes
to put him to the worse:

Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.

5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire:

From all ill! feasts me to defend,
none but him I require.

6 He is my rock, my fort and tower,
my heath is of his grace:

He doth support me, that no power
can move me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my souls desire and lust:

My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth
God is my onely trust.

8 O have your trust in him alway,

Poure out your hearts to him and say,
Our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sons of men deceitful are,
on balance but a sleight:

for they can keep no weight.

10 Trust not in wrong robbery, nor steale
let vain delights be gone: (weak)

Though goods well gone flow in with set not your hearts thereon.

11 The Lord long since one thing did te which here to mind I call:

He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.

12 And that thou Lord art good & kind thy mercy doth exceed:

So that all forts with thee shal finde,
according to their deed.

PSALM Ixii. T.S.

O God my God, I watch betime
to come to thee in haste:

For why my soul and body both
do thirst of thee to taste.

And in this barren wilderness,
where waters there are none,

My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thou I wish alone,

1 That I might see yet once again thy glory, strength and might: As I was wont it to behold within thy Temple bright. 2 For why? thy mercies far surmount this life and wretched daies: My lips therefore shall give to thee due honour, laud and praise. 4 And whilst I live I will not fail to worship thee alway: And in thy Name I shall lift up my hands when I do pray. 5 My soul is fill'd as with marrow, which is both fat and sweet: My mouth therefore shall sing such songs as are for thee most meet. 6 When as in bed I think on thee, and eke all the night ryde: 7 For under covert of thy wings thou art my joyful guide. 8 My soul doth surely stick to thee, thy right hand is my power: 9 And those that seek my soul to stroy them death itall soon devour. 10 The sword shall them devour each one: their carcases shall feed The hungry foxes, which do run their prey to seek at need. 11 The King and all men shall rejoice, that do professe Gods Word: For lyars mours shall then be stopt, which have the truth disturb'd.

PSALM Lxiv. I. H.

O Lord unto my voice give ear, with plaine when I do pray: And rid my life and soul from fear of foes that threat to slay. 2 Defend me from that sort of men which in deceit do lurk: And from the frowning face of them that all ill feats do work. 3 Who whet their tonges as we have seen men wher and sharp their swords: They shoot abroad their arrows keen, I mean most bitter words. 4 With privy sleights shoot they their the upright man to hit. (hast, The just unawares to strike by craft, they care on fear no whit. 5 A wicked work they have decreed, in counsel thus they cry: To use deceit let us not dread, what? who can it espie? 6 What way to hurt they talke and muse all times within their heart: They all consult what feats to use, each doth invent his part. 7 But yet all this shall not prevale, when they think least upon, God with his dart shall sure aduale, and wound the u every one. 8 Their crafts and their ill tonges withhold shall work themselves such blame;

That they which then behold their fall, shall wonder at the same. 9 Then all that see shall know right well that God the thing hath wrought: And praise his witty works and tell what he to passe hath brought. 10 Yet shall the just in God rejoice, still trustring in his might. So shall they joy with minde and voice, whose hearts are pure and right.

PSALM Lxv. I. H.

Thy praise alone O Lord, doth reign in Sion thine own hill: Their vows to thee they do maintain, and their behelis fulfil. 2 For that thou doest their prayers heare, and doest thereto agree: The people all both far and near with trut shall come to thee. 3 Our wicked life so far exceeds, that we n all fall therein: But Lord forgive our great nusideels, and purge us from our fin. 4 The man is blest whom thou doft chuse within thy courts to dwell: Thy house and Temple he shall use, with pleasures that excell. 5 Of thy great justice hear us God, our health of thee doth rise: The hope of all the earth abroad, and the sea coasts likewise. 6 With strength thou art beset about, and compait with thy power: Thou mak it the mountains strong and to stand in every shover. (hous) 7 The swelling seas thou doft asswage, and make their streams full still: Thou doft restraine the peoples rage, and rule them at thy will. 8 The fol that dwell full far on earth, shall dread thy signes to see, Which morn and evening in great mirth do passe with praise to thee.

9 When that the earth is chapt and dry, and thirsteth more and more: Then with thy drops thou doft supply, and much encrease his store. 10 The flood of God doth overflow, and so doth cause to spring The feed and corn which men do sow, for he doth guide the thing. 11 With wett thou doft her furrows fill, whereby her clods do fall: Thy drops on her thou doft distil, and b'lefe her fruit withhold. 12 Thou deck it the earth of thy good with fair and pleasant crop: (grass) Thy clouds distil their dew apace, great plenty they do drop. 13 Whereby the desert shall begin, full great encrease to bring:

1 The little hills shall joy therein,
much fruit in them shall spring.
2 In places plaine the flocks shall feed,
and cover all the earth:
3 The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

give glory to the same.
2 How wonderful O Lord say ye,
in all thy works thou art:
Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee,
full sore against their heart.
3 All men that dwel the earth throughout shall praise the Name of God:
The laud thereof the world about
is new'd and set abroad.
4 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought:
Mark well the wondrous works that he
for man to praise hath brought.
5 He laid the sea like heaps on high,
therein a way they had
On foot to passe both fair and drie,
whereof their hearts were glad.
6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold:
All such as would him dis obey,
by him shall be controll'd.
7 Ye people give unto our God,
due laud and thanks alwaies:
With joyful voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise.
8 Which doth endue our soul with life
and is preferre withal:
He stayes our feet, so that no strife
can make us slip or fall.
9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with if that they will abide: (five) 10 As workmen do when they desire to have their mears tride.
11 Although thou suffer us so long
in prison to be cast:
And there with chains and fetters strong
so lie in bondage fast.

The second Part.

11 Alebough(I say) thou suffer men
on us to ride and raigne:
12 Though we through fire and water run
of very grief and pain.
13 Yet sure thou doft of thy good grace
dispose it to the best:
And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.
14 Unto thy hou'se resort will I so offer and to pray:
And there I will my self apply
my vows to thee to pay.
15 The vows that with my mouth I spake
so all my grief and smart;

The vows I say which I did make
in doow' of my heart.

16 Burnt-offerings I will give to thee,
of Oxen fat and Rams:
Yea this my sacrifice shall be,
of Bullocks, Goats and Lambs.
17 Come forth and hearken here full soon
all ye that fear the Lord:
What he for my poor soul hath done,
to you I will record.
18 Full oft I call to minde his grace,
this mouch to him doth cry:
And thou my tongue make speed space
to praise him by and by.
19 But if I feel my heart within,
in wicked works rejoice:
Or if I have delight to sin,
God will not hear my voice.
20 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.
21 All praise to him that hath not putt
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me that,
which I do ever finde.

P S A L M . Ixvij. I. H.

H ave mercy on us Lord,
and grant to us thy graces:
To shew to us do thou accord,
the brightness of thy face:
2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a row,
may see thy saving health.
3 Let all the world O God,
give praise unto thy Name:
O let the people all abroad,
extol and laud the same.
4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoice with mirth:
For thou with truth & right doft guide
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world O God,
give praise unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extol and laud the same.
6 Then shall the earth encrease,
great store of fruit shall fall:
And then our God the God of peace shall blese us eke without.
7 God shall us blese I say,
and then both far and near,
The folk throughout the earth alway,
of him shall stand in fear.

P S A L M . Ixvij. T.S.
1 Let God arise, and then his foes
will turn themselves to fight:
His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter one of fight.
2 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
god wind blyow's smoke away:

5 In the presence of the Lord
the wicked shall decay.

6 But righteous men before the Lord,
shall heartily rejoice:
They shall be glad and merry all,
and cheerful in their voice.

7 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:
Extol the Name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.

8 The same is he that is above,
within his holy place:
That father is of iatherlesse,
and judge of widows case.

9 Houses he gives, and issue both,
unto the comforterle:
He bringeth bondmen out of thrall,
and rebels to distrele.

10 When thou didst march before thy folk
th' Egyptians from among: (neide)
And broughtt them throu gh the wilder-
which was both wide and long. (down)

11 The earth did quake, the rain powr'd heard were great claps of thunder:
The mount Sinai stook in such for,
as it would break in funder.

12 Thine heringe with drops of rain
abundantly was waite:
And if o be it barren waite,
by thee it was refresht.

13 Thy chosen flock doth there remain
thou hast prepar'd that place:
And for the poor thou doft provide
of thine especial grace.

The second Part.

14 God will give women causes just,
to magnifie his Name:
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase bruit and fume.

15 For puissant kings for all their power
shall fee and take the foile:
And women which remain at home
shall help to part the spoile.

16 And though you were as black as pots,
your hue shall passe the Dove:
Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.

17 When in this land God shall triumph
on Kings both high and low:
Then shall he like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.

18 Though Busin be a fruitful hill,
and in height others pale:
Yet Sion Gods most holy hill
doth far excel in grace.

19 Why brag ye thus, ye hill most high,
and leap for pride together?
The hill of Sion God dorth love,
and there will dwell for ever.

20 Gods army is two millions of warriors good and strong:
The Lord also is Sinai

is present them among.
21 Thou didst (O Lord) ascend on high,
and captives ledft them all:
Which in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage kept and thrall.

22 Thou madit them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine,
Thou didst ful due that they might dwell
in thy Temple divine.

23 Now praised be the Lord for that he poures on us such grace:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and solace.

The third Part.

24 He is the God from whom alone
salvation cometh plaine:
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers death and pain.

25 Thus God wil wound his enimies head and break the hairy scape.
Of thos that in their wickednesse continually do walk.

26 From Basan will I bring said he,
my people and my sheep:
And all mine own as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.

27 And make them dip their feet in blood
of thos that hate my Name:
And dogs that have their tongues imbru'd
with licking of the same.

28 All men may see how thou O God
thine enemies doft deface:
And how thou goest as God and King
into thine holy place.

29 The fingers go before with joy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the damsel's play
with timbrel and with taker.

30 Now in the Congregation,
O Israel, praise the Lord.
And Jacobs whole poiterie,
give thanks with one accord.

31 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Juda made their host:
With Zebulon and Nepthalim,
which dwelt about their coast.

32 As God hath given power to thee,
so Lord make firm and sure
The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to endure.

33 And in thy Temple gifts will we give unto thee O Lord:
For thine unto Jerusalem,
sure promise made by word.

The fourth Part.

34 Yea, and strane kings to us subdu'd,
shall do like in thos dayes:
I mean to thee they shall present
their gifts of land and praise.

35 He shall destroy the spearmen ranks
the calves and bulls of might:
And cause them tribute,pay, and downe
all such as loys to fight.

31 Then shall the Lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring :
The Moors most black shall stretch their unto their Lord and King. (hands)

32 Therefore ye Kingdoms of the earth
give praise unto the Lord :
Sing psalms to God with one consent,
thereto let all accord.

33 Who though he ride and ever hath above the heavens bright :
Yet by the fearful thunder-claps men may well know his might.

34 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascribe to God on high :
Whose might and power doth far extend above the cloudy skie.

35 God thy holiness and power
is dread for evermore :
The God of Israel gives us strength, praised be God therefore.

PSALM. lxix. I. H.

3 Ave me O God, and that with speed,
the waters flow full fast :
So nigh my foul do they proceed,
that I am sore agait.

2 I stick full deep in mire and clay,
whereas I feel no ground :
I fall into such floods I say,
that I am like be drownd.

3 With crying oft, I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarē and drye :
With looking up my sight doth fail,
for help to God on high.

4 My foes that guiltless do oppresse
my soul, with hate are led :
In number sure they are no lefe
then haire are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me sore,
they prosper and are glad :
They do compel me to restore the things I never had.

6 What I have done for want of wit,
thou Lord all times canst tell :
And all the faults that I commit,
to thee are known full well.

7 O God of Hosts defend and stay
all those that trust in thee :
Let no man doubt or shrink away,
for ought that chanceth me.

8 It is for thee and for thy sake,
that I do bear this blame :
In spite of thee they would me make
to hide my face for shame.

9 My mothers sons, my brethren all
for take me on a row :
And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.

10 Unto thy house such zeal I bear,
that it cloth pine me much :
Their cheeks and saunrs at thee to hear,
my very heart doth gruch.

The second Part.

11 Though I do faint my teeth go chaff,
yea if I weep and moane :
Yet in my teeth this thing is cast,
they patte not thereupon.

12 If I for paine and grief of heart
in sackcloth use to walk :
Then they anone will it pervert,
thereof they jest and talk.

13 Both high and low, and all the throng
that fit within the gate :
They have me ever in their tongue,
of me they talk and prate.

14 The drunkards which in wine delights
it is their chief pattice :
To seek which way to work me spight,
of me they sing and rime.

15 But thee the while, O Lord I pray,
that when it pleaseth thee,
For thy great truth thou wile alway
send down thine aid to me.

16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
frown drowning do me keep,
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.

17 Left with the waves I should be drownd
and depth my foul devour,
And that the pit should me confound,
and that me in her power.

18 O Lord of hosts to me give eare,
as thou art good and kindes :
And as thy mercy is most dear,
Lord have me in thy minde.

19 And do not from thy servant hide,
nor turn thy face away :
I am opprest on every tide,
in hate give ear I say.

20 O Lord unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose :
Because of their great tyraunie,
acquit me from my ices.

The third Part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame,
thou knowest and thou canst tell :
For those that seek and work the same
thou seest them all full well.

22 When they with brags do break my
I seek for help anon : (heart)
But finde no friends to eafe my smart,
to comfort me not one.

23 But in my meat they gave me gall,
too cruel for to think :
And gave me in my thirst withal
strong vinegar to drink.

24 Lord turne their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein :
And when they think self well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

25 And let their eyes be dark and blind
that they may nothing see :
Bow down their backs and do them bind
in thraldom for to be.

26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
take hold upon them all.

27 As deserts dry their house disgrace,
their off-spring eke expel:
That none thereto potieile their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.

28 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full sore:
And if that thou dost wound the same,
they seek to hurt him more.

29 Then let them heap up mischief still,
(sith they are all perverse):
That of thy favour and good will
they never have a part.

30 And race them clean out of thy book
of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their name they never look
in number of the just.

The fourth Part.

31 Though I, O Lord, with wo and grief
have been full sore opprest:
Thy help shall give me such relief,
that all shall be redrest.

32 That I may give thy Name the praise
and shew it with a song:
I will exalt the same alwaies,
with hearty thanks among.

33 Which is more pleasant unto thee,
(such minds thy grace hath born)
Then either ox or calf can be,
that hath both hooft and horn.

34 When simple folk do this behold,
it shall rejoice them sure:
All ye that seek the Lord, behold
your life for aye shall dure.

35 For why? the Lord of hosts doth hear
the poor when they complain:
His prisoners are to him full dear,
he doth them not disdain.

36 Wherefore the isle and earth below,
the sea with flood and stream,
His praise they shall declare and shew,
with all that live in them.

37 For sure our God will Sion save,
and Judaea Cities build:
Much folk possession there shall have her streets shall all be fill'd.

38 His servants feed shall keep the same,
all ages out of minde:

39 And there all they that love his Name,
a dwelling place shall finde.

P S A L M . b x . J . H .

O God to me take heed,
of help I thee require:
O Lord of hosts with haste and speed,
help, help, I thee desire.

2 With shame confound them all:
that seek my soul to spill:
Rebuke them back with blame to fall,
that think end with me ill.

3 Confound them that apply,

and seek to work me shame:
And as my harm do laugh and cry,
so so, there goes the game.

4 But let them joyfull be,
in thee with joy and wealth:
Which only trust and seek to thee
and to thy saving health.

5 That they may say alwayes,
in mirth and one accord:
All glory, honour, laud and praise,
be given to thee O Lord.

6 But I am weak and poor,
come Lord, thine aid I lack:
Thou art my stay and help therefore make speed and be not slack.

P S A L M . b x . J . H .

M Y Lord my God in all distress,
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soul oppresse,
nor once take hold on me.

2 As thou art just defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Give care and to my suit accord,
and send me help at need.

3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may
for aid all times resort:
Thy promise is to help alway,
Thou art my fence and fort.

4 Save me my God from wicked men,
and from their strength and power:
From folk unjust, and eke from them
that cruelly devoure.

5 Thou art the stay wherein I trust,
thou Lord of Hosts art he:
Yea from my youth I had a lust,
still to depend on thee.

6 Thou hast me kept even from my birth and I through thee was born:
Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth
both evening and at morn.

7 As to a monster seldom seen,
much folk about me throng:
But thou art now, and still hast been my fence and aid so strong.

8 Wherefore my mouth no time shall lack thy glory and thy praise:
And eke my tongue shall not be slack
to honour thee alwaies.

9 Refuse me not, O Lord, I say,
when age my limbs doth take:
And when my strength doth waste away,
do not my soul forsake.

10 Among themselves my foes enquire,
to take me through deceit,
And they against me do conspire,
that for my soul laid wait.

The second Part.

11 Lay hand and take him now, they said,
for God from him is gone:
Dispatch him quite, for to his aid,
(I wis) there cometh none.

12 Do not absent thy self away,
O Lord when need shall be.

But that in time of grief thou may in haite give help to me.
13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seek my life :
Oppreſe them with rebuke alſo,
that faſne would work me ſtrife.
14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all altaires :
Still more and more, each time and tyde,
I will ſet forth thy praise.
15 My mouth thy justice ſhall record,
that daily help doth ſend :
But of thy benefits O Lord,
I know no count nor end.
16 Yet will I go and ſeek forth one with thy good help O God :
The ſaving health of thee alone,
to thew and er abroad.
17 For of my youth thou rookſt the care,
and doſt inſtruſt me ſtill :
Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I have great minde and will.
18 And as in youth from wanton rage,
thou diſſit me keep and itay :
Forſake me not unto miſer aye,
and till my head be gray.

The third Part.

19 That I thy strength & might may ſhow
to them that now be here :
And that our ſeed thy power may know
hereafter many a year.
20 O Lord thy justice doth exceed,
thy doings all may ſee :
Thy works are wonderful indeed,
O! who is like to thee ?
21 Thou mad'ſt me feel affliction ſore,
and yet thou diſſit me ſave :
Yea thou diſſit help and me reſtoſe,
and rookſt me from the grave.
22 And thou mine honour doſt increaſe,
my dignity maintaine :
Yea thou doſt make all grief to ceaſe,
and comfort'ſt me again.
23 Therefore thy faſhionlaſſe to praife,
I will with viol ſing,
My harp shall ſound thy praife alwaies,
O Iſraels ho ly King.
24 My mouth will joy with pleauant voice
when I ſing to thee.
And eke my foul will much rejoyce,
for thou haſt made me free.
25 My tongue thy uprightneſſe ſhall ſound,
and ſpeak it daily till :
For grief and shame do then conſound,
that ſeek to work me ill.

PSALM Lxxii. I.H.
Lord, give thy judgments to the King,
thine in truſt him well :
And with his ſon that princely thing,
Lord let thy justice dwell.
2 That he may govern uprightly,
and rule the folk aright;

1 And ſo defend through equity,
the poor that have no might.
3 And let the mountains that are hie,
unto thy folk give peace :
And eke let little hills apply,
in iuſtice to increaſe.
4 That he may help the weak and poore
with aid and make them ſtrong :
And eke deſtroy for evermore,
all those that do them wrong.
5 And then from age to age ſhall they regard and fear thy might :
So long as Sun doth thine by day,
or elſe the Moon by night.
6 Lord make the King unto the juſt,
like raine to fields new mown :
And like to drops that lay the duft,
and freſh the land new ſowne.
7 The juſt shall flouriſh in his time,
and all shall be at peace :
Until the Moon is all leave to prime,
wafe, change and to increaſe.
8 He ſhall be Lord of ſea and land,
from ſtore to ſtore throughout :
And from the fonds within the land,
through all the earth about.
9 The people that in deserts dwell,
ſhall kneel to him full thick :
And all his enemies that rebel,
the earth and duft thallick.
10 The Lords of all the iles thereby,
great gifts to him ſhall bring :
The King of ſaba and Arabie,
give many a conly thing.
The ſecond Part.
11 All Kings ſhall ſeek with one accord,
in his good grace to stand :
And all the people of the world,
ſhall ſerve him at his hand.
12 For he the needy ſort doth live,
that unto him do call :
And eke the ſimple folk that have no help of man at all.
13 He taketh pity on the poor,
that are with need oppreſt :
He doth preſerve them evermore,
and bring their ſouls to reiſt.
14 He ſhall redeme their lives from dread
from fraud, from wrong, from might :
And eke the blood that they ſhall bleed
is precious in his fight.
15 But he ſhall live and they ſhall bring to him of ſabaeſ gold :
He ſhall be honourēd as a King,
and daily be extol'd.
16 The mighty mountaines of his land
of corn ſhall bear ſuch throng :
That it like Cedar-trees ſhall ſtand,
in Litanus full long.
17 Their Cities eke full well ſhall ſpede,
the fruits thereof ſhall paie :
In plenty it ſhall far exceed,

and spring as green as grasse.
 18 For ever they shall praise his Name,
 while that the Sun is light :
 And think them happy through the same
 all folle shall bleste his myght.
 19 Praise ye the Lord of holts, and sing
 to Iisrael God each one :
 For he doth every wondrous thing,
 ye he himself alone.
 20 And blest be his holy Name,
 all times eternally :
 That all the earth may praise the same,
 Amen, Amen, say I.

PSALM Lxxijij. T. S.
 HOW ever it beset God is good and kind to Iisrael :

And to all such as faylye keep their conscience pure and well.
 3 Yet like a fool I almost slpt
 my feet began to slide:
 And ere I wist, even at a pinch
 my steps awry gan glide.
 3 For when I saw such foolish men,
 I grudg'd and did disdain,
 That wicked men all things could have wi/out turmoile or paine.
 4 They never suffer pangs nor grief,
 as if death could them smite :
 Their bodies are both thout and strong,
 and ever in good plight.

5 And free from all aduersitie,
 when other men be went :
 And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.
 6 Therefor e presumption doth imbrace
 their necks, as doth a chaine :
 And are even wrapt as in a robe,
 with rapine and dildain.
 7 They are so fed, that even for fat
 their eyes oft times out-are :
 And as for worldly goods, they have more then can win their heart.
 8 Their life is most licentious,
 baiting much of their wrong :
 Which they have done to simple men,
 and ever pry'd among.

9 The heavens and the living Lord
 they spare not to blasphemie:
 And prate they do of worldly things,
 no wight they do esteem.
 10 The people of God oft times turn back to see their prosperous state :
 And almost drink the self same cup,
 and follow the same rate.

The seond Part.

11 How can it be that God (say they) should know or understand These worldly things, fith wicked men
 be Lords of sea and land ?
 12 For we may see how wicked men
 in riches still increase :
 Rewarded well with worldly goods,
 and live in rest and peace;

13 Then why do I from wickednesse
 my fastaine refraine ?
 And wash my hands with innocencie,
 and cleanse my heart in vain ?
 14 And fuster scouges every day,
 as subject to all blame:
 And every moring from my yowall
 sustaine rebake and shame ?
 15 And I had almost said as they,
 mistaking mine estate :
 But that I shold thy children judge,
 as folk unfortunare.
 16 Then I desoughtene how I migh
 this mister understand :
 But yer the labour was too great for me to take in hand.
 17 Until the time I went into thy holy place, and then,
 I understand right perfectly
 the end of all these men.
 18 And now e'y how thou settest them
 upon a flipp y place :
 And at thy pleasure and thy will thou doest the n all deacie.
 19 Then al men muse at that strange sight
 to see how suddenly
 They are deuored, dispatcht, consum'd
 and dead so horribly.
 20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
 so all their wealth decay :
 Their famous names in all mens sight,
 shall eble and pale away.

The third Part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then
 my mi: I was much opprest:
 22 So fond was I, and ignorant,
 and in this point a beait.
 23 Yet nevertheless by my right hand,
 thou hold st me alwayes fift:
 24 And with thy counseil doft me guide
 to glory at the last.

25 What thing is there that I can wish,
 but thee in heaven above ?
 And in the earth there is nothing,
 like thee that I can love.
 26 My fear, and eke my heart doth fail,
 but God doth fail me never :
 For of my health God is the strength,
 my portion eke for ever.

27 And lo all such as thee forsake,
 thou doalt destroy each one :
 And those that trut in any thing,
 faving in thee alone.
 28 Therefore I will draw near to God,
 and ever with him dwell;
 In God alone I put my trust,
 thy wonders I will tell.

PSALM Lxxiv. I. H.

W HY art thou (Lord) so long from us,
 in all this danger deep ?
 Why doth thine anger kindle thus,
 at thine own pasture steep ?
 2 Lord call thy people to thy thought,
 which have been thine so long :

The

1 The which thou hast redeem'd & brought from bondage sore and strong.
2 Have mind therefore, and think upon,
remember it full well:
3 Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wert wont to dwell.
4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deafe:
5 Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.
5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roar O God:
They set as signes on every wall,
their banners splaid abroad.
6 As men with axes hew down trees,
that on the hills do grow:
So shize the bills and swords of these within thy Temple now.
7 The feeling saw'd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones,
With axes hammers bills and swords,
they beat them down at once.
8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toile:
The house appointed to thy Name,
they raze down to the soile.
9 And thus they lay within their heart,
dispatch them out of hand:
They burn them up in every part.
Gods houseth through the land:
10 Yet thou no signe of help dost send,
our Prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague shall end,
among us there is none.
(shame
11 When wilst thou (Lord) once end this and cease thine enemies strong?
Shall they always blaspheme thy Name,
and raile on thee so long?
12 Why dost thou draw thy hand aback,
and hide it in thy lap?
O pluck it out and be not slack
to give thy foes a rap.

The second Part.

13 O God thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore haft been:
Yea the good grace throughout thy world
for our good he'p hath seer.
14 The less that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them die,
And thou didst break the Serpents head
that he therein did die.
15 Yea thou didst break the head so great
of Whales that are so fell:
And giv' st them to the folk to eat,
that in the deserts dwell.
16 Thou mad' st a spring with streams so
from rock both hard and hie.
And eke thy hand hath made likewise deep rivers to be die.
17 Both day and eke the night are thine
by thee they were begun:
Thou sent to serve us with their shine,

the light and eke the Sun:
18 Thou didst appoint the ends and coasts
of all the earth about:
Both summer-heats and winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.
19 Thinke on (O Lord) no time forget thy foes that thee defame:
And how the foolish folk are set
to rail upon thy Name.
20 O let no cruel beasts devoure
the Turtle that is true, Forget not alwaies in thy power
the poor that much do rue, 21 regard thy Covenant, and behold
thy foes possest the land:
All sad and dark, forworn and old,
our realm as now doth stand.
22 Let not the simble go away,
nor yet return with shame:
But let the poor and needy aye
give praise unto thy Name.
23 Rise (Lord) let be by thee maintained
the cause that is thine own:
Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolish one.
24 The voice forger not of thy foes,
for the presumption hie
Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

P S A L M lxxv. I.H.

11 Nto thee God will we give thanks
we will give thanks to thee:
Sith thy name is so near, declare thy wondrous works will wee.
2 I will uprightly judge, when get convenient time I may:
The earth is weak, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.
3 I did to the mad people say,
deal not so furiously:
And unto the ungodly ones,
set not your horns on hie:
4 I said unto them, set not up
your raised horns on hie:
And see that you do with stiffe neck
not speak presumptuously.
5 For neither from the eastern parts,
nor from the Western fide:
Nor from forsaken wildernesse
promotion doth proceed.
6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous Judge alone:
He putteth down the one, and setteth
another in the throne.
7 For why? a cup of mighty wine
is in the hand of God:
And all the mighty wine therein,
himself doth pour abroad.
8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remaine of it:
The wicked of the earth shall drink,
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God, I say,
of Jacobs God therefore:
And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.
10 In funder break the horns of all ungodly men will I:
But then the horns of righteous men
shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

PSALM Lxxi. L.H.

TO all that now in Jury dwell,
the Lord is clearly known:
His Name is great in Israel,
a people of his own.
2 At Salem he his rents hath pight,
to tarry there a space:
In Sion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling place.
3 And there he brak both shaft and bow,
the sword, the spear, and shield:
And brak the ray to overthrow
in battell on the field.
4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Than in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountains high.
5 But now the proud are spoil'd through and they are fain on sleep: (thine
Through men of war no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.
6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God,
when thou didst them reprove?
As halfe on sleep their charios flood,
no horsemen once did move.
7 For thou art dreadful, Lord, indeed,
what man the courage hath
To bide thy figh, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath: (heard 8 When thou dost make thy judgements
from heaven through the ground
Then all the earth full fore afraid,
in silence shall be found.
9 And that when thou O God dost stand
in judgement for to speak,
To save th afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.
10 The fury that man doth reign
shall turn unto thy praise:
Hereafter (Lord) do thou refrain their wrath and threats alwaies.
11 Make vows, and pay them to our God
ye folk that nigh him be:
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadful sure is he.
12 For he doth take both life and might
from Princes great of birth;
And full of terror in his fight
to all the Kings on earth.

PSALM Lxxij. L.H.
1 With my voice to God do cry,
with heart and hearty cheer:
My voice to God I lift on high,
and he my suit doth hear.
2 In time of grief I sought to God,
by night no rest I took:
But stretcht my hands to him abroad,
my soul comforts forlook.

3 When I to think on God intend,
my trouble then is more:
I speake, but could not make an end,
my breath was short so fore.
4 Thou holdst mine eyes alwaies from rest
that I always awake:
With fear I am so sore opprest,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The dayes of old in minde I car,
and oft did think upon
The times and ages that are past
full many years agone.

6 By night my songs I call to minde,
once made thy prale to show:
And with my heart much talk I finde,
my spirits do search to know.

7 Will God, said I, at once for all
catt of his people thus:
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?

8 What is his goodnesse clean decayed
for ever and a day?
Or is his promise now delaid,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forgoe
his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to writh-hold?

10 At last I said, my weakele is the cause of this mistrust, Gods mighty hand can help all this,
and change is when he lust.

The second Part.

11 I will regard and think upon
the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly will record.

12 Yea all his works I will declare,
and what he did devise:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsil wife.

13 Thy works (O Lord) are all upright,
and holy all abroad:
What one hath strength to match thy might
of thee O Lord our God?

14 Thou art a God that doft forth show
thy wonders every hour:
And so doft make the people know
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou doft defend with strength and streched arm:
The sons of Jacob that descend,
and Josephs seed from harm.

16 The waters Lord perceived thee,

the waves saw thee well :
 And they for fear away did flee,
 the depths on trembling tell.

17 The clouds that were both thick and did rain full plentifully : (black,
 The thunder in the aire did crack,
 thy thuds abroad did lie.

18 Thy thunder in the aire was heard,
 thy lightnings from above,
 With flashes great made men afraid,
 the earth did quake and move.

19 Thy waies within the sea do lie,
 thy paths in waters deep:
 Yet none can there thy steps espie,
 nor know thy paths to keep.

20 Thou ledst thy folk upon the land,
 as sheep on every side:
 Through Moles and through Aarons hand
 thou didst them safely guide.

PSA LM. Ixviii. J.H.

A Trend my people to my law,
 and to my words incline

2 My mouth shall speak strange parables and sentences divine.

3 Which we our selves have heard and even of our fathers old : (learn'd
 And which for our instruction
 our fathers have us told.

4 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after :
 Who shold Gods power to their race
 and all his works of wonder. (praise

5 To Jacob he commandment gave,
 how Israel should live.
 Willing our fathers it ould the same
 who their children give.

6 That they and their posterity,
 that were not sprung up tho.
 Should have the knowledge of the law,
 and teach their seed also.

7 That they might have the better hope
 in God that is above :
 And not forget to kee, his laws,
 and his precepts in love.

8 Not being as their fathers were,
 rebelling in Gods sight:
 And would not frame their wicked hearts
 to know their God aright.

9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil :
 Shooting their darts in day of war,
 and yet they took the foil?

10 For why they did not keep with God
 the covenant that was made :
 Not yet would walk or lead their lives
 according to his trade.

11 But put into oblivion,
 his counsel and his will:
 And all his works most magnifique
 which he declared still.

The second Part.

12 What wonders to our fore-fathers
 did he himself disclose?

In Egypt land within the field,
 that call'd is Thaenios ?

13 He did divide and cut the sea,
 that they might passe ar once :
 And made the waters stand as it were
 as doth an heap of stones.

14 He led them secret in a cloud
 by day when it was bright:
 And in the night when dark it was
 with fire he gave them light.

15 He brke the rocks in wilderness,
 and gave the people drunks
 As plentiful as when the deups
 do flow up to the brink.

16 He drew our rivers out of the rocks
 that were both drye and hard :
 Of such abundance, that no floods
 to them might be compar'd.

17 Yet for all this against the Lord
 their sin they did encrease :
 And stirred him that is most high
 to wrath in wilderness.

18 They tempted God within their hearts
 like people of mistrust, Requiring furth a kind of meat,
 as served to their lust.

19 Saying with murmuration,
 in their unfaithfulness:
 What can this God prepare for us
 a feast in wilderness?

20 Behold he brake the stony rocks,
 and floods forthwith did flow:
 But can he now give to his folk both bread and feith also?

21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth
 with Jacob and his seed :
 So did his indignation
 on Israel proceed.

The third Part.

22 Because they did not faithfully believe and hope that he,
 Could always help and succor them
 in their necessity.

23 Wherefore he did command the clouds
 forthwith they brake in sunder :

24 And rain'd down Manna for them to a food of mickle wonder. (cat.

25 When earthy men with Angels food
 were fed at their request:

26 He had the east winde blow away,
 and brought in the South-West.

27 He rain'd down feith as thick as dust,
 and fowle as thick as sand:

28 Which he did cast amidst the place,
 where all their tents did stand.

29 Then did they eat exceedingly,
 and all men had their fills:
 Yet more and more they did desire,
 to serve their lusts and wills.

30 But as the meat was in their mouths,
 his wrath upon them fell:

31 And flew the flower of all their youth,
 and choice of Israel.

2 Yet fell they to their wanted sin,
and still they did him grieve :
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.
3 Their days therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vain :
Their years did waste and pale away,
with terror and with pain.
4 But ever when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by :
5 Remembraing that he was their strength
their help and God most high.
6 Though in their mouths they did bar
and harter with the Lord: (glove)
And with their tongues & in their hearts
dissembled every word.

The fourth Part.

7 For why their hearts were nothing bent
to him nor to his trade :
Nor yet to keep or to performe
the covenant that was made.
8 Yet was he still so merciful,
when they deserv'd to die :
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and wold not them destroy.
Yea, many a rime he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise :
And wold not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
9 Considering that they were but flesh,
and even as a wind,
That passeth away and cannot well
return by his own kind.
10 How oftentimes in wildernes
did they the Lord provoke ?
How did they move and stirr the Lord
to plague them with his stroke ?
11 Yet did they turn again to sin,
and tempt d God ev' soone :
Prescribing to the holy Lord,
what things they wold have done.
12 Nor thinking of his hand and power
nor of the day when he Deliver'd them out of the hands
of their fierce enemy.
13 Nor how he wrought his miracles,
(as they them selves beheld)
In Egypt and the wonders that he did in Zion field.

14 Nor how he turned by his power,
their waters into blood :
That no man might receive his drink
at river nor at flood.
15 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy :
And fill their countrey full of frogs
which did their land destroy.

The fift Part.

16 Nor how he did commit their fruits
unto the caterpillar :
And all the labour of their hands
be gave to the grasshopper. (vines, 17 With hard stones he defordid their

so that they were all lost :
And not so much as wild fig-trees,
but he con sum'd with frost.

18 And yet with hailstones once again
the Lord their cattel smote :
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with thunderbolts full hot.
19 He cast upon them in his ire,
and in his fury strong,
Displeasure, wrath and evil spirites,
to trouble them among.

20 Then to his wrath he made away,
and spared not the least :
But gave unto the pestilence
the man and eke the beast.
21 He struck also the first-born all,
that up in Egypt came :
And all the chiefe of men and beasts
within the rea's of Iam.

22 But as for all his own dear folk,
he did preserve and keep :
And carried them through wildernes,
even like a flock of sheep.
23 With us all fear both safe and sound
he brought them out of thral :
Whereas their foes with rage of seas
were overwhelmed all.

24 And brought them out into the coasts
of his owa holy land :
Even to the mount which he had got
by h s strong arm and hand.
25 And there call'd out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide :
And in their tens he set the Tribes
of Israel to abide.

26 Yet for all this their God most high they stirr'd and tempted still :
And wold not keep his testament,
nor yet obey his will.
27 But as their fathers turned back,
eve so they went astray :
Much like a bove that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixt Part.

28 And griev'd him with their hill-altars,
with off'ings and with fire :
And with their idols vehemently
provoked him to ire.
29 Therewith his wrath began again
to kindle in his brest :
The naughtinesse of Israel
he did so much detest.

30 Then he forsook the Tabernacle of Shilo where he was Right conuersant with earthly men,
ev'n as his dwelling place.
31 Then suffer'd he his might and power
in bondage for to stand :
And gave the honour of his Ark
into his enemies hand.

32 And did commit them to the sword
wroth with his heritage :
63 Then

63 Their young men were devour'd with maids had no marriage. (fire, 64 And with the sword the Priests allo
 did perish every one:
 And not a widow left alive,
 their death for to bemoan.
 65 And then the Lord began to wake,
 like one that slept a time:
 And like a valiant man of war,
 refresh'd after wine.
 66 With Emrods in the hinder parts
 he strake his enemies all:
 And put them then unto a shame
 that was perpetual.
 67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
 of Joseph did refuse:
 As for the Tribe of Ephraim,
 he would in no wise chuse.
 68 But chose the Tribe of Jehuda,
 whereas he thought to dwell:
 Even the noble mount Sion,
 which he did love so well.
 69 Whereat he did his Temple build,
 both sumptuously and sure:
 Like as the earth which he hath made
 for ever to endure.
 70 Then chose he David, him to serve,
 his people for to keep:
 Whom he took up and brought away,
 even from the folds of sheep.
 71 As he did follow th' Ews with young,
 the Lord did him advance:
 To feed his people Israel,
 and his inheritance.
 72 Thus David with a faithful heart
 his flock and charge did feed:
 And prudently with all his power,
 did govern them indeed.

P S A L M lxxix. I.H.

O God the Gentiles do invade thine heritage to spoil:
 Jerusalem an heap is made,
 thy Temple they defile.
 2 The bodies of thy Saints most dear
 aeroad to birds they cast,
 The flesh of them that do thee fear,
 the beasts devour and waste.
 3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem,
 as waters spilt they have:
 So that there is not one of them
 to lay their dead in grave.
 4 Thus are we made a laughing stock,
 almost the world throughout:
 The enemies at us jest and mock,
 which dwell our coasts about.
 5 Wilt thou O Lord thus in thine ire,
 against us ever fume,
 And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
 thy folk for to confune?
 6 Upon those people pour the same,
 which did thee never know:
 All realms which call not on thy Name
 confune and overthrow.

7 For they have got the upper hand,
 and Jacobs seed destroide:
 His habitation and his land,
 they have left waste and void.
 8 Bear not in minde our former faults,
 with speed some pity shew:
 And aid us Lord in all assaults,
 for we are weak and low.

The second Part.

9 O God that giv'it all health and grace,
 on us declare the same:
 Weigh not our works, our sins deface,
 for honour of thy Name.
 10 Why shall the wicked still alway,
 so us as people dumb,
 In thy reproach rejoice and and say,
 where is then God become?
 Require(O Lord) as thou feest goods
 before our eyes in sight,
 Of all these folk thy servants blood,
 which they spilt in despight.
 11 Receive inse thy fight in haile,
 the clamours, grief and wrong,
 Of such as are in prison cast,
 sustaining irons strong.
 Thy force and strength to celebrate,
 Lord set them out of band,
 Which unto death are destinate,
 and in their enemies hand.
 12 The nations which have been so bold
 as to blasphem thy Name:
 Into their lays with seven-fold
 repay again the same.
 13 So we thy folk or pasture sheep
 will praise thee evermore.
 And teach all ages for to keep
 for thee like praise in store.

Thou hast us made a very strife,
to these that dwell about.
And that our foes do love alife,
they laugh and jeft it out.
8 O take us (Lord) unto thy grace,
convert our hearts to thee:
shew forth to us thy joyful face,
and we full safe shall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well,
thou brought it a vine full dear:
The heathen folk thou didst expel,
and thou didst plant it there.
10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her roots full fast:
That it did grow and spring apace,
and fill'd the land at last.

The second Part.

11 The hills were covered round about with thine that from it came:
And eke the Cedars strong and stour,
with branches of the flame.
12 Why then didst thou her walls destroy?
her hedge pluckt up thou hast:
That all the folk that pale thereby,
thy vine may travail and walt.

13 The Boar out of the wood so wilde,
doth dig and root it out:
The furious beasts out of the field
devoure it all about.
14 O Lord of hosts return again,
from heaven look bētine:
Behold, and with thy help sustain
this poor vineyard of thine.

15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel,
Whom thy right hand hath set:
The same which thou didst love so well,
O Lord do not forger.
16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face,
we perish in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the son of man whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.
18 And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from flame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy Name.

19 O Lord of hosts through thy good convert us unto thee: (grace, Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

PSALM Lxxi. I.H.

BE light and glad, in God rejoice,
which is our strength and stay:
Be joyful and lift up your voice,
to Jacobs God I say.
2 Prepare your instruments most meet,
some joyful Psalm to sing:
Strike up with harp and lute so sweet,
on every pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new Moon,

with trumpets of the best:

As it is used to be done
at any solemn feast.

4 For this is unto Israel,
a stantre and a trade:

A law that must be kepe full well,
which Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Joseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came:

That as a witness all his seed
should fill obser the same.

6 When God, I say, had so prepar'd
to bring him from that land:

Whereas the speech which he had heard
he did not understand.

7 I from his shoulders took (faish he)
the burthen clean away:

And from the furnace quir him free
from burning brick of clay.

8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I holpt thee by and by:
And I did answere thee withal,
in thunder secretly.

9 Yea at the waters of discord,
I did thee tempt and prove:
Whereas the goodneste of the Lord,
with muttering thou didst move.
10 Hear O my folk, O Israel,
and I affuse it thee,
regard and mark my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second Part.

11 Thou shalt no God in thee reserve,
of any land abroad:
Nor in no wile to bow or serve
a strange or forreign god.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.

13 And yet my people will not hear
my voice when that I speake:
Nor Israel would nor obey,
but did me quite forfake.
14 Then did I leave them to their will,
in hardnes of their heart:
To walk in their own counfels still,
themselves they might pervert.

15 O that my people would have heard
the words that I did say:
And eke that Israel would regard to walk within my way.

16 How loon would I confound their foes
and bring them down full low:
And turn my hand upon al those
that would them overthrow!

17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaves that did set him till:
But of his folk the time and age,
should flourish ever still.

18 I would have fed them with the crop
and kinke of the wheat:

And

And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their tills should eat.

2 How long (faith he) will you proceed

And haue reſpect to love of niceſſe,

And rid the needy from the claws

in vain to them I talk:
They will for fee, or caught diſcern,
but ill in daſtelle walk.
6 For lo, even now the time is come,
that all things fail to nought:
And likewiſe laws both all and ſome,
for gain are fold and bought.
I had decreed it in my fight,
as gods to take you all:
And children to the moſt of might,
for love I did you call.
7 But notwithstanding ye ſhall die

O tyrants I ſhall you deſtroy,

So that the Name of Israel

The ſecond Part.

As Zeta and Valimina were

And as the flame doth quire conſume
the mountains and the hills.

15 So let the tempeſt of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:

And of thy ſtormy winde and ſhowre,
Lord make them all afraid.

16 Lord bring them all I thee deſire,
to ſuch rebuke and shame,
That it may cauſe them to enquire,
and learn to ſeek thy Name.

17 And let them evermore daily

And in rebuke and ob'ouie,

And that alone thou doſt excel,

That is perfwaded in his breft,

P S A L M Ixxxv. I. H.

T thou haft been merciful indeed,
O Lord unto thy land :

For thou restoredft Jacobs seed,
from thralldome out of hand.
2 The wicked ways that they were in thou didft them clean remit :
And thou didft hide thy peoples sin,
full cloſe thou coveredft it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didft affwage,
that all thy wrath was gone :
And so didft turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

4 O God our health do now convert thy people unto thee :
Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry ceafe to be.

5 Why shall thine anger never end,
but ſtill proceed on us ?
And shall thy wrath it ſelf extend upon all ages thus ?

6 Wil thou not rather ſura therefore,
and quicken us, that we,
And all thy folk may evermore
be glad and joy in thee ?

7 O Lord on us do thou declare thy goodneſſe to our wealth :
Shew forth to us, and do not ſpare,
thine aid and ſaving health.
8 I will hear what God faſh, for he speaks to his people peace,
And to his Saints, that never they returne to fooliſhnes.

9 For why? his help is ſtill at hand
to ſuch as do him fear :
Whereby great glory is our land
ſhall dwell and flouriſh there.
10 For truth and mercy there ſhall meet,
in one to take their place :
And peace ſhall justice with kife greet,
and there they ſhall embrace.

11 As truth from earth ſhall ſpring apace
and flouriſh pleauantly :
12 So righteousneſſe ſhall ſhew her face,
and look from heaven high, 12 Yet God himſelf doth take in hand
to give us each good thing :
And through the coſts of all the land
the earth her fruit ſhall bring.

13 Before his face ſhall justice go,
much like a guide or stay :
He shall direct his ſteps alſo,
and keep them in the way.

P S A L M Ixxxv. I. H.
L ord bow thine ear to my request,

And ſave thy ſervant, O my Lord,

For through the day I do not ceafe:

And eke thy mercy plentiful,

The second Part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees shall fall,
and glorifie thy Name.

10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own:
Thou workest wonders still in fight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O joynt my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

12 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord:
And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the world.

13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to me
is great, and doth excell:
Thou lexit my soul at liberty,
out from the lower hell.

14 O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of might:
They seek my soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meek,
full slack and slow to wrath:
Thy goodness is full great, and eke
thy truth no measure hath.

16 O turn to me, and mercy grant,
thy strength to me apply:
O help and save thine own servant,
thy handmaids son am I.

17 On me some signe of favour shew:
that all my foes may see,
And be aishamed, because (Lord) thou
dost help and comfort me.

P S A L M lxxxvij. I.H.

THat City shall full well indure,
her ground-work still doth stay
Upon the holy hilis full sure,
it can no time decay.

2 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more then all the rest of Jacobs rents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion and abroad:
Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou City of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in mind the same:
And Babylon shall eke apply,
and learn to know thy Name.

5 Lo, Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopia likewise:
A people old, full long ago
were born, and there did rise.
6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame
Hath there sprung up, and the high God
hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appear Of Sion, that the chief of all had his beginning there.

8 The trumpeters, with such as sing,
there in great plenty be:
My fountains and my pleasant spring
are compact all in thee.

P S A L M lxxxvij. I.H.

Lord God of health, the hope and stay
thou art alone to me:
I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.
2 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on hie: Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend,
and hearken to my cry.

3 For why? with wo my heart is fill'd
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almost doth yeild,
and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall,
And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain:
It were more easie for me to be with them the which are slain.

6 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou haft clean forgot:
The which thy hand hath cur away,
and thou regard'it them not.

7 Yea like to one shut up full sure
within the lower pit,
In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me do lie:
And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and trie.

9 Thou puttest my friends far off from me
and mak'it them hate me sore:
I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

10 My fight doth fail through grief
I call to thee O God:
Throughout the day my hands also
to thee I stretch abroad.

The second Part,

11 Dost thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?

12 Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord,
be preached in the grave?
Or shall with them that are deftroid,
thy truth her honour have?

13 Shall they that lie in dark full low,
of all thy wonders wot?
Or there shall they thy justice know,
where all things are forgot?

14 But I O Lord, to thee always dofcry, and call aspe:

My prayer ere it be day,
shall come before thy face.

15 Why doth thou Lord abhor my soul
in grief that seeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why doth thou hide
thy face away from me?

16 I am afflicted, dying still,
from youth, this many a year:
Thy terrors which do vex me ill,
with troubled mind I bear.

17 The furies of thy wrathful rage
full sore upon me fall:
Thy terrors eke do not answage,
but me oppreſſe withall.

18 All day they compass me about,
as waters at the tide:
And all at once with streams full flowe
befor me on each side.

19 Thou settest far from me my friends,
and lovers every one:
Yea and mine old acquaintance all
out of my sight are gone.

PSALM Lxxxix. I. H.

TO sing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall never spare:
And with my mouth from age to age,
thy truth I will declare.

2 For I have said, that mercy shall
for evermore remain:
In that thou doſt the heavens stay,
thy truth appeareth plain.

3 To mine elect, faith God, I made a covenant and beſteſt:
My ſervant David to perſuade,
I ſwore and did protest.

4 Thy ſeed for ever I will stay,
and ſtabliſh it full ſtall:
And ſtill uphold thy Throne alway,
from age to age to laſt.

5 The heavens ſhew with joy and mirth
thy wondrous works, O Lord:
Thy ſaints within, thy Church on earth
thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equal then,
in all the clouds abroad?
Among the ſons of all the gods,
what one is like our God?

7 God in assembly of his Saints
is greatly to be dread:
And over all that dwell about,
in terror to be had.

8 Lord, God of hoſts, in all the world,
what one is like to thee?
On every ſide moſt mighty Lord
thy truth is ſeen to be.

9 The raging ſea by thine advice, thou ruleſt at thy will:
And when the waves thereof arife,
thou mak'ſt them calm and ſtill.

10 And Egypt (Lord) thou haſt ſubdu'd,
and thou haſt it deſtroy'd:
Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arm
haſt ſcatter'd all abroad.

The ſecond Part.

11 The heavens are thine, & thine haſt
likewiſe the earth and land:
The world, and all that is therein,
thou foundedſt with thy hand:

12 Both North & South, with East & West
thy ſelf didſt make and trame:
Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon,
. rejoice and praife thy Name.

13 Thine arm is ſtrong and full of power
all might therein doth lie:
The strength of thy right hand each horſe
thou liftēſt up on hiſe:

14 In righteouſneſs and equity
thou haſt thy ſeat and place:
Mercy and truth are ſtill with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folk is bleſſt that knows aright
thy preſent power, O God:
For in the favour of thy right
they walk full ſafe abroad.

16 For in thy Name throughout the day
they joy and much rejoice:
And through thy righteouſneſs, haſt they
a pleasant fame and noife.

17 For why? their glory, strength and aid,
in thee alone doth lie:
Thy goodness eke that hath us ſtaid,
thall lift our horn on hiſe.

18 Our strength that doth defend us well
the Lord ſo us doth bring:
The holy One of Israel,
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will unto thy ſaints
in viſions thou didſt show:
And thus then didſt thou ſay to them
thy mind to make them know.

20 A man of might I haue elect,
your King and guide to be:
And ſet him up whom I elect,
among the folk to me.

The third Part.

21 My ſervant David I appoint,
whom I haue ſearched out:
And with my holy oyl anoint
him King of all the roue.

22 For why? my hand is ready ſtill
with him for to remain:
And with my arm also I will
him strengthen and ſustain.

23 The enemies ſhall not him oppreſſe,
they shall him not devour:
Ne yet the ſons of wickedneſs
on him haue any power.

24 His foes likewiſe I will deſtroy
before his face in fight:
And thoſe that hate him, I will plague,
and ſtrike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke withall,
ſhall ſtill upon him lie:
And in my name his horn eke ſhall
be lifted up on high.

26 His Kingdom I will ſet to be upon the sea and land :

And eke the running floods shall be embrace with his right hand.
27 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus that I say :
My Father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.
28 As my first-born I will him take,
of all on earth that springs :
His might and honour I will make above all earthly Kings.
29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my self have told :
My faithful covenant to fulfill,
my mercy I will hold.
30 And eke his feed I will sustain
for ever strong and sure :
31 that his feed shall still remain
while heaven doth endure.

The fourth Part.

31 If that his sonnes forfayce my Law,
and so begin to swerve :
And of my judgements have none awe,
nor will not them obserue.
32 Or if they will not use aright
my statutes to them made :
And set all my commandments light,
and will not keep my made.
33 Then with the rod will I begin,
their doings to amend :
And so with scourging for their sin,
if that they do offend.
34 My mercy yet and my goodnesse,
I will not take him fro :
Nor handle him with crastinesse,
and se my truth forego.
35 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke :
No word the which my lips have told,
shall alter or he broke.
36 Once sware I by my holinesse,
and that perform will I :
With David I shall keep promise,
to him I will not lie.
37 His feed for evermore shall raign,
and eke his throne of might,
As doth the Sun, it shall remain
for ever in my sight.
38 And as the Moon within the skie
for ever standeth fast :
A faithful witnesse from on hie,
is shall his kingdome last.
39 But now, O Lord, thou doft reject,
and now thou changeit chear :
Yea thou art wroth with thine elect,
thine own anointed dear.
40 The covenant with thy servant made,
Lord thou haft quite undone :
And down upon the ground also
haft cast his royal crown.

The fift Part. (mighty)

41 Thou pluck'it his hedges up with his walls thou doft confound :
Thou bearest eke his bulwarks down,

and break'it them to the ground :
42 That he is sore deftroy'd and torn,
of comes by throughout :
And so is made a mock and scorn
to all that dwell about.
43 Thou their right hand haft lifted that him so sore annoy :
And all his foes that him devour,
In thou haft made to joy.
44 His swords edge thou doft take aw that shoud his foes withstand :
To him in war no victory
thou giv'it, nor upper hand.
45 His glory thou doft also waste,
his thron, his joy, his mirth,
By thee are overthrown, and cast
full low upon the earth.
46 Thou haft cut off and made full shun
his youth and luty days,
And rais'd of him an ill report,
with shame and great dispraise.
47 How long away from me, O Lord,
for ever wilt thou turn ?
And shall thine anger still alway,
as fire consume and burn ?
48 O call to minde, remember then,
my time consumeth fast :
Why haft thou made the sonnes of men
as things in vain to waste ?
49 What man is he that liveth here,
and death shall never see ?
Or from the hand of all ell his soul
shall he deliver free ?
50 Where is (O Lord) thine old goodnes,
so oft declar'd before,
Which by thy truth and uprightness
to David thou haft swore ?
51 The great rebukes to minde I call,
that on thy servant lie :
The railings of the people all
born e in my brest have I :
52 Wherewith (O Lord) thine enemies
blasphemed have thy Name :
The steps of thine anointed One
they cease not to defame.
53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
both now and eke for aye :
Through skie and earth, and all the co
Amen, Amen, I say.

PSALM XC. I. H.

Thou Lord haft been our sure def
our place of ease and rest :
In all times past, yea so long since,
as cannot be exprest.
2 Ere there was made mountain or
the earth and world abroad :
From age to age, and always still,
for ever thou art God.
3 Thou grindest man through grief an
to duit, or clay, and then,
And then thou failst again, Kerurn
again ye sonnes of men.
4 The lasting of a thousand years,

what is it in thy sight?
yesterday it doth appear,
or as a warch by night.

So soon as thou doft scarre them,
then is their life and trade
as afeep, and like the grafs,
whole beauty soon doth fade.
Which in the morning shines full but fadeth by and by : (bright and is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead and drye.

For through thine anger we conuine,
our might is much decaid :
and of thy fervent wrath and fume
we are full sore afraid.
The wicked works that we have wrought
thou sett before thine eye :
our privy faults, yea eke our thoughts
thy countenance doth spie.

For through thy wrack our days do theroof doth nought remaine: (waste,
ur years consume as words or blafts,
and are not cal'd again.
Our time is three score years and ten,
that we do live on mold :
one see fourscore, surely then,
we count him wondrous old..

The second Part.

Yet of this time the strength & chief
the which we count upon,
nothing else but painfull grief,
and we as blafts are gone. (there Who once doth know what strength is what might thine anger hath :
in his heart who doth thee fear,
according to thy wrath ?

Instruct us, Lord, to know and try,
how long our daies remain :
that then we may our hearts apply
true wisdom to attain.

Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou
forch on in wrath proceed ?
new favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.

Refresh us with thy mercy soon,
and then our joy shall be,
all times so long as life doth last,
in heart rejoice will we.

As thou haft plagued us before,
now also make us glad :
and for the years wherein ful sore affliction we have had.

O let thy work and power appear
and on thy servants light :
and shew unto thy children dear,
thy glory and thy might.

Lord let thy grace and glory stand on us thy servants thus :
Confirm the works we take in hand,
Lord prosper them to us.

PSALM xcij. J.H.

He that within the secer place
of God most high doth dwelle,
shadow of the mightiest grace,

at rest shall keep him well.

2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold
I to the Lord will say :
My God is he, in him will I
my whole affiance stay.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare,
the which the hunter laid :
And from the deadly plague and care,
whereof thou art afraid.

4 And with his wings shall cover thee,
and keep thee fairely there :
His faith and trueth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.

5 So that thou shalt not need I say,
to fear to be affright :
Of all the shafts that fly by day,
nor terrors of the night.

6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in dark so fast :
Nor yet of that wherof doth destroy,
and at noon day doth waite.

7 Yea at thy side as thou doft stand,
a thousand dead shall be,
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.

8 But thou shalt see it for thy part thine eyes shall well regard ;
That even like to their desert
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I only lust, to stay my hope on thee :
And in the high'it I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

10 Thou shalt not need none ill to fear,
with thee it shall be well :
Nor yet the plague shall once come near
the houte where thou doft dwell.

11 For why? unto his Angels all,
with charge commanded he :
That still in all thy ways they shall preserve and prosper thee.

12 And in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiting thee upon :
So that thy foot shall never chance
to spurn at any thone.

13 Upon the Lions thou shalt go,
the Adder fell and lorg :
And tread upon the Lions young,
with Dragous stout and strong.

14 For he that trutheh unto me,
I will accept him quite :
And him defend, because that he doth know my Name aright.

15 When he for help on me doth cry,
an answer I will give :
And from his grief take him will I
in glory for to live.

16 With length of yeares and dayes of
I will farrill his time : (wealth
The goodnesse of my saving health,
I will declare to him.

PSALM xcij. J.H.

It is a thing both good and meet,
to praise the highest Lord.

Psalm XCiiij. XCiiiij.

52

And to thy Name, O thou most High,
to sing with one accord.
3 To shew the kindness of the Lord,
berime ere day be light :
And eke declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.
3 Upon ten-stringed instruments,
on Lute and Harp so sweet :
With all the mirth you can invent,
of instruments most meet.
4 For thou hast made me to rejoice
in things so wrought by thee :
And I have joy in heart and voice,
thy handy-works to see.
5 O Lord how glorious and how great,
are all thy works so stout ?
So deeply are thy counsels set,
that none can try them out.
6 The man unwise hath not the wit,
thesd' things to pass to bring :
And all such fools are nothing fit,
to understand this thing.
7 When so the wicked at their will,
as grafts do spring full fast :
They when they flourish in their ill,
for ever shall be waste.
8 But thou art mighty Lord most High,
yea thou doft reign therefore :
In every time eternally,
both now and evermore.
9 For why ? O Lord behold and see,
behold thy foes I say,
How all that work iniquity,
shall perish and decay.
10 But thou like as an Unicorn
Shalt lift mine horn on hie :
With fresh and new prepared oyle,
shine oynted King am I.
11 And of my foes before mine eyes
I shall see the fall and shame
Of all that up against me rise,
mine ears shall hear the fame.
12 The just shall flourish up on high,
as Date-trees bud and blow :
And as the Cedars multiply,
in Libanus that grow.
13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God :
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.
14 And in their rage much fruit shal bring both fat and well beseen :
And pleasantly both bud and spring,
with boughs and branches green.
15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will :
He is my rock, my hope, and trust,
up him there is none ill.

P S A L M xciiij. I H.
T He Lord as King aloft doth reign,
with glory goodly dight :
And he to shew his strength most main,
hath girt himself with might.

2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made
and shaped it so sure,
No might can make it move or fade,
at stay it doth endure.
3 Ere that the world was made or wrought
thy seat was set before :
Beyond all time that can be thought
thou hast been evermore.
4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise,
they roar and make a noise :
The floods (I say) did enterprise,
and lifted up their voice.
5 Yea, though the storms arise in fight,
though seas do rage and swell :
The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.
6 And look what promise he doth make his household to defend :
For just and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.
P S A L M xciv. I. H.
O Lord thou doft revenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee :
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see,
2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth doft judge and guide :
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride,
3 How long shall wicked men bear sway,
with lifting up their voice ?
How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and rejoice ? (out)
4 How long shall they with brags burst and proudly prate their fill ?
Shall they rejoice that be so stout,
whole works are ever ill ?
5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage,
they spoil and vex full sure :
Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.
6 The widows which are comfortless,
and strangers they destroy :
They slay the children fatherlele,
and none doth put them by.
7 And when they take those things in hand
this talk they have of thee :
Can Jacobs God thus understand ?
tuih, no, he cannot see.
8 O folk unwise, and people rude,
some knowledge now discern :
Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.
9 The Lord which made the ear of man,
he needs of right must hear :
He made the eye, all things must then before his sight appear.
10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
and make them understand :
Shall he not then your deeds detect ?
how can you scape his hand ?
The second Part. (man)

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of his heart he sees full plain :

1 The Lord (I say) mans thoughts doth scan and findeth them but vain-
But Lord that man is happy sure,
whom thou dost keep in awe :
and through correction doft procure
to teach him in thy Law.

2 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble fit :
then wicked men shall be suppreſt,
and fall into the pit.
For ſure, the Lord will not refuſe
his people for to take :
is heritage whom he did chafe,
he will no time forfake.

3 Until that judgment be decreed to juſtice to convert :
that all may follow her with ſpeed,
that are of upright heart.
4 But who upon my part shall stand
againſt the cursed train ?
5 who ſhall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain ?

6 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repell :
my ſoul and life had now been laid
almoſt as low as hell.

7 When I did ſay my foot did ſlide
I now am like to fall :
by goodness Lord did ſo provide
to stay me up withall.

8 When with my ſelf I muſed much,
and could no comfort find :
then Lord thy goodness did me touch
and that did eafe my mind.

9 Wilt thou inhaunt thy ſelf and draw with wicked men to fit ?
Which with pretenſe inſtead of law,
much malchief do commiſſe.

10 For they conſult againſt the life of righteous men and good :
and in their counſels they are riſe
to ſhed the guiltieſ blood.

11 But yet the Lord he is to me
a ſtrong defence or lock :
He is my God, to whom I flee,
he is my strength and rock.

12 And he shall cauſe their malicieſ all themselves for to annoy :
And in their malicie they shall fall,
our God shall them deſtroy.

PSALM XCv. I. H.

1 Come let us lift up our voice,
and ſing unto the Lord :
In him our rock of health rejoice
let us with one accord.

2 Yea let us come before his face,
to give him thanks and praife :
In ſinging Psalms unto his grace,
let us be glad alwayes.

3 For why ? the Lord he is no doubt,
a great and mighty God :

4 A King above all gods, throughout
in all the world abroad.
5 The ſecrets of the earth ſo deep :
and corners of the land :
The tops of hills that are ſo ſteep,
he hath them in his hand.

6 The ſea and waters all are his,
for he the ſame hath wrought :
The earth and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nougat.

7 Come let us bow and praife the Lord,
before him let us fall :
And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.

8 For why ? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide :
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his ſheep, and he our guide.

9 To day if ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your heart :
As we with grudging many a year
provok'd me in deſert.

10 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove :
My wondrous works when they did ſee,
yet ſtill they would me move.

11 Twice twenty years they did me grieve
and I to them did ſay,
They erre in heart, and not believe,
they have not known my way.

12 Wherfore I ſware, when that my wrath
was kindled in my breſt,
That they ſhould never tread the path
to enter in my reſt.

PSALM xcvi. I. H.

Sing ye with praife unto the Lord,
new ſongs with joy and mirth :
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.

2 Yea ſing unto the Lord, I ſay, prafe ye his holy Name :
Declaſe and ſhew from day to day
ſalvation by the ſame.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about :
To ſhew his wonders do not ſpare,
in all the world throughout.

4 For why the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praife alway :
And he is to be dread of right,
above all gods, I ſay.

5 For all the gods of heathen ſolk
are idols that will fade :
But yet our God, he is the Lord
that hath the heavens made.

6 All praife and honour eke do dwell
for aye before his face :
Both power and might likewiſe excell
within his holy place.

7 Aſcribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world :
All might and worship eke I ſay,
aſcribe unto the Lord.

8 Ascribe unto the Lord also,
the glory of his Name :
And eke unto his courts do go,
with gifts unto the same.

The second Part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord,
within his Temple bright :
Let all the people of the world
be fearfull at his sight.

10 Tell all the world, be not afraid,
the Lord doth reign above :
Yea, he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move.

11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might :
To judge the nations every one
with equity and right.

12 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejoice :
The sea and all that is therein,
shall shew and make a noise.

13 The field shall joy, and every thing
that springeth on the earth ;
The wood and every tree shall sing
with gladness and with mirth.

14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might :
When he shall iustly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

P S A L M xcij. I. H.

The Lord doth reign, whereas the earth
may joy with pleasant voice :
And eke the Isles with joyfull mirth
may triumph and rejoice.

2 Both clouds and darkness eke do swell
and round abour him bear :
Yea right and justice ever dwell,
and bide abour his seat.

3 Yea fire and hear at once do run,
and go before his face :
Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.

4 His lightning eke full bright did blaze
and to the world appear :
Whereat the earth did look and gaze,
with dread and deadly fear.

5 The hills like wax did melt in sight
and presence of the Lord :
They fled before that Ruler's might,
which guideth all the world.

6 The heavens eke declare and shew
his justice forth abroad :
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure will come to such as worship idols vain :
And eke to those that glory much,
dumb pictures to maintain.

8 For all the idols of the world
which they as gods do call :
Shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.

9 With joy shall Sion hear this thing,
and Juda shall rejoice.

For at thy judgments they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noise.

10 That thou O Lord art set on high,
in all the earth abroad :
And art exalted wondrously
above each other god.

11 All ye that fear the Lord, do this,
hate all things that are ill :
For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would them spil.

12 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part :
Great joy with gladness, mirth, and lust,
to them of upright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoice,
his holiness proclaim :
Be thankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindfull of the same.

P S A L M xcij. I. H.

O Sing ye now unto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song (world)
For he hath wrought throughout the his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worthily,
he doth his foes devour :
And get himself the victory,
with his own arm and power.

3 The Lord doth make his people know his saving health and might :
The Lord doth eke his justice show,
in all the heathens fight.

4 His grace and truth to Israel,
in mind he doth record :
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodness of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with joyfull voice,
all people of the earth :
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoice,
to him with joy and mirth.

6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him with Psalms :
Rejoice before the Lord our King,
with Trumpets and with Shalmis.

7 Yea let the sea with all therein
for joy both rear and swell :
The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.

8 And let the floods rejoice their fill,
and clap their hands apace :
And eke the mountains and the hills
before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to judge and try
the world and every wight :
And rule the people mighty
with justice and with right.

P S A L M xcix. I. H.

The Lord doth reign, although at it
the people rage full sore :
Yea he on Cherubims doth sit,
though all the world doth rear.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell,
is high and wondrous great :
Above all folk he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let

3 Let all men praise thy mighty Name,
for it is fearfull sure :
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.
4 The princely power of our King
doth love judgment and right :
Thou rightly rulest every thing
in Jacob through thy might.
5 To praise the Lord our God devise,
all honour to him doe :
Before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.
6 Moses, Aaron and Samuel,
as Priests on him did call :
When they did pray he heard them well
and gave them answier all.

7 Within the cloud to them he spake,
then did they labour still,
To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them untill.
8 O Lord our God thou didst them hear,
and answereid them again :
Thy mercy did on them appear,
their deeds didst not maintain.
9 O laud and praise our God and Lord
within his holy hill :
For why? our God throughout the world
is holy ever still.

P S A L M C. I-H.

1 All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with chearful voice :
2 Him serue with fear, his praise forth tell :
come ye before him and rejoice.
3 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did us make :
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.
4 O enter then his gates with praise,
approach with joy his courtes unto :
Praiē, laud, and bleſs his Name alwaies,
for it is seemly so to do.
5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure :
His truth at all times firmly stod,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same by I. H.

1 N God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth :
Serve him and come before his sight
with singing and with mirth.
2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keepe
Not we our selves, for we are his own flock and pasture sheep.
3 O go into his gates alwaies,
give thanks within the same :
Within his courts ser for th his praise,
and laud his holy Name.
4 For why? the goodness of the Lord,
for evermore doth reign :
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remain.

P S A L M c. N.

1 Mercy will and judgment sing,
O Lord God unto thee :
2 And wisely do in perfect way,
till thou come to me.
And in the midst of my house walk,
in purenes of my sp'rit :
3 And I no kind of wicked thing,
will set before my sight.
I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleave to me :
4 From me shall part the froward heart
none evil will I see.
5 Him will I stroy that flandered
his neighbour privily :
The losty heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh his.
6 Mine eyes shall be on them within the land that faithfull be :
In perfect way who walketh shall be servant unto me.
7 I will no guilfull person have within my house to dwell :
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.
8 Betimes I will destroy even all the wicked of the land :
That I may from Gods City cut,
the wicked workers hand.

P S A L M cij. N.

1 O Hear my prayer Lord, and let
my cry come unto thee :
2 In time of trouble do not bide
thy face away from me.
3 Incline thine ear to me, make haste
to hear me when I call :
For as the smocke doth fide, so do
my days consume and fall.
4 And as an hearth my bones are burns,
my heart is smitten dead :
And withers like the graſe, that I forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of my groaning voice,
my bones cleave to my skin :
6 As Pelican in wilderness,
such care now am I in.
7 And as an Owle in desert is,
lo I am such an one :
I watch, and as a Sparrow on
the house top am alone.
8 Lo daily in reproachfull wise,
mine enimies do me scorn :
And they that do against me rage,
against me they have sworn.
9 Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I have fill'd :
And mingled have my drinke with seas
that from mine eyes have fill'd.
10 Because of thy displeasure Lord,
thy wrath and thy disdain :
For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me down again.

11 The daies wherein I passe my life,
are like the fleeting thade:
And I am withered like the grafs,
which soon away doth fade.
12 But thou O Lord for ever doest
remain in steady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second Part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou
to Sion wilt extend:
The time of mercy, now the time
forefeit, is come to end.
14 For even in the stomes thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their sprite, 15 Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lord's most holy name:
And all the Kings on earth shall dread,
thy glory and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion rear:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear, 17 To prayer of the desolate,
when he himself doth bende,
When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to ascend.
18 This shall be written for the age,
that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncreated
the Lord's renown shall spread:
19 For he from his high Sanctuary
hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord
beheld the earth also.
20 That of the mourning captive he might hear the woful cry:
And that he might deliver those
that damned are to dy.
21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lord's most holy Name:
And in Jerusalēm set forth
the praises of the same.
22 Then when the people of the lands
and kingdoms with accord, Shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third Part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:
And shorrer he hath cut my daies;
thus I therefore did say:
24 My God in midit of all my daies
now take me not away:
Thy years endure eternally,
from age to age I say.
25 Thou the foundations of the earth
before all times hast laid:
And Lord the heavens are the work which thine own hand hast made

26 Yet they shall perish and decay;
but thou shalt carry itill:
And they shall all in time wax old,
even as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them chan<sup>g</sup>e and changed they shall be:
But thou doest itill abide the same,
thy years do never flee.
28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure:
And in thy sight their happy seed
for ever shall stand sure.

P S A L M Ciiij. T.S.

MY soul give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:
And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy Name.
2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts,
shew not thy self unkind:
And suffer not his benefits,
to slip out of thy mind.

3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd again,
For all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain.
4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercy and compassion both
he did extend to thee.
5 That fill'd with goodness thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the Eagle casts her bill,
whereby her age renew'th.
6 The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as be opprest:
So that their sufferings and their wrongs,
are turned to the best.

7 His ways and his commandements
to Moses he did shew:
His counsels and his valians acts
the Israelites did know, 8 The Lord is kind and merciful
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.

9 He chides us not continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.
10 Nor yet according to our sins
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth not us reward.

11 But as the space is wondrous great,
'twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodness much more large
to them that do him love.
12 God doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all:
As far as is the Sun-rising,
full distant from his fall.

The second Part.

33 And look what pity parents dear
unto their children bear:
Like pity beareth God to such as worship him in fear.

14 The Lord that made us, knows our our mold and falshion just: (inape,
How weak and frail our nature is,
and how we are but dust.

15 And how the time of mortal men
is like the withering hay:
Or like the flower right fair in field,
that fades full soon away.

16 Whose glost & beautey stormy winds
do utterly disgrace:
And make that after their assaults
such blossoms have no place.

17 But yet the goodness of the Lord
with his shall ever stand:
Their childrens children shall receive his righteounes at hand.

18 I mean, which keep his covenant
with all their whole desire:
And not forget to do the thing
that he doth them require.

19 The heavens high are made the seat
and foot-stool of the Lord:
And by his power imperall
he governs all the world.

20 Ye Angels which are great in power,
praise ye and bleſſ the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will,
immediately accord.

21 Ye noble host and ministers,
ceſe not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.

22 Yea all his works in every place
praise ye his holy Name:
My heart, my mind, and eke my soul
praise ye also the same.

PSALM CIV. W. K.

MY soul praise the Lord,
speak good of his Name:
O Lord our great God,
how doſt thou appear?
So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame?
Honour and Majestye
in thee ſhine most clear.

2 With light as a robe
thou haſt thee beclad:
Wherby all the earth
thy greatness may ſee
The heaven in ſuch ſort
thou alſo haſt spread.
That it to a curtain
compared may be.

3 His chamber-beams lie
in the clouds full ſure
Which as his chariot
are made him to bear,

And there with muchiſtneſſ,
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of winds in the air.

4 He maketh his ſpirits
as Heraldz to go:
And lightnings to ſerve,
we ſee also preſt:
His will to accomplish,
they run to and fro,
To ſave or conuince things,
as ſeemeth him beſt.

5 He groundeth the earth
ſo firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have ſuch power:

6 The deep a fair covering for it made thou haſt:
Which by his own nature
the hills would devour.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do ſie:
And ſo give due place
thy word to obey:
At thy voice of thunder
ſo fearfull they be:
That in their great raging,
they haſte ſoon away,

8 The mountains full high
they then up ascend:
If thou doſt but ſpeak,
thy word they fulfill:
So likewiſe the valies
moſt quickly descend,
Where thou them appointeſt remain they do ſtill.

9 Their bounds thou haſt ſet,
how far they ſhall run:
So that in their rage
not that paſt they can:
For God hath appointed
they ſhall not return
The earth to deſtroy more,
which made was for man.

The second Part.

10 He ſendeth the ſprings
to ſtrong ſreams or lakes,
Which run do full ſwift
among the huge hills.

11 Where both the wild aſies
their thirſt oft times ſlakes,
And beaſtſ of the mountains
thereof drink their fill.

12 By theſe pleasant ſprings
of fountainz full fair,
The fowlz of the Aye
abide, haſt and dwell:
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches
their ſongs haſt excel.

13 The mountains to moſt

the clouds he doth use :
 The earth with his works
 is wholly replete.
 14 So as the ~~br~~ carrell
 he doth not refuse :
 But grass doth provide them,
 and herb for mans meat.
 15 Yea bread, wine and oyle
 he made for mans sake :
 His face to refresh,
 and heart to make strong.
 16 The Cedars of Liban
 this great Lord did make :
 Which trees he doth nourish
 that grow up so long.
 17 In these may birds build,
 and make there their nests :
 In firre-trees the Storks remain and abide.
 18 The high hills are succours
 for wild goats to rest :
 And eke the rocks stony for Conies to hide.
 19 The Moon then is set
 her leason to run :
 The daies from the nights
 thereby to discern :
 And by the descending
 alio of the Sun,
 The cold from heat alway
 thereby we do learn.
 20 When darkness doth come
 by Gods will and power :
 Then creep forth do all
 the beasts of the wood.
 21 The Lions range roaring,
 their prey to devour :
 But yet it is thou Lord
 which givest them food.
 22 As soon as the Sun
 is up, they retire :
 To couch in their dens
 then are they full fain:
 23 That man to his work may
 as right doth require :
 Till night come and call him,
 to take rest again.

The third Part.

24 How sundry O Lord,
 are all thy works found ?
 With wisdom full great
 they are indeed wrought :
 So that the whole world
 of thy praise doth sound :
 And as for thy riches,
 they pass all mens thoughts.
 25 So is the great sea,
 which large is and broad :
 Where things that creep swarm,
 and beasts of each sort.
 26 There both mighty ships fall
 and some lie at road ;

Psalm Cv.

The whale huge and monstrous
 there also dwelt sport.
 27 All things on thee wait,
 thou dost them relieve :
 And thou in due time
 full well dost them feed.
 28 Now when it doth please thee
 the same for to give ;
 They gather full gladly
 those things which they need.
 Thou openest thy hand,
 and they find such grace,
 That they with good things
 are filled we see.
 29 But sore are they troubled,
 if thou turn thy face,
 For if thou their breath raks,
 vile dust then they be.
 30 Again when thy Spirit
 from thee doth proceed
 All things to appoint,
 and what shall ensue :
 Then are they created,
 as thou hast decreed :
 And dost by thy goodness
 the drie earth renew.
 31 The praise of the Lord
 for ever shall last :
 Who may in his works
 by right well rejoice.
 32 His looks can the earth make to tremble full fast :
 And likewise the mountains
 to smock at his voice.
 33 To this Lord and God, sing will I always :
 So long as I live,
 my God praise will I :
 34 Then am I most certain
 my words shall him please :
 I will rejoice in him,
 to him will I cry.
 35 The sinners, O Lord,
 consume in thine ire :
 And eke the perverse,
 them root out with shame :
 But as for my soul now,
 let it still desire,
 And say with the faithful,
 praise ye the Lords Name.

PSALM CV. N.

Give praises unto God the Lord,
 and call upon his Name :
 Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame,
 2 Sing ye unto the Lord I say,
 and sing unto his praise :
 And talk of all his wondrous works
 that he hath wrought alwaies.
 3 In honour of his holy Name
 rejoice with one accord :
 And let the heart also rejoice.

6 Of them that seek the Lord.
 4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternal might :
 And seek his face continually,
 and presence of his sight.

5 The wondrous works that he hath done
 keep still in mindfull heart :
 Ne let the judgments of his mouth
 out of your mind depart.
 6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
 his servant are the seed :
 Yehis elect the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he only is I say,
 the mighty Lord our God :
 And his most rightfull judgments are through all the earth abroad.
 8 His promise and his covenant
 which he hath made to his,
 He hath remembred evermore,
 to thousands of degrees.

The second Part.

9 The covenant which he hath made with Abraham long ago :
 And faithfull oath which he hath sivorn
 to Ifaac also.
 10 And did confirm the same for law,
 that Jacob should obey :
 And for eternal covenant
 to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give :
 The lot of your inheritance,
 wherein your seed shall live.
 12 Although the number at that time
 did very small appear :
 Yea very small, and in the land
 they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walk'd from land to without a sure abode : (land
 And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.
 24 And wrong at no oppredors hand
 he suffered them to take :
 But even the great and mighty Kings
 reproved for their sake.

15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be :
 Ne do the Prophets any harm
 that do pertain to me.
 16 He cal'd a dearth upon the lands
 of bread he stroid the store :
 But he against the time of need
 had sent a man before.

The third Part.

17 Even Joseph which had once been sold to live a slave in wo :
 Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose soul
 the irons peirc'd also.
 28 Until the time came when his cause
 was known apparently :
 The mighty word of God the Lord
 his faultless crush did try.

19 The King sent and delivered him
 from prison where he was :
 20 The ruler of the people then did freely let him passe.
 21 And over all his house he made him Lord to bear the sway :
 And of his substance made him have the rule and all the itay.

22 That he might to his will instruct the Princes of the land :
 And wisdoms bore his ancient men
 might cause to understand.
 23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also :
 And Jacob in the land of Ham
 did live a stranger sho.
 24 His people he exceedingly
 in number made to flow,
 And over all their enemies
 in strength he made them grow.
 25 Whose heart he turn'd that they with his people did intreat : (hate
 And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth Part.

26 His faithfull servant Moses then,
 and Aaron whom he chose,
 He did command to go to them,
 his messege to disclose.
 27 The wondrous messege of his signs
 among them he did shew :
 And wonders in the land of Ham
 then did they work also.
 28 Darknes he sent, and made it dark
 instead of brighter day :
 And unco his commission,
 they did not disobey.
 29 He turn'd their waters into blood,
 he did their fishes slay : (place 30 Their land brought frogs even in the where their King Pharaoh lay.
 31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisome flies,
 And all the quarters of the land
 were fill'd with crawling lice.
 32 He gave them cold and stony hail
 in stead of milder rain :
 And fiery flames within their land
 he sent unto their pain.

33 He smote their vines and all their trees
 whereon their figs did grow :
 And all their trees within their coasts down did he overthrow.
 34 He spake, then Caterpillars did
 and Grasshoppers abound :
 35 Which are the grafts in all their land
 and fruit of all their ground.

The fift Part.

36 The first begotten in their land
 eke deadly he did smite :
 Yea the beginning and first fruit
 of all their force and might :
 37 With gold & silver he them brought from Egypt land to pass.

And

37 And in the number of their Tribes
no feeble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then when they did the nece depeast ;
For terror and the fear of them
was fain upon their heart.

39 To shroud them from the parching heat
a cloud he did display:
And fire he sent to give them light,
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked, and he caused Quailes
to rain at their request :

And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he represt :
41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters quenched our :
And in the dry and parched ground
like rivers ran about.

42 For of his holy covenant
aye mundfull was he tho :
Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long ago. (mirth,

43 He brought his people forth with
and his elect with joy,
Out of the cruel land, where they had liv'd in great annoy.

44 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitfull lands :
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.
45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore.
And faithfully obey his laws :
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM Cvi. N.

Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for aye :
2 Who can exprest his noble acts,
or all his praise display ?
3 They blessed are that judgment keep,
and justly do alway :
With favour of thy people (Lord).
remember me I pray.

4 And with thy saving health (O Lord)
vouchsafe to visit me :
That I the great felicity
of thine elect may see,
5 And with thy peoples joy I may
a joyfull mind possest :
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart exprest.

6 Both we, and eke our fathers all,
have finned every one :
We have committed wickednesse,
and lewdly we have done.

7 The wonders great which thou (O Lord)
hast done in Egypt land :
Our fathers though they saw them all yer did not understand.

Nor yet thy mercies multitude
did keep in thankful mind ;
But at the sea, yea the red sea,
rebuked most unkind.

8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his Name :
That he might make his power known
and spread abroad his fame.

9 The red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dry'd :
And as in wildernes, so through the deep he did them guide.

10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand
of their despitful foe :
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second Part.

11 The waters their oppreſſours whelm'd :
nor one was left alive :

12 Then they believ'd his word, & praise
in song they did him give.

13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgar :
And for his counsel and his will
they did neglect to wait.

14 But lutted in the wildernes,
with fond and greedy lust :
And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.

15 And then their wanton mindes desire,
he suffered them to have :
But waiting leannetie therewithall unto their souls he gave.

16 Then when they lod ged in their tents
at Moles they did gruch :
Aaron the holy of the Lord
lo did they envy much.

17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour :
And all Abiram's company
did cover in that hour.

18 In their assemby kindled was,
the hot consuming fire :
And waiting flame did then burn up
the wicked in his ire.

19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol-calf did frame :
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.

20 Into the likenesse of a Calf,
which feedeth on the grasse,
Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.

21 And God their only Saviour
unkindly they forgot :
Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third Par.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done
And by the red sea dreadfull things performed long agoe.

23 Therefore for their so thowing them
forgetfull and unkind :

24 To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his mind.

Had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the break
To turn his wrath, left he on them
with slaughter should him break.
24 They did despise the pleasant land,
that he behight to give Yea and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit believe.
25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd :
Nor so the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning mind.
26 Therefore against them lifted he his strong revenging hand :
Them to destroy in wilderness,
ere they should see the land.
27 And to destroy their seed among the nations with his rod :
And through the countries of the world
to scatter them abroad.
28 To Baal-Peor then they did adjoin themselves also :
And are the offerings of the dead,
so they forsook him tho.
29 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke :
And in his sore unkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.
30 But Phineas stood up with zeal,
the fainers vile to slay :
And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth Part.

31 It was impured unto him
for righteousness that day :
And from thenceforth so counted is,
from race to race, I say.
32 At waters eke of Meribah
they did him angry make :
Yea, so far forth, that Moses was then punish'd for their sake.
33 Because they vex'd his spirit so sore,
that in impatient heat
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his fervour was so great.
34 Nor as the Lord commanded them
they slew the people tho.
35 But were among the heathen mix'd,
and learn'd their works also.
36 And did their idols serve, which were
their ruine and decay :
37 To fiends their sons and daughters they did offer up and slay :
38 Yea with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltless blood they spilt :
Yea their own sons and daughters blood,
without all cause of guilt.
Whom they to Canaan idols then
offred with wicked hand :
And so with blood of innocents
defiled was the land.
39 Thus were they taintred with the works
of their own highway ;

And with their own inventions
a whoring they did tray :
40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled sore :
And even his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.
41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey :
And made their foes their Lords, whom were forced to obey. (they

The fifth Part.

42 Yea and their hateful enemies,
opprest them in the land :
And they were humbly made to stoop
as subject to their hand.
43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he delivered them before :
But with their counsels they to wrath
provok'd him evermore.
Therefore they by their wickedness
were brought full low to lie : 44 Yet when he saw them in distress,
he hearkned to their cry.
45 He call'd to minde his covenant,
which he to them had swore :
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.
46 And favour he them made to find
before the fight of those That led them captive from their land
when erst they were their foes.
47 Save us O Lord that art our God,
save us (O Lord) we pray :
And from among the heathen folk
Lord gather us away.
48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy Name :
That we may glory in thy praise,
and sounding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore :
Let all the people say, Amen.
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM Cviij. W. K.

GIVE thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he :
And that his mercy hath no end,
all mortal men may see.
2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
with thanks shall praise his Name :
And shew how they from foes were freed
and how he wrought the same.
3 He gathered them forth of the lands
that lay so far about :
From East to West, from North to South,
his hand did finde them out.
4 They wandered in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way.
And found no city where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.
5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void.

That faintness did them sore assault,
and eke their souls anoid.
6 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praid.
7 And by that way which was most right,
he led them like a guide :
That they might to a City go,
and there also abide.
8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his goodness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
9 For he the empty soul sustain'd whom thirst had made to faint :
The hungry soul with goodnes fed,
and did them eke acquaint.
10 Such as do dwell in darknes deep,
where they on death do wait,
Fast bound to taste such troublous storms
as ironchians do threat.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lords own words
they sought so to rebel :
Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so far excell.
12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief :
And none was found so much to help,
whereby to get relief.
13 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praid.
14 For he from darknes out them brought
and from death's dreadful shade :
Bursting with force the iron bands
which them before did lade :
15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth,
before the sons of men.
16 For he threw down the gates of brass
and brake them with strong hand :
The iron bars he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.
17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel
and cannot from them wend :
But heap on more to those they have,
because they do offend.
18 Their souls so much did loath al meat
that none they could abide :
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tri'd.
19 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praid.
20 For then he sent to them his words
which health did soon restore :
And brought them from those dangers wherein they were before. (decey)

The third Part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
22 And let them offer sacrifice
with thanks and also fear :
And speak of all his wondrous works
with glad and joyfull cheer.
23 Such as in ships and brittle barks
into the seas descend :
Their merchandise through fearful floods
to compass and to end.
24 Those men are forced to behold
the Lords works what they be :
And in the dangerous deep the same,
most marvellous they see.
25 For at his word the stormy wind
ariseth in a rage :
And firreth up the surges so,
that nought can them asswage.
26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain :
And plunging down the depth untill
their souls consume with pain.
27 And like a drunkard so and fro,
now here, now there they reel :
As men with fear of wic bereft,
or had of sense no feel.
28 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praid.
29 For with his word the Lord doth make the sturdy storms to cease :
So that the great waves from their rage
are brought to rest and peace.
30 Then are men g'ad when rest is come
which they so much did crave :
And are by him in haven brought,
which they so fain would have.

The fourth Part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
32 Let them in presence of the folk with praise exroll his Name :
And where the Elders do convent,
there let them do the same.
33 For running floods to drie deserts
he doth oft change and turn :
And drieth up as it were dust
the springing well and bourn.
34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deck'd
full barren he doth make,
When on their fins that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.
35 Again the wilderness full rude
he nuketh fruit to bear :
With pleasant springs of waters clear,
though none before were there.

Then they a City might them build,

7 That they may sow their pleasant land
and vineyards also plant,
To yeld them fruit of such increase,
as none may seem to want.

And minish do through many plagues

10 Then doth he Princes bring to shame
which did them sore oppres :
And likewise caused them to erre
within the wilderness.

11 But yet the poor he raiseth up out of their troubles deep :
And oft times doth his train augment
much like a flock of sheep.

12 The righteous shall behold this fight,
and also much rejoice :
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voice.

13 But who is wise, that now full well

For certainly such shall perceive the kindness of the Lord.

P S A L M c viii. I. H.

1 O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so :
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving thanks also :

2 Awake my violl and my harp,
sweet melody to make :
And in the morning I my self
right early will awake.

3 By me among the people Lord,
still praised shalt thou be :
And I among the heathen folk
will sing O Lord, to thee.

4 Because thy mercy Lord is great,
above the heavens hie :
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the losy shie.

5 Above the starry heavens high exalt thy self O God :
And Lord display upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.

6 That thy dearly beloved may be set at liberty :
Help O my God with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.

7 God in his holines hath spoke,
wherefore my joys abound :
Sichem I will divide, and mere
the vale of Succoth ground.

8 And Gilead shall be mine own, Manasses mine shall be :

My head-strength Ephraim and law
shall Juda give for me.

9 Mosh my wash-pot, and my shoe
on Edom will I throw :
Up on the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.

10 Who shall into the City strong
be guide to conduct me ?
Or how by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be ?

11 Is it not thou O Lord which late hadit us forsaken quite ?
And shou O Lord which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight.

12 Give us O Lord thy living aid,
when troubles do assail :
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.

13 Through God we shall do valiant acts
and worthy of renoun :
He shall suldue our enemies,
yea he shall tread them down.

P S A L M c ix. N.

1 N speechless silence do not hold O God thy tongue always :
O God even thou I say that art
the God of all my praise.

2 The wicked and the gu lfull mouth
on me disclosed be :
And they with false and lying tongues
have spoken unto me.

3 They did beset me round about with words of hatefull spight :
Without all cause of my desir
against me they did fight.

4 For my good will they are my foes,
but then gan I to pray :

5 My good with ill, my friendliness,
with hate they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand :
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hatefull foe to stand.

7 When he is judged let him then condemned be therein :
And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into sin.

8 Few be his days, his charge also let thou another take :

9 His children let be fatherless,
his wife a widow make.

10 Let his off-spring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread :
Wondring out of the wasted place
where erit they have been fed.

11 Let covereous extortions
catch all his goods and store :
And let the strangers spoil the fruit
of all his toyl before.

12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all :

Ther

That on his children fatherless
will let their mercy fail.

The second Part.

13 And so let his posterity
for ever be detroyed :
Their name out-blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.
14 Let not his fathers wickedness
from Gods remembrance fall :
And let not thou his mothers sin
be done away at all.
15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for aye :
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away.
16 Sigh mercy he forgor to shew,
but did pursue with spight
The troubled man, and sought to slay
the wofull-hearted wight.
17 As he did cursing love, it shall beride unto him so :
And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be far him stro.
18 As he with cursing clad himself,
so it like water shall Ente his bowels, and like oyly
into his bones befall.
19 As garment let it be to him
to cover him for aye :
And as a girdle wherewith he may girded be alway.
20 Lo let the same be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe :
Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.

21 But thou O Lord, which art my God,
deal thou (I say) with me
After thy Name, deliver me,
for great thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor :
And eke within my pained breft
my heart is wounded fore.

The third Part.

23 Even so do I depart away,
as doth declining shade :
And as the Grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fad.
24 With fasting long from needfull food
enfeebled are my knees :
And all her fernes hath my flesh
enforced been to leese.
25 And I also a vile reproach,
to them am made to be :
And they that did upon me look,
did shake their heads at me.
26 But thou O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be :
According to thy mercy Lord
save and deliver me.
27 And they shall know thereby, that this (Lord) is my mighty hand :.

And that thou, thou hast done it Lord,
so shall they understand.
28 Although they curse & spye, yet thou shalt blese with loving voice :
They shall arise and come to shame,
thy servant shall rejoice,

29 Let them be clothed all with shame
that enemies are to me :
And with confusio as a cloke
eke covered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord :
And I among the multitude
his praises will record.
31 For he with help at his right hand will stand the poor man by :
To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

P S A L M Cx. N.
THe Lord did say unto my Lord,
fit thou at my right hand :
Till I have made thy foes a stool
whereon thy feet shall stand.
2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the Scepter of thy might :
Amid thy mortal foes be thou
the ruler in their fight.

3 And in the day on which thy raign
and power they shall see :
Then hereby free-will-offerings shall
the people offer thee,
Yea with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all :
Thy births-dew is the dew that doth
from womb of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath I worn, and never will repent what he doth say :
By th order of Melchizedek,
thou art a Priest for aye.
5 The Lord thy God on thy right hand
that standeth for thy stay :
Shall wound for thee the stately Kings
upon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he shall judge, and fill
the place with bodies dead :
And over divers countries shall
in funder smite the head.
7 And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way :
Wherefore he shall lift up on high
his roiall head that day.

In prefence of the iust.

And blest such as from him proceed,

His righteousness endure shall still,
4 Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darknes light :
Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy always in his sight :
5 Yea pity moveth such to tend
He doth by judgment things expend.

6 And surely such shall never fail :
For in remembrance had is he :

Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.
8 His heart is firm, his fear is past,
For he'll all see his foes down cast,

P S A L M Cxiv. W.W.

W Hen Israel by Gods address,
From Pharaohs land was bent
And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same train went.
2 In Juda God his glory shewd,
his holines most bright :
So did the Israelites declare his kingdom, power, and might.

3 The sea it saw, and suddenly
as all amaz'd did flee :
The roaring treams of Jordans flood
recoiled backwardly.
4 As Rams afraid the mountains skip,
their strength did them forsake :
And as the felly trembling Lambs
their tops did beat and shake.

5 What aild the sea as all amaz'd,
so suddenly to flee ?
Ye rolling waves of Jordans flood,
why ran ye backwardly ?
6 Why leook ye hills as Rams afraid,
why did your strength so shake ?
Why did your tops as trembling Lambs
for fear quiver and quake ?

7 O earth confess thy Sovereign Lord,
and dread his mighty hand :
Before the face of Jacobs God,
feare ye, both sea and land.
8 I mean the God which from hard rocks
doth cause main floods appear :
And from the stony flint doth cause,
gulh out the fountains clear.

P S A L M Cxv. N.

N Or unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy Name give praise :
Both for thy mercy and thy truth,
that are in thee always.

2 Why shall the heathen leorners say where is their God become ?

3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.

4 Their idols silver are, and gold,
works of mens hands they be :

5 They have a mouth, and do not speak,
and eyes, and do not see.

6 And they have ears joynd to their heads,
and do not hear at all :

And noses eke they formed have,
and do not smell withall,

7 And

7 And hands they have, and handle not ;
and feet, and do not go :
8 A throat they have, yet through the same
they make no sound to blow.
9 Those that make them are like to them and those whose trust they be :
10 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he.
11 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he :
12 Trust ye the Lord that fear the Lord,
their help and shield is he.
13 The Lord hath mindfull been of us,
and will us bleſs alio :
14 On Israel and on Aarons house,
his bleſſings he will shew.
15 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will bleſs them all :
Even he will bleſs them every one,
the great and eke the small.
16 To you (I say) the loving Lord
will multiply his grace :
To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.
17 Ye are the bleſſed of the Lord,
even of the Lord, I say :
Which both the heaven and the earth,
hath made, and set in stay.
18 The heavens, yea the heavens high,
belong unto the Lord :
The earth unto the sons of men,
he gave of free accord :
19 They that be dead do not with praise
set forth the Lords renown :
Nor any that into the place,
of silence do go down.
20 But we will praise the Lord our God
from henceforth and for aye :
Sound ye the praises of the Lord,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

endureth still for aye.
5 In trouble and in heaviness
unto the Lord I cri'd:
Which, lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not deny'd.

6 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt:
Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.
7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me:
Therefore I shall see my devise upon mine enemy.

8 Better it is to trust in God,
than in man's mortal seed:
9 Or to put confidence in Kings,
or Princes in our need.
10 All nations have inclosed me,
and compassed me round:
But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on every side:
they kept me in I say:
But in the Lord's most mighty Name
I shall work their decay.
12 They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lord's Name,
I quench their thorns that were on fire
and will destroy the same.

The second Part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at me
that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found such help,
that they were vanquish'd all.
14 The Lord is my defence and strength,
my joy, my mirth, my song:
He is become for me indeed,
a Saviour most strong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to pass great things:
He causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.
16 The right hand of the Lord doth most mighty things to praise: (bring His hand hath the preheminence,
his force is as it was.

17 I shall not die but ever live
to utter and declare
The Lord his might & wondrous power,
his works, and what they are.
18 The Lord himself hath chastened,
and hath corrected me:
But hath not given me over yet
to death, as ye may see.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
That I may enter into them,
the Lord's praise to exp're.
20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which shall not so be that:
But good and righteous men alway
shall enter into it.

The third Part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me,
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.
22 The stone which ere this time among
the builders was refused:
Is now become the corner-stone,
and cheifly to be used.
23 This was the mighty work of God,
this was the Lord's own fact:
And it is marvellous to behold
with eyes that noble art.
24 This is the joyful day indeed
which God himself hath wrought,
Let us be glad and joy therein,
in heart, in minde, and thought.
25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us,
we with with one accord:
26 Blessed is he that comes to us
in the name of the Lord.
27 God is the Lord that shews us light,
bind ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the altar:
and give thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God I will confess,
and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise
thy mercy towards me.
29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards me.

P S A L M C x i x . W . W .

A L E P H :

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in minde and heart:
Whole lives and conversations
from Gods lawes never start.
2 Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe:
Seeking the Lord with all their heares,
and never from him swerve.

3 Doublefle such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thing:
Which stedfastly walk in his way
without any wandring.
4 It is thy will and commandment
that with attentive heed Thy noble and divine precepts
we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might thee please
my wayes so to addreſſe:
That I might both in heart and voice,
thy laws keep and confess.
6 So should no shame my life attaint,
whilst I thus ſet mine eyes,
And bend my minde alwayes to muse
on thy ſacred decrees.

7 Then will I praise with upright heart
and magnifie thy Name,
When I ſhall learn thy judgements just,
and likewife prove the fame.

3 And wholly will I give my self
to keep thy lawes most right.
Forsake me not for ever Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.

B E T H. The second Part.

9 By what means may a young man best
his life learn to amend?

If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.

10 Unsignedly I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:

O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.

11 Within my heart and secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.

12 We magnifie thy Name O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord teach me therefore.

13 My lips have never ceas'd to preach,
and publish day and night,
The judgments all, which did proceed
from thy mouth full of might.

14 Thy testimonies and thy waies,
please me no lesse indeed,
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their meed.

15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and thereto frame my talk:
As at a mark so will I aim,
thy waies how I may walk.

16 My only joy shall be so fix'd,
and on thy lawes so set:
That nothing can me so far blind,
that I thy words forget.

G I M E L. The third Part.

27 Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy Word then will I keep,
both in my heart and tongue.

18 Mine eyes which were dim and shut up
so open and make bright,
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear sight.

19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandring now here, now there:
Thy word therefore to me disclose,
my foot-steps for to clear.

20 My soul is ravish'd with desire,
and never is at rest:
But seeks to know thy judgments high,
and what may please thee best.

21 The proud men, and malicious,
thou hast detroy'd each one:
And cursed are such as do not thy hefts attend upon.

22 Lord turn from me rebuke and shame,
which wicked men c'nspire:
For I have kept thy covenants
with zeal as hot as fire.

23 The Princes great in counseil sate,
and did against me speak:
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.

26 For why? thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great solace:
They serve instead of counsellors,
my masters for to pas.

D A L E T H. The fourth Part.

25 I am alas as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust:
Restore therefore my life again,
as thy promise is just.

26 My waies when I acknowledged,
with mercy thou didst hear:
Hear now eft-noon, and me instruct thy lawes to love and fear.

27 Teach me once throughly for to know
thy precepts and thy lore:
Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in store.

28 My soul I feel so sore opprest,
that it melteth for grief:
According to thy word therefore,
hast Lord to send relief.

29 From lying and deceitful lips
let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me send.

30 The way of truth both straight & sure
I have chosen and found.
I set thy judgments me before,
which keep me safe and sound.

31 Since then (O Lord) I for'd my self thy covenants to embrace:
Let me therefore have no rebuke,
nor check in any case.

32 Then will I run with joyfull cheer
where thy word doth me call,
When thou hast set my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

H E The fifth Part.

33 Instruct me Lord in the right trade of thy statutes divine:
And it to keep even to the end,
my heart will I incline.

34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law
and I shall it obey:
With heart, and mind, and all my
I will it keep I say. (mighty)

35 In the right paths of thy precepts guide me Lord I require:
None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.

36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenants to embrace:
And from all filthy avarice,
Lord shield me with thy grace.

37 From vain des'res and worldly lusts
turn back mine eyes and sight:
Give me the spirit of life and power,
to walk thy ways aright.

38 Confirm thy gracious promise Lord, which

which thou hast made to me,
Which am thy servant, and do love
and fear nothing but thee.
39 Reproach and shame which I so fear
from me O Lord expell :
For thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost excell.
40 Behold my hearts desire is bent
thy lawes to keep for aye :
Lord strengthen me so with thy grace
that it perform I may.

V A U      The sixt Part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold let me obtain O Lord :
Thy saving health let me enjoy
according to thy word.
42 So shall I stop the standrous mouths
of lewd men and unjust :
For in thy faithfull promises
stands my comfort and trut.
43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be preit :
For in thy judgments wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest.
44 And whilst sharbreath within my brest
doth natural life preserve :
Yea till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.

45 So walk will I, as set at large,
and made free from all dread :
Because I sought how for to keep
thy precepts and thy read.
46 Thy noble acts I will describe as things of most great fame :
Even before Kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whir fer shame.

47 I will rejoice then to obey
thy worthy hefts and will :
Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still :
48 My hands I will lift to thy lawes,
which I have dearly fought :
And practise thy commandements
in will, in deed, in thought.

Z A I N.      The seventh Part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad' it to me
thy servant, Lord remember.
For therein do I put my trust,
and confidence for ever.
50 It is my comfort and my joy,
when troubles me affil :
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.

51 The proud and such as God contemn,
still made of me a scorn :
Yet would I not thy law forfake,
as he that were forlorn :
52 But cal'd to mind, Lord, thy great work
threw'd to our fathers old :
Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grief an hundred fold.
53 But yet alas for fear I quake,

seeing how wicked men Thy law forsook, and did procure thy judgments upon them.
54 And as for me, I fram'd my songs
thy statutes to exalt :
When I among the strangers dwelt,
and thoughts gan me assault.
55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord,
by night, when others sleep :
As for thy law, also I kept,
and ever will it keep.
56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and dear
I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with fear.

H E T H.      The eighth Part.

57 O God which art my part and log,
my comfort and my stay :
I have decreed and promised,
thy law to keep alway, 58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue
in presence of thy face :
As thou therefore haft promised
Lord, grant me of thy grace.
59 My life I have examined,
and try'd my secret heart,
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet strait to convert.
60 I did not stay nor linger long,
as they that slothfull are :
But hattily thy lawes to keep,
I did my self prepare.
61 The cruel bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey :
Yet would I not thy law forger,
nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous judgments towards me
so great are and so hie :
That even at midnight will I rise,
thy Name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them
which fear thee in their heart :
And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandments start.

64 Thy mercies Lord most plenteously
do all the world fullil :
O teach me how I may obey,
thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H.      The ninth Part.

65 According to thy promise Lord,
so haft thou with me dealt :
For of thy grace in sundry sorts
have I thy servant felt.
66 Teach me to judge alwaies aright,
and give me knowledge sure :
For certainly believe I do that thy precepts are pure.
67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod
I err'd and went astray :
But now I keep thy holy Word,
and make it all my stay.
68 Thou art both good and gracious,

and

and giv' st most liberally.
Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore O Lord teach me.
69 The proud & wicked men have forg'd
against me many a lie:
Yet thy commandments still observe
with all my heart will I.
70 Their hearts are swoln with worldly as greese so are they far. (wealth)
But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seek but that.

71 O happy time may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:
For as a guide to learn thy laws
thy rod did me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearer manifold:
Then thousands great of silver and gold,
or ought that can be told.

I O D. The tenth Part.

73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord,
to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge likewise how to learn
to put thy lawes in ure.
74 So they that fear thee shall rejoice,
when ever they me see:
Because I have learn'd by thy Word,
to put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is
I know the cause is just: (plagu'd)
So when thou doft correct me Lord,
the cause just needs be must.
76 Now of thy goodneſſe I thee pray,
ſome comfort to me ſend:
As thou to me haſt promised,
ſo from all ill me ſhend.

77 Thy tender mercies pour on me,
and I ſhall ſurely live:
For joy and conſolation both
thy law to me doth give. (renece) 78 Confound the proud whose falſe preiſe me for to deſtroy:
But as for me thy heſts to know
I will my ſelf employ.

Whoſo with reverence do thee fear,
to me let them retire:
And ſuch as do thy covenants know,
and them alone deſire.
80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy lawes be bent:
That no conuincion come to me,
whereby I ſhould be ſhent.

C A P H. The eleventh Part.

81 My foul doth faint and ceaſeth not,
thy faying health to crave:
And for thy words ſake ſtil I truſt,
my hearts deſire to have.
82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I ſay:
O when wilt thou me conforſt, Lord,
why doſt thou thus delay?
83 As a ſkin-bottle in the smoke

ſo am I parch and driſt,
Yet will I not oſt of my heart
let thy commandments ſlide.
84 Alas how long ſhall I yet live,
before I ſee the hour,
That on my face which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt pour?
85 Presumptuous men have digged pits
thinking to make me ſure.
Thus contrary againſt thy law
my hurt they do procure.
86 But thy commandments are all true
and cauſtlie they me grieve:
To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou mighte me relieve.
87 Almost they had me clean deftroid,
and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy ſtatutes I abode,
and therein ſuccour found.
88 Reforſe me Lord again to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And ſo shall I thy covenants keep,
till death my life expell.

L A M E D. The twelfth Part.

89 In heaven Lord where thou doſt dwel
thy word is ſtabliſh ſure:
And ſhall for all eternity
faſt graven there endure.
90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witneſſe:
Whofe ground-work thou haſt laid ſo ſure
as no tongue can exprefſe.
91 Even to this day we may well ſee
how all things perverſe
According to thine Ordinance,
for all things thee do fear.
92 Had it not been that in thy law
my ſoul had conforſt ſought:
Long time ere now in my diſtreſſe
I had been brought to noughe.
93 Therefore I will thy precepts aye
in memory keep faſt:
By them thou haſt my life restor'd
when I was at laſt caſt.
94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:
Save me therefore, for to thy lawes
mine ears and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do ſeek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait,
But I the while conſidered
thy noble works and great.
96 I ſee nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath no end:
But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all bounds extend.

M E M. The thirteenth Part.

97 What great deſire and fervent love,
do I bear to thy law?
All the day long I meditate
on it with reverent awe.
98 Thy word hath taught me far to paſſe

my foes in policie :
For still I hold it as a thing
of most excellencie.
99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excel :
Because I do thy covenants keep,
and them to others tell.
100 In wisdom I do pass also the ancient men indeed :
And all because to keep thy laws,
I held it aye best read.

101 My feet I have refrained eke
from every evil way :
Because that I concinnually
thy word might keep, I say. (ments, 102 I have not swerv'd from thy judgement yet shrink any dell :
For why? thou hast me taught thereby,
to live godly and well.

103 O Lord how sweet unto my taste
find I thy words alway :
Doubletsis no hony in my mouth
feel ought so sweet I may.
104 Thy laws have me such wisdom that utterly I hate : (learnd
All wicked and ungodly wayes,
in every kind or rate.

N B N. The fourteenth part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy Word shane bright:
And to my paths where ever I go,
it is a flaming light.
106 I have both sworm and will perform
my promises doublets,
That I will keep thy judgements just,
and them in life exprest.
107 Affliction hath me sore opprest,
and brought me to deaths door :
O Lord, as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.
108 The offrings which with heart and most frankly I thee give, (voice accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My soul is aye so in my hand,
that dangers me assail :
Let do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fail.
110 Although the wicked laid their nets,
to catch me at a bay :
Let did I not from thy precepts
once swerve or go astray.
111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway,
as mine own heritage :
And why? for therein I delight,
and set my who'e courage.
112 For evermore I have been bent
thy statutes to fulfil :
Even so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

A M E C H. The fifteenth part.
The crafty thoughts & double hearts

I do alwaies dereft :
But as for thy law and precepts,
I love them ever best.
114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield of strong defence :
Therefore have I thy promises
look'd for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
depart from me anon :
For the Commandments will I keep
of God my Lord a lone.
116 As thou hast promis'd, so perform,
that death me not assaile :
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quale.

117 Uphold me and I shall be safe,
for eught they do or say :
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.
118 Thou hast tried such under thy feet,
as do thy statutes break :
For nought availes their subtilty,
their councel is but weak.

119 Like dros thou cast'ft the wicked out
where ere they go or dwel :
Therefore can I as thy statutes
love nothing half so well.
120 My flesh alas is taken with fear,
as though it were bewaund' :
For when I see thy judgements straignt
I am as one alton'd.

A M N. The sixteenth part.

121 I do the thing that lawful is,
and give to all men right :
Resign me not to them that would,
opprese me with their might.
122 But for thy servant surely be,
in that thing that is good :
That proud men give me not the foile,
which rage as they were wood.
123 Mine eys with waiting are now blind
thy health so much I crave :
And eke thy righteous promise Lord,
wherby thou wilt me save.
124 Intreat thy servant lowly,
and favour to him shew :
Thy statutes of most excellency,
teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servant (Lord) I am,
grant me to understand,
How by thy statutes I may know
helt what to take in hand.
126 It is now time (Lord) to begin,
for truth is quite deuid :
Thy law likewise they have transgreift,
and none against them said.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy laws better than gold,
Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold.
128 I thought thy precepts all most just,
and so them laid in store :
All crafty and malicious wiles
I do abhor therefore.

P. E. The seventeenth Part.

129 Thy covenants are most wonderful and full of things profound :
My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are try'd and found.

130 When men first enter into thy word,
they find a light most clear :
And very idiots understand,
when they it read or hear.

131 For joy I have both gap'd & breath'd
to know thy commandment :
That I might guide my self thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.

132 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above :
As thou art wont to behold such,
as thy name fear and love.

133 Direct my foot-steps by thy Word,
that I thy will may know :
And never let inquiry
thy servant overthrow. (harm's

134 From slanderous tongues & deadly preserve and keep me sure :
Thy precepts thou wil I observe,
and put them cke in ure.

135 Thy countenance which doth sur-
the sun in his bright hue, (mount, Let mine on me, and by thy law
teach me what to clew.

136 Out of mine eyes great floods gush
of dreary tears and fell : (out
When I beheld how wicked men
thy law keep never a dell.

7 Z A D I. The eighteenth Part.

137 In every point Lord thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou doft sentence pronounce thou art a righteous judge.

138 To render right and free from guile
are two chief points most high :
And such as thou haft in thy law
commanded us straightly.

139 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd
and even pin'd away :
To ice my toes thy word forger,
for ought that I do may.

140 So pure and perfect is thy Word,
as any heart can deem :
And I thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteem.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree :
Yet do I not thy laws forger,
nor flynk away from thee.

142 Thy righteousness (Lord) is most for ever to endure : (just,
Also thy Law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.

143 I wable and grieve have feiz'd on me
and brought me wondrous low :
Yet do I it, for thy precepts
delight to hear and know

144 The righteousness of thy judgements
doth last for evermore :
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

K O P H. The nineteenth Part.

145 Wish fervent heart I cal'd & cri'd,
now answer me O Lord :
That thy commandments to observe,
I may fully accord.

146 To thee my God I make my suit
with most humble requests :
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thy hefts.

147 To thee I cry even in the morn,
before the day wax' light :
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole pligt.

148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night
and ere they call I wake :
That by deviting on thy Word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine ears to hear my voice and pitie on me take :
As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord
left life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw near, and do procure
my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are far gone back
and straid from it lewdly.

151 Therefore O Lord, approach thou for need doth so require, (near
For all thy precepts true they are,

152 But thy commandments have I not now, but long ago :
That they remain for evermore,
thou haft them grounded so.

R E S H. The twentieth part.

153 My trouble and affliction,
consider and behold :
Deliver me, for of thy law,
I ever take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause
with speed some succour send :
From death(as thou haft promised)
Lord keep me and defend.

155 As for the wicked, far thy are
from having health and grace :
Whereby they might thy statutes know
they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies Lord I grant
what tongue can them attain !
And as thou haft me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtain.

157 though many men did trouble me
and persecute me sore :
Yet from thy laws I never shrank,
nor went awry therefore.

158 And truth it is for grief I die,
when I these traitors see :
Because they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.

159 Behold, for I do love thy laws wch

with heart most glad and fain :
As thou art good and gracious Lord,
restore my life again.
160 What thy word doth decree, must be,
and so it hath been ever :
Thy righteous judgments are also most true and decay never.

S C H I N. The xxi. part.
161 Princes have sought by cruelty,
causless to make me crouch :
But all in vain, for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch.
162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Than he that of rich spoils and prey,
great store and plenty had.

163 As for all lies and falsities,
I hate most and detest :
For why thy holy law do I above all things love best.
164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord,
singing with heart and voice :
Thy righteous acts and wonderfuls
so cause me to rejoice.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such as do thy statutes love : (have No danger shall their quiet state impair or once remove.
166 My only health and comfort Lord,
I look for at thy hand :
And therefore have I done those things,
which thou didst me command.

167 Thy laws have been mine exercise
which my soul most desir'd :
so much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I requir'd :
168 Thy statutes and commandements,
I kept (thou know'st) aright :
or all the things that I have done,
are present in thy sight.

All. The xxii. part.
169 O Lord let my complaint and cry
before thy face appear
and as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.
170 Mine humble supplication, tow'r'd thee let find access :
and grant me Lord deliverance,
for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak,
after most ample sort :
then thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.

172 My tongue shall sing and preach thy and on this wise say shall : (word, famous acts and noble laws
are just and perfect all.

173 Strech out thy hand I thee beseech,
and spedily me save :
thy commandments to observe chosen O Lord I have.
174 Of thee alone Lord I crave health,
for other I know none,

And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.
175 Grant me therefore long daies to thy name to magnifie : (live
And of thy judgement merciful
let me the labour try.
176 For I was lost and went astray,
much like a wandering sheep :
O seek me, for I have not fail'd thy commandments to keep.

When as we sage in Babylon,
the rivers round about :
And in remembrance of Sion,
the tears for grief burst out.
2 We hang'd our harps and instruments
the willow trees upon :
For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were
sai'd to us tauntinglie :
Now let us hear your Hebrew songs
and plesant melody.
4 Alas said we, who can once frame
his sorrowful heart to sing
The praises of our loving God
thus under a strange King ?
5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide :
Then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guide.
6 And let my tongue withiin my mouth,
be ti'd for ever fast :
If that I joy before I see thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore (OLord) remember now
the cursed noise and crie
That Edomis sons against us made,
when they raz'd our citie.
Remember Lord their cruel words,
when as with one accord
They cri'd, On, sack and raze their walls,
in despight of the Lord.

8 Even so shalt thou O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought :
And happy that man be cal'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.
9 Yea blessed that man be cal'd,
that takes thy children young :
To dash their bones against hard stones,
that lie the streets among.

Then wil I praise with my whole
my Lord my God alwaies: (heart
Even in the presence of the gods
I wil advance thy praise.
2 Toward thy holie Temple. I will look and worship thee:
And praised in my thankful mouth
thy holie Name shall be.

Even for thy loving kindness sake,
and for thy truth withal :
For thou thy Name hast by thy Word
advanced over all.
3 When I did cal, thou heardeft me,
and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength within my soul to grow.

4 Yea all the Kings on earth, they shal
give praise to thee O Lord :
For they of thy most holie mouth
have heard the mighty word.
5 They of the waies of God the Lord :
in singing thal intreat :
Because the glorie of the Lord
is exceeding great.
6 The Lord is high and yet he doth behold the lowlie sprite :
Bur he (contemning) knows a far
the proud and lofty wight.
7 Although in midit of trouble I do walk, yet thal I stand Renewed by thee, O my Lord,
thou wil stretch our thy hand,
Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and faved shall I be By thy right hand : the Lord God will perform his work to me.
8 Thy mercy Lord indires for aye,
Lord do me not forsake :
Fortake me not that am the work which thine own hand did make.

O Lord thou hast me try'd and known,
my sitting thou doft know,
2 And rising eke, my thoughts afar
shou understand'it also.
3 My paths, yea and my lying down
thou compassest alwaies :
And by familiar custom art
acquainted with my waies.
4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee :
5 Thou me behind hold'it and before,
thou lai'ft thine hand on me.
6 Too wonderful above my reach,
Lord is thy cunning skill :
It is so high, that I the same cannot attain until.
7 From sight of thy all-seeing Spire,
Lord, whither shall I go ?
Or whither shal I flee away,
thy prelace to scape fro?
8 To heaven if I mount aloft,
lo thou art present there :
In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou doft appear.
9 Yea let me take the morning wings,
and let me go and hide.
Even there where are the farthest parts,
where flowing sea doth slide.
10 Yea even thither also shall thy teaching hand me guide :

And thy right hand shall hold me fast; 3 I like Serpents, underneath their lips and make me to abide.
11 Yea, if I say, the darkness shall yet shroud me from thy sight :
Lo even also the darkest night
about me shall be light.
12 Yea darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day :
To thee the darkness and the light,
are both alike alway.

The second part.

13 For thou possessed hast my reins,
and thou hast covered me,
When I within my mothers womb
inclosed was by thee.
14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully,
and wondrously I am :
Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soul doth know the same.
15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place
I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.
16 When I was torneis, then shone eye
saw me, for in thy book
Were written all, nought was before,
that after fathion took.
17 The thoughts therefore of thee O God,
how dear are they to me ?
And of them all how passing great
the endless number be !
18 If I could count them, lo their sum
more than the sand I see :
An swhensoever I awake,
yet am I still with thee.
19 The wicked and the bloody men,
O that thou wouldest slay :
Even tho' e O God, to whom depart,
depart from me I say.
20 Even tho' e of thee (O Lord my God)
that speak full wickedly :
Tho' that are lied up in vain,
being enemies to thee.
21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
and that in earnest wise ?
Contend I not against them all,
against thee that arise ?
22 I hate them with unfeigned hate,
even as my urret foes :
23 Try me, (O God) and know my heart,
my thoughts prove and disclose.
24 Consider Lord if wickedness
in me there any be :
And in thy way (O God my guide)
for ever lead thou me.

PSALM Cxli. N.

Lord save me from the evil man,
and from the cruel weight
And from all those which evil do imagine in their sprite.
2 Which make on me continual war,
their tongues lo they have wher-

is Adders poison set.
4 Keep me (O Lord) from wicked hands, prefer me to abide Free from the cruel man that means
to cause my steps to slide.
5 The proud have laid a snare for me,
and they have spread a net
With cords in my path-way, and grins
for me eke have they set.
6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone :
Hear me O Lord, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and mone.
7 O Lord my God, thou only art
the strength that saveth me :
My head in day of battle hath been covered still by thee.
8 Let not (O Lord) the wicked have the end of his desire :
Perform not his ill thoughts, left he
with pride be set on fire.
9 Of them that compass me about,
the chieftest of them all,
Lord let the mischief of their lips
upon themselves befall :
10 Let coals fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame :
And in deep pits, so as they may not rise out of the same.
11 For no backbiter shall on earth
be set in stable plight :
And evil to destruction still shall haunt the cruel weight.
12 I know the Lord th'afflicted will revenge, and judge the poor :
13 The just that praise thy name, just shall dwell with thee evermore.

PSALM Cxli. N.

O Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord haste thee unto me
And hearken Lord unto my voice,
when I do cry to thee.

2 As incense let my prayers be directed in thine eyes :
And the up-lifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice.

3 My Lord for guiding of my mouth,
set thou a watch before :
And also of my moving lips,
O Lord keep thou the door.

4 That I should wicked works commit,
incline thou not my heart :
With ill men of their delicates,
Lord let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous smite me Lord
for that is good for me :
Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oyl shall be.
Such smiting shall not break my head,
the time shall shortly fall,
When I shall in their misery
make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in stony places down
their judges shall be cast :
Then if all they hear my words, for then
they have a pleasant taste.
7 Our bones about the graves mouth,
so scattered are they found :
As he that heweth wood, or he
that diggeth up the ground.
8 But O my Lord my God, mine eyes
do look up unto thee :
In thee is all my trust, let not my soul forsakes be.
9 Which they have laid to catch me in,
Lord keep me from the snare :
And from the subtle grins of them
that wicked workers are.
10 The wicked into their own nets
together let them fall :
While I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

I did send out my cry :
And with my strained voice unto
the Lord God prayed I .
2 My meditation in his sight
to pow'r I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.
3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee :
In way where I did walk, a snare
they slyly laid for me.
4 I look'd & view'd on my right hand,
but none there woul'd me know:
All refuge failed me, and for
my soul none cared tho.
5 Then cry'd I Lord to thee, and said,

Thou in the land of living art
my portion and my part.

Lord in thy native truth and in

O err not at all :
For justin'd be in thy sight
no one that liveth shall.
3 The enemy hath purif'd my soul,
my life to ground hath thrown :
And laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long agone.

4 Within me in perplexity
was mine accumbred spirit:
And in me was my troubled heart
amazed and affright.
5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate :
Yea in thy works I meditate,
that thy hands have create.
6 To thee, O Lord, my God, loe!
do stretch my craving hands :
My soul desireth after thee,
as do the thirsty lands.
7 Hear me with speed, my spirit doth fail,
hide not thy face me fro :
El's shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.
8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know,
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.
9 For I lift up my soul to thee,
O Lord deliver me
From all mine enemies, for I have hidden me with thee.
10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
thou art my God, I say :
Let thy good Sp'rit into the land
of mercy me convey.
11 For thy names sake with quickening alive do thou me make : (grace)
And out of trouble bring my soul,
even for thy justice sake.

That do oppress my soul : for I thy servant am and shall.

MY soul praise thou the Lord alwaies,

3 Trust not in worldlie Princes then,

Nor in the sons of mortal men,
in whom there is no health.
4 For why? their breath doth soon depart
to earth anon they fall :
And then the counses of their heart
decay and perish all.
5 O happy is that man I say,
whom Jacobs God doth aid:
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.
6 Which made the earth and waters deep
the heavens high withal :
Which doth his word and promise keep

7 With right alwaies doth he proceed

The Lord (I say) doth love the right,

And quite the widow from distress,

10 Thy Lord and God eternally
O Sion still shall reign :
In time of all posterity,

PSALM Cxlvii. N.
Praise ye the Lord, for it is good
unto our God to sing :
For it is pleasant, and to praise,
it is a comely thing.

2 The Lord his own Jerusalem,
he buildeth up alone :
And the dispersed of Israel
doth gather into one.

3 He heals the broken in their heart,
their sores up doth he bind :
4 He counts the number of the stars,
and names them in their kind.
5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite :
6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
to ground the wicked wight.

7 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
unto the Lord rejoice :
And to our God upon the Harp,
advance your singing voice.
8 He covers heaven with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain :
And on the mountains he doth make
the grass to grow again.

9 He gives to beasts their food, and to young Ravens when they cry :
10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans legs doth lie.
11 But in all thole that fear the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight :
And such as do attend upon his mercies shining light.

Th: second part.

12 O praise the Lord Jerusalem,
thy God O Sion praise :
13 For he the bars hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he staires.
14 Thy children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he Doth settle peace, and with the flour
of wheat he filleth thee,

15 And his commandement upon
the earth he sendeth out :
And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftly run about.
16 He giveth snow like wool, hoar-frost
like albes he doth spread :
17 Like morsels casts his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide ?

18 He sended forth his mighty word,
and melteth them again :
His winds he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow a-main.

19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth shew :
His statutes and his judgements he gives Israel to know.

20 With every Nation hath he not so dealt, nor have they known His secret judgements, ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

PSALM Cxlviii. J. H.

Give laud unto the Lord,
From Heaven that is so high :
Praise him in deed and word,
Above the starrie skie,
2 And also ye,
His Angels all Armies royal,
Praise him with glee.

3 Praise him both Moon and Sun
Which are so clear and bright :
The fame of you be done,
Ye glistening stars of light :
4 And eke no less,
Ye Heavens fair,
5 And clouds of the air,
His laud express.

6 For at his word they were,
All formed as we see :
At his voice did appear
All things in their degree,
Which he set fast,
To them he made

7 Extol and praise Gods Name,
On earth ye Dragons fell :
All deeps do ye the same,
For it becomes you well.
8 Him magnifie,
Fire, hail, ice, snow,
And storms that blow
At his decree.

And trees that fruitful are :
The Cedars great and tall,
His worthy praise declares.

Yea birds flying,
And worms creeping,
that on earth dwell.

11 All Kings both more and less,
With all their pompous train :
Princes and all Judges
That in the world remain,
Exalt his Name.
12 Young men and maidis,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.

13 For his Name shall we prove To be most excellent, 1
Whose praise is far above
The earth and firmaments.
14 For sure he shall Exalt with blis.

And help them all.
15 His saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthiness :
The children of Israel,
Each one both more and less.
16 And also they
That with good will
His words fulfill,
And him obey.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God,
a new rejoicing song :
And let the praise of him be heard
his holy Saints among.
1 Let Israel rejoice in him,
that made him of nothing:
And let the seed of Sion eke
be joyful in their King.
3 Let them sound praise with voice of unto his holy Name : (flute,
And with the timbrel and the harp
sing praises of the same.
4 For why ? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set :
And by deliverance he will raise
the meek to glory great.
5 With glory and with honour now
let all his Saints rejoice :
And now aloud upon their beds
advance their singing voice.
6 And in their mouths let be the gifts

of God the mighty Lord :
And in their hands eke let them bear
a double edged sword.

- 7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands :
- 8 To bind their stately Kings in chains,
their Lords in iron bands
- 9 To execute on them the doom
that written is before :
This honour all his Saints shall have praise ye the Lord therefore.

P S A L M C l . N .

Yield unto God the mighty Lord
praise in his Sanctuary :
And praise him in the firmament
that shews his power on high.
2 Advance his Name, and praise him in his mighty acts always :
According to his excellency
of greatness give him praise.
3 His praises with the princely noise
of sounding trumpets blow :
Praise him upon the Viol, and upon the Harp also 4 Praise him with timbrel and with flute
Organs and Virginals :
5 With sounding Cymbals praise ye him,
praise him with loud Cymbals.
6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing praise the Lord :
To praise the name of God the Lord
agree with one accord.

V E N I C R E A T O R .

Come Holy Ghost eternal God proceeding from above :
Both from the Father and the Son,
the God of peace and love.
Visit our minds, and into us
thy heavenly grace inspi're :
That in all truth and godliness
we may have true desire.
Thou art the very Comforter
in all wo and distress :
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can express.
The fountain and the living spring
of joy celestial.
The fire so bright, the love so clear,
and wisdom spiritual.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christ's Church doth stand,
In faithful hearts writing thy law,
the finger of God's hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace :
That through thy help the praise of God
may stand in every place.

O Holy Ghost into our wits
Send down thy heavenly light :
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
to serve God day and night.
Strengthen and stablise all our weakness,
so feeble and so frail :
That neither flesh, the world nor devil
against us do prevail.

Put back our enemies far from us,
and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man,
without grudge or disdain.
And grant (O Lord) that thou being
our leader and our guide :
We may eschew the snares of sin,
and from thee never slide.

To us such plenty of thy grace
good Lord grant we thee pray :
That thou maist be our Comforter,
at the last dreadful day
Of all strife and dissension,
O Lord, dissolve the bands :
And make the knots of peace and love
throughout all Christian lands.

Venite exultemus.

Grant us, O Lord, through thee
the Father most of might :
That of his dear beloved Son
we may attain the fighr.
And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons three.
Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Son equal :
And to the Holy Spirit also,
one God coeternal.
And pray we that the only Son vouchsafe his Spirit to send
To all that do professe his Name,
unto the Worlds last end.
The humble fute of a sinner. M..
O Lord on whom I do depend,
behold my careful heart :
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.
Thou seest my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee :
And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me.
But onely thou whose aid I crave
whose mercy still is prest,
To ease all those that come to thee,
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou seest my restless eyes,
my tears and grievous groane :
Attend unto my fute O Lord,
mark well my plaint and moane.
For sin hath so enclosed me,
and compaite me about :
That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.
For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain :
But even thy Christ, my Lord and God,
who for my sins was slain.
Whose bloudy wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortal eye,
Yet do thy Saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enjoy the fighr of him,
and see his wounds and bloud.
And as thine Angels and thy Saincs
do now behold the same,
So trust I to posses that place,
with them to praise thy Name.
But whilst I live here in this vale,
where sinnes do frequent :
Assit me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament.
Lest that I tread the sinners trace,
and give them my content,
To dwel with them in wickednes,
whereto nature is bent.
Only thy grace must be my stay,
lest that I fall down flat ;

And being down, then of my self cannot recover that.
Wherefore this is yet once again
my fute and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shal my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise :
And in thy Church and house of Saines
sing Psalms to thee alwaies.

O Come and let us now rejoyce,
And sing unto the Lord :

O let us come before his face,
With inward reverence,
Confessing all our fomer sins,
And that with diligence.
To thank him for his benefits,
Always distributing :
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In Psalms now let us sing.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide :
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.
And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where :
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountains far and near.

The sea and all that is therein,
Are his, for he them made :
And eke his hand hath fashio ned
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therefore and worship him,
And down before him fall :
And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord and King
And we his people are :
His flock, and sheep of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.
This day if ye will hear his voice,
Then harden not your heart :
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in defart.

Which thing was of their negligence,
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wi deness,
A great and grievous crime,
Whereas your fath'rs tempted me,

They proved me, and faw my works,

For through his visitation,

Upon his servants all.

In Davids house his servant true,
According to his mind :
And also his anointed King,
As we in Scripture find.
As by his holy Prophets all
Oft times he did declare :
The which were since the world began,
His waies for to prepare.

That we might be delivered
From thosē that make debate :
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.

The mercy which he promised
Our Fathers to fulfil :
And think upon his covenant made,
According to his will.

And also to perform the oath
Which he before had sworne,
To Abraham our Father dear,
For us that were forlorn.

That he would give himself for us,
And us from bondage bring
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner fear,
And eke in righteousness :
And also for to lead our lives.

And why ? because he did regards

And let the mighty go.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for evermore

Because he hath me magnified,

Whose name be ever sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth enflame :
Throughout all generations,
To such as fear his Name.

He shewed strength with his great arm,
And made the proud to starr,
With all imaginations
That they have in their heart.

He hath put down the mighty ones
From their supernal seat :
And did exalt the meek in heart,
As he hath thought it meer,
The hungry he replenished
With all things that were good :
And through his power he made the rich
Oft times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance

Because mine eyes which thou haft made

Have now beheld thy saving health,
Which is the Lord of might,

Whom thou mercifully haft set

In open sight and visiblie,
Before all peoples face,

The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Satan over-quel :
And eke to be the glorie of

The Lamentation of a sinner.

OLord turn not away thy face
From him that lies prostrate :
Lamenting for his sinful life,
Before thy mercy gate :
Which gate thou openest wide to thase
That do lament their sin :
Shut not that gate against me Lord,
But let me enter in.

And cal me not to mine accounts
How I have lived here :
For then I know right well O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.

I need not to confess my life,
I am sure thou canst tell,
What I have been and what I am,
I know thou know'st it well.

O Lord thou know'st what things be past
And eke the things that be :
Thou know'st also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.

Before the heavens & earth were made
Thou know'st what things were then :
As all things else that have been since,
Among the sons of men.

And can the things that I have done,
Be hidden from thee then ?
Nay nay, thou know'st them all O Lord,
Where they were done and when,
Wherefore with tears I come to thee,
To beg and to intreat :
Even as the child that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound :
Requiring mercy for my sin,
To heal my deadly wound.

O Lord I need not to repeat,
What I do beg and crave :
Thou know'st (O Lord) before I ask,

O ur Father which in Heaven art,
Lord hallowed be thy Name,
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done
in earth, even as the same In Heaven is. Give us O Lord,
our daily bread this day,
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.
Into temptation lead us not,
from evil make us free :
For kingdom, power and glory thine
both now and ever be.

Another of the same by D. Cox.

O ur Father which in heaven art,
And mak'ft us al one brother-hood,
To call upon thee with one heart,
Our heavenly Father and our God.
Grant we pray not with lips alone,
But with our hearts deep sigh & groane,
Thy blessed Name be sanctified,
Thy holy Word might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy Name.
From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poor sheep.

Thy kingdom come even at this hour
And henceforth everlastingly :
Thine Holy Ghost into us poure,
With all his gifts most plenteously.
From Satans rage and filthy band,
Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven, in earth also :
In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.
Let not flesh, blood, or any ill
Prevail against thy holy will.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine :
Keep us from war and from blood-shed,
Also from sickness, dearth and pain.
That we may live in quietnes,
Without all greedy carfulness.

Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our carefull conscience :
As we forgive both great and small,
Which unto us have done offence.
Prepare us Lord for to serve thee
In perfect love and unity.

O Lord into temptation,
Lead us not when the fiend doth rage,
To withstand his invasion,
Give power and strength to every age.
Arm and make strong thy feeble host,
With faith and with the Holy Ghost.

For thou, O Lord, art King of kings,
And thou hast power over all :

The Complaint of a sinner.

W Here righteousness doth say, Lord for my sinful part, In wrath thou shouldst me pay Vengeance for my desert. I can it not deny, But needs I must confess, How that continually Thy laws I do transgres.

But if it be thy will With sinners to contend : Then all thy flock shall spill, And be lost without end. For who lives here so right, That rightly he can say, He sins not in thy sight, Full oft and every day?

The Scripture plain tells me, The righteous man offendeth Seven times a day 'gainst thee Whereon thy wrath dependeth: So that the righteous man Doth walk in no such path, But he falls now and than In danger of thy wrath.

Then fitch the case so stands, That even the man right wife Falls oft in sinful hands, Whereby thy wrath may rise, Lord, I that am unjust, And righteousness none have, Whereto then shall I trust, My sinful soul to save ?

But truly to that poit, Whereto I cleave and shall : Which is thy mercy moit, Lord let thy mercy fall, And mitigate thy mood, Or else we perish all : The price of this thy blood, Wherein mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare, No drop of bloud in thee : But that thou didst not spare To shed each drop for me. Now let those drops most sweet, So moist my heart to drie, That I with sin repleat, May live, and sin may die.

That being mortified, This sin of mine in me, I may be sanctified, By grace of thine in thee : So that I never fall Into such mortal sin, That my foes infernal

Praise ye the Lord so bounteous,
which worketh our salvation.

Lift up your hands in his holy place,
yea and that in the time of night :
Praise ye the Lord which gives all grace,
for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of Sion, which made heaven and earth by his Give to you and your nation, power,
his blessing mercy, and favour.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

The twelve Articles of the Christian Faith.

All my belief and confidence
is in the Lord of might :
The Father which all things hath made
the day and eke the night.

The heavens and the firmament,
and also many a star,
The earth and all that is therein,
which pass man's reason far.

And in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord his son :
Coequal with the Deicide,
and man in flesh and bone.
Conceived by the Holy Ghost,
his word doth me assure :

A Praier to the Holy Ghost.

And of his mother Mary born,
yer she a Virgin pure.

Because mankind to Satan was
for sin in bond and thrall :
He came and offer'd up himself
to death to save us all.
And suffering most grievous pain,
then Pilate being judge :
Was crucified on the Cross,
and therat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the spirit :
His body then was buried,
as is our use and rite.
His soul did a fter this descend
into the lower parts :
A dread unto the wicked spiris,
but joy to faithful hearts.

And in the third day of his death
he rose to life again :
To th' end he might be glorifid,
out of all grief and pain,
Ascending to the heavens high,
to sit in glory still :
On Gods right hand his Father dear,
according to his will.

Unril the day of judgement come,
when he shall come again Wich Angels power (yet of that day
we all be uncertaine)
To judge all people righteously,
whom he hath dearly bought :
The living and the dead also,
which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy Spirit of God,
(my faith to latife)
The third person in Trinity,
believe I steadfastly.
The holy and Catholick Church,
that Gods Word doth maintain :
And holy Scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth disdain.

And also I do trust to have
by Jesus Christ his death :
Release and pardon of my sins,
and that onely by faith.
What time all flesh shall rise again,
before the Lord of might :
And see him with their bodily eyes,
which now do give them light.

And then shal Christ our Saviour
the sheep and goats divide :
And give life everlasting,
to those whom he hath tri'd,
Within his Realm celestial,
in glory for to rest :
With all his holy companie
of Saints and Angels blest.

Which serve the Lord omnipotent
obediently each hour :
To whom be all dominion,
and praise for evermore.

Da Pacem.

A Prayer to the holy Ghost, to be sung before the Sermon.

Come holy Spirit the God of might comforter of us all : Teach us to know thy Word aright,

that we do never fall.

O Holy Ghost visit our coast,

defend us with thy shield :

Against all sin and wickedness,

Lord help us win the field.

Lord keep our King and his Council,

and give them will and might

To periere in thy Gospel,

which can put sin to flight.

O Lord that giv'it thy holy Word,

send Preachers plenteously :

That in the same we may accord,

and therein live and die.

O holy Spirit direct aright

the Preachers of thy Word :

That thou by them maist cut down sin,

as it were with a sword.

Depart not from thy Tailors pure,

but aid them at their need.

Which break to us the bread of life,

whereon our souls do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keep us

in peace and unity :

Keep us from lests and circous all,

and from all Papistry.

Convert all those that are our foes,

and bring them to thy light,

That they and we may well agree,

and praise thee day and night.

O Lord increase our faith in us,

and love so to abound :

That man and wife be void of strife,

and neighbours about us round.

In our time give thy peace O Lord,

to nations far and nigh :

And teach them all thy holy Word,

that we may sing to thee.

All glory to the Trinity,

that is of mighties most :

The living Father and the Son,

and eke the Holy Ghost.

As it hath been in all the time

that hath been heretofore :

As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for evermore,

Da Pacem Domine.

Give peace in these our daies O Lord,

Great dangers are now at hand :

Thine enemies with one accord,

Christs name in every land,

Seek to deface,

Root out and race

Thy true right worshipp in deed :

Be thou the stay,

Lord we thee pray,

Thou helpest alone in all need.

Give us that peace that we do lack

The Lamentation.

Through misbeliefs and ill life :

Thy Word to offer thou doest not slack

Which we unkindly gain-strive.

With fire and sword,

This healthful word,

Some persecute and opprest :

Some with the mouth,

Confess the truth

Without sincere godliness,

Give peace, and us thy Spirit down send

With grief and repentance true,

Doe pierce our hearts, our lives to

And by faith in Christ renew. (mond,

That fear and dread

War and blood-lined,

Through thy sweet mercy and grace,

May from us slide,

Thy truth may bide,

And abide in every place.

The Lamentation.

Lord in thee is all my trust,

give ear unto my woful cry,

Refuse me not that am unift,

But bowing down thy heavenly eye,

Behold how I do still lament,

my sins wherein I do offend :

O Lord for them shall I be shent ?

fit thee to please I do intend.

No, no, nor so, thy will is bent,

to deal with sinners in thine ire :

But when in heart they shall repent,

thou grantst with speed their just desire.

To thee therefore still shall I crie,

to wain away my sinful crime :

Thy blood O Lord is not yet drie,

but that it may helpe me in time.

Haste thee O Lord, haste thee I say,

to poure on me thy gifts of grace :

That when this life shall fit away,

in heaven with thee I may have place,

Where thou doft raige eternally,

with God which once did down thee

Where Angels sing continually, (send to thee be prale world without end.

R. W.

Preserve us Lord by thy dear word,

From Turk and Pope defend us Lord

Which both would thrust out of his throe

Our Lord Jesus Christ thy dear Son.

Lord Jesus Christ shew forth thy might,

That thou art Lord of Lords by right:

Thy poor afflicted flock defend,

That we may praise thee without end.

God Holy Ghost our Comforter,

Be our patron, help and succour :

Give us one mind and perfect peace,

All gifts of grace in us increas.

Thou living God in persons three,

Thy name be prais'd in unity :

In all our need so us deterd,

That we may praise thee without end.

A FORME OF PRAYER TO be used in private houses every Morning and Evening.

Morning Prayer.

Almightie God, and most merciful Father, we do not present our selves here before thy Majestie, trusting in our own merits or worthines, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to hear our prayers, & grant our requestes which we shal make to thee in the name of thy beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who hath also commanded us to assemble our selvs together in his name, with full assurance that he will not onely be amongst us, but also be our Mediator and Advocate towards thy Majestie, that we may obtain all things which shall seem expedient to thy blesSED will, for our next sities. Therefore we beseech thee (most merciful Father) to turn thy loving countenance towards us, and impue not unto us our manifold finnes and offences, whereby we justly deserve thy wrath and sharp punishment: but rather receive us to thy mercy, for Jesus Christs sake, accepting his death and passion as a just recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with us. And seeing that of thy great mercies we have quietly passed this night, grant (O heavenly Father) that we may before this day wholly in thy service, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds, may redound to the glory of thy Name, & good example to all men, who seeing our good works, may gloriifie thee our heavenly Father. And forasmuch as of thy meer favour and love, thou hast not onely created us to thy own similitude and likenes, but also hast chosen us to be heirs with thy dear Son Jesus Christ, of that immortal kingdom, which thou preparedst for us before the beginning of the world: we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighthen our hearts with thy holy Spirit, that we may in the mean time live in godly conversation and integritie of life, knowing that idolatres, adulterers, covetous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

And because thou hast commanded us to pray one for another, we do not onely make request (O Lord) for our selves, and them that thou hast already called to the true understanding of thine heavenly wil, but for all people and nations of the world who as they know by thy wonderfull works, that thou art God over all, so they may be instructed by thine holyspirit to believe in thee their onely Saviour & Redeemer. But forasmuch as they cannot believe except they hear, nor cannot hear but by preaching, and none can preach except they be sent: therefore (O Lord) raise up faithful distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine onely seek thy glory. Contrairely confound satan, Antichrist, with all hirelings and Papists, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by sects, schismes, heresies and errors, disquiet thy little flock. And because (O Lord) we be fallen into the latter dayes and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the upper hand, and Satan by his ministers seekes by all means to queach the light of thy Gospel, we beseech thee to maintain thy cause against thos'e ravening wolves, and strengthen all thy servants whom they keep in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyranny, or to discourage thy children, neither yet let our sins and wickenes be an hinderance to thy mercies; but with speed (O Lord) consider their great misery. For thy people Israell many times by their sins provoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy just judgements; yet though their sins were never so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receavedst them to mercy. We therefore most wretched sin-

Prayers.

ners bewail our manifold sins, and earnestly repent us for our former wickedness & ungodly behaviour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our selves purchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee, for Jesus Christ's sake, to shew thy mercies upon us, and receive us again to thy favour. Grant us (dear Father) these our requests, and all other things necessary for us and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Jesus Christ our Lord. In whose name we beseech thee, as he hath taught us, saying, Our Father which art, &c.

Evening Prayer.

O Lord God, Father everlasting and full of pity, we acknowledge and confess that we be not worthy to lift up our eyes to heaven, much less to present our selves before thy Majesty, with confidence that thou will hear our prayers, & grant our requests, if we consider our own deservings. For our consciences do accuse us, and our sins do witness against us, and we know that thou art an upright Judge, which doest not justify the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the faults of all such as transgresst thy commandments. Yet most merciful Father, see it hath pleased thee to command us to call on thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising even then to help us when we feel our selves (as it were) swallowed up of death and desperation, we utterly renounce all worldly confidence, and flee to thy sovereign bounty as our only stay and refuge: beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold sins and wickedness, whereby we continually provoke thy wrath and indignation against us: neither our negligence and unkindness, which have neither worthily esteemed, nor in our lives sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospel revealed unto us but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy Sonne Jesus Christ, who by offering up his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sins. Have mercy therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences. Teach us by thine holy Spirit, that we may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent for the same, and so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate, and such as thou hast forsaken cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy name; but the repenting heart, the sorrowful mind, the conscience oppressed, hanging and thirsting for thy grace, shall ever set forth thy praise and glory.

And albeit we be but worms and dust, yet thou art our Creator, and we be the work of thine hands: yea thou art our

Father, and we thy chi'dren: thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flock: thou art our Redeemer, and we the people whom thou hast bought: thou art our God, and we thine inheritance. Correct us not therefore in thine anger, (O Lord) neither according to our deserts punish us, but mercifully chastise us with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know that at what time soever a sinner doth repent him of his sins from the bottom of his heart, thou wilt put away his wickedness out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thine holy Prophets.

Finally, forasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make & night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to travel in, grant (dear Father) that we may so take our bodily rest, that our souls may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jesus Christ shall appear for our deliverance out of this mortal life: and in the mean season that we, nor overcome by any fantasies, dreams, or other temptations, may fully set our minds upon thee, love thee, fear thee, and rest in thee: furthermore, that our sleep be not excessive or overmuch, after the insatiable desires of our flesh, but only sufficient to content our weak nature, that we may be better disposed to live in all godly conversation, to the glory of thine holy name & profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

Honour and praise be given to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most dear Father of heaven, for all thy mercies & loving kindnesses shewed unto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodness, freely and of thine own accord to elect and chuse us to salvation before the beginning of the world. And even like continual thanks be given to thee, for creating us after thine own image, for redeeming us with the precious blood of thy dear Son, when we were utterly lost; for sanctifying us with thy holy Spirit, in the revelation & knowledge of thy holy word: for helping and succouring us in all our needs & necessities: for saving us from all dangers of body & soul: for comforting us so fatherly in all our tribulations & persecutions: for sparing us so long, and giving us so large a time of repentance. These benefits, O most merciful Father, like as we acknowledge to have received them of thy only goodness, even so we beseech thee for thy dear Son Jesus Christ's sake, to grant us alwayes thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led into all truth, and comforted comforted in all adversities. O Lord strengthen our faith, kindle it more in seruenenes & love towards thee, and our neighbours for thy sake. Suffer us not most dear Father, to receive thy word any more in vain: but grant us alwaies the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word and deed, we may sanctifie and do worship to thy Name: help to amplify & increaſe thy kingdom, and whatſoever thou ſendest, we may be heartily well content with thy good pleaſure and will. Let us not lack the thing (O Father,) without the which we cannot ſerve thee: but bleſſ thou ſo all the works of our hands, that we may have ſufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpful unto others. Be merciful, O Lord to our offences: and ſeeing our debt is great, which thou haſt forgiuen us in Jesus Chrift, make us to love thee and our neighbours ſo much the more. Be thou our Father, captain and deſender in all temptations: hold thou us by thy merciful hand, that we may be delivered from all inconveniences, and end our lives in the ſanctifying and honouring of thy holy Name, through Jesus Chrift our Lord and onely Saviour.

I Let thy mightie hand and ourſtretched arm (O Lord) be ſtill our deſence: thy mercie and loving kindnes in Jesus Chrift thy dear Son our ſalvation, thy true and holy word our inſtruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and conſolation, unto the end, and in the end. So be it.

Lord increase our faith.

A Prayer to be ſaid before a man begin his work.

O Lord God, moſt merciful Father and Saviour, ſeeing it hath pleaſed thee to command us to travel that we may relieve our need, we beſeech thee of thy grace ſo to bleſſ our labour, that thy bleſſing may extend unto us, without the which we are not able to continue, and that this great favour may be a wirneſſ unto us of thy bountifulnes & assistance, ſo that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou haſt over us.

Moreover, O Lord, we beſeech thee that thou wouldſt strengthen us with thy holy Spirit, that we may faithfully travel in our ſtate and vocation without fraud or deceiſ, & that we may endeavour our ſelvſ to follow thine holy ordinance, rather then ſeek to faciſie our greedy affections, or deſire to gain. And if it please thee (O Lord) to proſper our labour, give us a wind alſo to help them that have need, according to thy abiliſy that thou of thy mercy haſt give us: and knowing that all good things come of thee, grant that we may humble our ſelvſ to our neighbours, & not by any means lift our ſelvſ above them which have not received ſo large a portion of thy mercie as thou haſt given us. And if it please thee (O Lord) to trie & exercise us by greater poverty and neceſſity then our heil would deſire, that thou wouldſt yet (O Lord) grant us grace to know that thou wilt nouriſh us continually through thy bountiful liberality, that we be not ſo tempiſt, that we fall into diſtrift, but that we may patiently wait till thou fill us, not onely with corporal graces and benefits, but chiefly with thine heavenly and ſpiritual treasures; to the intent that we may alwaies have more ample occaſion to give thee thanks, and wholly to reſt upon thy mercie. Hear us (O Lord) of mercy, through Jesus Chrift thy Son our Lord, Amen.

A Confeſſion for all estates and times.

3 AP 56

O Eterne God, moſt merciful Father, we confeſſ and acknowledge here before thy divine Majetie, that we are miſerable finnes, conceiued and born in ſin and iniquitie, ſo that in us there is no goodness. For the fleſh evermo re rebelleth againſt the ſpirit, whereby we continually transgreſſ thy holy precepts and commandments, and to purcaſe to our ſelvſ through thy iude judgment, deaſh and diſtation. Notwithſtanding (O heavenly Father) for almoſt as we are diſpleaſed with our ſelvſ, for the finis we have committed againſt thee, and do untaimedly repent us of the fame, we moſt humbly beſeech thee for Jesus Chrifts ſake, to ſew thy mercie upon us, to forgiue al our finis, and increaſe thy holy Spirit in us, that we acknowledging from the bottom of our hearts, our own unrighteouſnes, may from henceforth not onely mortiſe our ſinful luſt and affections, but alſo bring forth ſuch fruits as may be agreeable to thy moſt bleſſed will: not for the worthiſſeſſ thereof, but for the meriſ of thy deariſly beloved Son Jesus Chrift our onely Saviour, whom thou haſt already given an oblation and offering for our finis, and for whose ſake we are certainly perwaſed, that thou wilt denie us nothing, that we ſhall ask in his name, according to thy wil. For thy ſpirit doth aſſure our conſciences, that thou art our merciful Father, and ſo lovest us thy children through him, that nothing is able to remove thy heavenly grace and favour from us. To thee therefore (O Father) with thy Son and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end, Amen.
